Item 8.01. Other Events.

On June 19, 2013, the presiding judge in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas signed and entered a Memorandum and Order in the previously-reported lawsuit of WesternGeco L.L.C. v. ION Geophysical Corporation. As previously reported, on August 16, 2012, the jury in the case returned a verdict against ION Geophysical Corporation (the "Company"), finding that the Company had willfully infringed certain patent claims and awarded WesternGeco the sum of $105.9 million in damages, consisting of $12.5 million in reasonable royalty and $93.4 million in lost profits. In the Memorandum and Order, the presiding judge rejected the jury's finding of willfulness and ruled that the Company's infringement was not willful, the case was not exceptional and that WesternGeco was not entitled to receive attorneys' fees. The Memorandum and Order denied the Company's post-verdict motions that challenged the jury's other infringement findings and the verdict damages amount.

The Court has not yet entered a final judgment in the case.
