Delays in the filing of our Annual Report on Form 10-K, which was filed with the SEC on April 25, 2007, created subsequent quarter close delays and the Company has been unable to complete its Form 10-Q for the period ended March 31, 2007 within the prescribed time limit. The Company expects to report a net loss for the quarter ended March 31, 2007 of approximately $1.0 million, compared with net income of approximately $2.7 million in the comparable prior quarter. The estimated $3.7 million decrease in net income for the quarter ended March 31, 2007, compared to the comparable quarter of the prior year, is primarily attributable to a decrease in service margin performance, increased professional fees, incremental stock-based compensation expenses, and severance expenses related to our former CFO.
