Further, on and effective as of May 24, 2016, the Board of Directors of the Company approved and adopted certain additional amendments to certain provisions of the By-laws (the “Amended By-laws”). The Amended By-laws include, among other technical, conforming, modernizing and clarifying revisions, the following revisions and clarifications, principally to revise certain sections of the existing by-laws to adhere more closely to the language found in the Delaware General Corporation Law and to update the advance notice provisions:

revisions to existing provisions in Article II, Section 2 regarding notice of stockholder nominations for annual meetings of stockholders, including to (i) clarify that a public announcement of an adjournment or postponement of an annual meeting does not extend any time period for stockholders to provide notice of a nomination, (ii) require the nominating stockholder to provide information or representations with respect to (a) any agreement, arrangement or understanding to mitigate loss to, manage risk or benefit of share price changes with respect to the Company’s securities, (b) its status as a holder of record of shares of the Company and entitled to vote at the meeting and its intentions to appear in person or by proxy at such meeting to propose such nomination, and (c) whether the nominating stockholder or its associated person intends or is part of a group that intends to solicit proxies from stockholders in support of such nomination, (iii) require the nominating stockholder to update certain information previously provided by the nominating stockholder to the Company as of the record date for the meeting, and (iv) require the nominating stockholder or its qualified representative to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to present the nomination otherwise the nomination will be disregarded;

revisions to existing provisions in Article II, Section 3 regarding notice of proposals for annual meetings of stockholders, including to (i) clarify that a public announcement of an adjournment or postponement of an annual meeting does not extend any time period for stockholders to provide notice of business, (ii) require the proposing stockholder to provide the text of the proposed business (including the text of any resolutions proposed for consideration and in the event that such business includes a proposal to amend the Amended By-laws, certificate of incorporation of the Company, or any policy of the Company, the language of the proposed amendment), (iii) require the proposing stockholder to provide information or representations with respect to (a) any agreement, arrangement or understanding to mitigate loss to, manage risk or benefit of share price changes with respect to the Company’s securities, (b) its status as a holder of record of shares of the Company and entitled to vote at the meeting and its intentions to appear in person or by proxy at such meeting to propose such business, and (c) whether the proposing stockholder or its associated person intends or is part of a group that intends to solicit proxies from stockholders in support of its proposal, (iv) require the proposing stockholder to update certain information previously provided by the proposing stockholder to the Company as of the record date for the meeting, (v) clarify that proposals submitted pursuant to Rule 14a-8 of the Exchange Act of 1934 are deemed to satisfy the notice requirements in the Amended By-laws, and (vi) require the proposing stockholder or its qualified representative to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to present the proposed business otherwise the proposal will be disregarded; revisions to Article II, Section 5 to remove the right of a stockholder to demand that the vote for directors or other business be by ballot;

revisions to Article II, Section 6 to clarify that when a meeting of the stockholders is adjourned to another time or place, notice need not be given of the adjourned meeting if the time and place of the adjourned meeting is announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken but if the adjournment is for more than 30 days, or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, notice of the adjourned meeting must be given to each stockholder of record entitled to vote at the meeting;

revisions to Article II, Section 7 to (i) provide that special meetings of the stockholders may be held by means of remote communication and (ii) clarify that a public announcement of an adjournment or postponement of a special meeting does not extend the time period for stockholders to provide notice of a nomination;
revisions to Article III, Section 3 to provide that director resignations may be made by electronic transmission; revisions to Article IV, Section 9 to provide that officer resignations may be made by electronic transmission; and revisions to Article V, Section 12 to provide that a waiver of notice required to be given under the provisions of any law, the certificate of incorporation of the Company or the Amended By-laws may be made by electronic transmission.

The foregoing description of the amendments is qualified in its entirety by reference to, and should be read in conjunction with, the full text of the Amended By-Laws, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 3.1 to this report and is incorporated herein by reference.
