ITEM 1. REPORT TO STOCKHOLDERS

SUMMARY OF GENERAL INFORMATION

THE FUND

The Central Europe, Russia and Turkey Fund, Inc. (the "Fund") is a non-diversified, actively-managed closed-end fund listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol "CEE." The Fund seeks long-term capital appreciation primarily through investment in equity or equity-linked securities of issuers domiciled in Central Europe, Russia and Turkey. It is advised and administered by wholly owned subsidiaries of the Deutsche Bank Group.

SHAREHOLDER INFORMATION

Prices for the Fund's shares are published weekly in the New York Stock Exchange Composite Transactions section of certain newspapers. Net asset value and market price information are published each Saturday in Barron's and other newspapers in a table called "Closed End Funds." Daily information on the Fund's net asset value is available from NASDAQ (symbol XCEEX). It is also available by calling: 1-800-437-6269 (in the U.S.) or 00-800-2287-2750 (outside of the U.S.). In addition, a schedule of the Fund's largest holdings, dividend data and general shareholder information may be obtained by calling these numbers.

The foregoing information is also available on our web site: www.ceefund.com.

There are three closed-end funds investing in European equities advised and administered by wholly owned subsidiaries of the Deutsche Bank Group:

- The Central Europe, Russia and Turkey Fund, Inc.—investing primarily in equity or equity-linked securities of issuers domiciled in Central Europe, Russia and Turkey (with normally at least 80% in securities of issuers in such countries).
- The European Equity Fund, Inc.—investing primarily in equity or equity-linked securities of companies domiciled in countries utilizing the euro currency (with normally at least 80% in securities of issuers in such countries).
- The New Germany Fund, Inc.—investing primarily in equity or equity-linked securities of middle market German companies with up to 20% in other Western European companies (with no more than 15% in any single country).

Please consult your broker for advice on any of the above or call 1-800-437-6269 (in the U.S.) or 00-800-2287-2750 (outside of the U.S.) for shareholder reports.

The Central Europe, Russia and Turkey Fund, Inc. is non-diversified and can take larger positions in fewer issues, increasing its potential risk. Investing in foreign securities presents certain risks, such as currency fluctuations, political and economic changes, and market risks. Any fund that focuses in a particular segment of the market will generally be more volatile than a fund that invests more broadly.

Semi-Annual Report

April 30, 2013

The Central Europe, Russia and Turkey Fund, Inc.

LETTER TO THE SHAREHOLDERS

Dear Shareholder,

For the fiscal half year ended April 30, 2013, the Central Europe, Russia and Turkey Fund's total return was 2.71% in U.S. dollar (USD) terms based on net asset value, while its total return was 1.70% based on market price. During the same period, the Fund's benchmark, the MSCI Emerging Markets Europe Index, returned 3.49%.¹

The Fund's core markets, including Russia, Turkey and Poland, turned in a moderately positive six months, with significant outperformance seen from Turkish stocks, which rose close to 17% in the period, as measured by the MSCI Turkey Index; followed by Poland and Russia, which rose less than to 3% each.² Hungary dropped close to 5.5%. Stocks in the Czech Republic fell more than 17% on average in the same period amid bleak 2013 GDP prospects and the fiscal austerity measures that were taken during the period.³ The Fund remained overweight in Russia while it remained underweight in its other core markets.⁴

In Turkey, strong performance was mostly driven by industrial and consumer stocks — both staples and discretionary — while the laggards included the utilities, materials and energy sectors.⁵ The economy grew 1.4% in Q4 2012, a slight disappointment to expectations, but is expected to improve in H1 2013 and to reach around 2.5% as domestic demand continues to strengthen amid an acceleration in credit growth. Industrial production continued to gain momentum, as indicated by the Q1 2013 Purchasing Managers Index (PMI) manufacturing readings and industrial production releases, which rose 4.4% year-over-year (YOY) in February 2013.⁶ Two areas of moderate concern continue to be the country's rate of inflation and current account deficit, both of which continued to hover around 7%. The Fund's average weighting in Turkey for the period ended April 30, 2013 was 16.6% versus a benchmark of 20.2%. The market rose as investors continued to put fresh capital into Turkey country-dedicated funds.

Russia, the Fund's biggest and only active overweight, saw its equity market rise steadily from mid-November 2012 through the end of January 2013, moving close to 20% from trough to peak, only to give up nearly all its gains by the end of April 2013. Investors stepped back from the market as the country's slowdown in real-GDP growth reignited debate among senior policy makers regarding an optimal policy mix, which resulted in unusually strong pressure on the Central Bank's interest rates for an early start of monetary policy easing. In January and February of 2013, GDP rose only 0.9% YOY, prompting economists to revise full-year 2013 forecasts down from their previous 3.4% YOY to 2.8% YOY. This was based on persistent weakness in external demand, particularly in Europe (Russia's single largest export market) and the further slowdown likely to occur in domestic lending activity. From the supply side, the slowdown in Q4 2012 and early 2013 has been led by the industrial sector, reflecting stagnant levels of hydrocarbon output, stiff competition from consumer imports and shallow investment demand. The Fund remained overweight in Russia, close to 8% on average for the period, but the stock picks slightly underperformed the benchmark.

From a sector perspective, the best performers within emerging Europe during the semi-annual period ended April 30, 2013 included industrials, consumer staples and consumer discretionary, while the biggest detractors included utilities, materials and energy. The Fund benefitted most from its significant underweight in the utilities sector, which declined more than 20% on average amid production disappointments and regulatory uncertainty for the industry. The biggest detractor was the Fund's 4.4% overweight in materials, with the sector's stock selections underperforming benchmark peers.

Currencies closed the period virtually unchanged, with the Russian ruble appreciating a half of a percent, while other currencies depreciated moderately against the U.S. dollar.

The Fund's discount to net asset value averaged 10.21% for the period under review, compared with 9.27% for the same period a year earlier.

Economic Outlook

Across the globe, the year 2013 started positively as January posted solid gains. However, performance began to differentiate in February. Most notably, the developed markets outperformed global emerging markets. In Eastern Europe, the January winner, Russia, was later replaced by Turkey. The Russian economy continues to show signs of slowing down, thus making the initial 4% consensus growth forecast for 2013 practically unachievable. We have already seen downward adjustments to consensus growth expectations. While this is not unusual, the concern is that the economy seems to have run out of drivers, sparking Russian officials to discuss potential stimulus measures. The talk has intensified with the appointment of a new head of the Central Bank of Russia, Ms. Elvira Nabiullina. We expect the Russian ruble to come under pressure and weaken, which will test the resilience of consumer-oriented stocks like retailers, banks and telecommunications, whose revenues are almost entirely in rubles. Banks are especially prone to potential pressure as their 20% loan growth expectations face headwinds. Conversely, in such an environment, we believe the energy sector could offer relative outperformance.

With little or no progress anticipated in the three most important factors for local equities (structural reforms, corporate governance and commodity prices), the outlook does not promise much for the Russian market in the second half of the year. Thus far, there is little evidence of improvement in any of the three areas. Although with high oil prices, the downside is rather limited, it is difficult to see where additional upside may come from. Barring surprisingly quick and far-reaching positive policy measures, our long-term overweight positioning in Russia continues to be trimmed. We continue to favor stocks in Russia with dividend protection and quality management.

In Turkey, the yield on the benchmark 2-year bond remained under 6% for most of Q1 2013. Yields are likely to remain at these levels for the coming months. Investors expected an upgrade in January of 2013 and, even though investors were disappointed when this didn't materialize, the Kurdish ceasefire, which boosts the peace process in Turkey, could be a major driver for the domestic equity market going forward.

In general, the CE3 markets — the Czech Republic, Hungary and Poland — have lost steam and are again viewed as increasingly risky under a renewed threat of turbulence. It is also feared that, as the situation in Cyprus demonstrated, the Eurozone's troubles are not over.⁷ For now, these local markets appear to offer few opportunities, except for some interesting dividend cases. Poland, in particular, faces a potentially negative development in that Prime Minister Donald Tusk announced that the government will review its current pension system in detail and present proposed changes in the coming months. He added that there is no plan to liquidate the pension funds, but that at the same time, there is no need to maintain the current system at all costs. From our perspective, this presents potential risk in the Polish equity market for possible scenarios that could lead to outflows from pension funds, lower liquidity or a combination of both. More positively, there is growing evidence that corporate earnings are slowly creeping out of negative territory and the market may finally start to react to the rate-cutting cycle after the latest surprisingly strong move from the National Bank of Poland.

On April 19, 2013, stockholders voted to approve a proposal to change the Fund's investment objective to "seeking long-term capital appreciation through investment primarily in equity and equity-linked securities of issuers domiciled in Central Europe, Russia and Turkey" and a related fundamental investment policy. The Fund's name was subsequently changed from "The Central Europe and Russia Fund, Inc." to "The Central Europe, Russia and Turkey Fund, Inc." As a result of the changes, the Fund is now able to invest in securities of issuers domiciled in Turkey to a greater extent than previously.

On June 14, 2013 at the conclusion of the Fund's twelve week, Tender Offer Measurement period, shares of common stock of The Central Europe, Russia and Turkey Fund, Inc. traded at an average discount to net asset value (NAV) of 10.16%. Under the terms of the Program, the Fund is required to conduct a tender offer if its shares trade at an average discount to NAV of more than 10% during the applicable twelve-week measurement period. Therefore, the Fund will conduct a tender offer for up to 5% of its outstanding shares at a price equal to 98% of NAV. The shares of most closed-end funds, including the Fund, are not continuously offered. Once issued, shares of closed-end funds are bought and sold in the open market. Shares of closed-end funds frequently trade at a discount to net asset value. The price of the Fund's shares is determined by a number of factors, several of which are beyond the control of the Fund. Therefore, the Fund cannot predict whether its shares will trade at, below, or above net asset value.

The Fund elected to be subject to the statutory calculation, notification and publication requirements of the German Investment Tax Act (Investmentsteuergesetz) (the "Act") for the fiscal year ended October 31, 2012 and intends to elect to be subject to the Act for the fiscal year ending October 31, 2013. This election allows investors based in Germany to invest in the Fund without adverse tax consequences.

INTERVIEW WITH PORTFOLIO MANAGEMENT TEAM — RAINER VERMEHREN AND

ODENIYAZ DZHAPAROV

Question: What were the circumstances around the Fund's investment objective, name and investment policy changes in the past quarter?

Answer: Prior to the changes, which were effective April 26, 2013, investment in Turkey was limited to no more than 20% of the Fund's assets. Given Turkey's growing importance in the region and the very positive development of its equity market, Turkey's weighting in the Fund's benchmark rose to a level of close to 20%, making it virtually impossible for the Fund to overweight Turkey vs. its benchmark, the MSCI Emerging Markets Europe Index. The recent changes to the Fund's investment objective and related policies allow portfolio management more flexibility in determining country allocations while providing the possibility of adding to Turkey, a market that is currently one of the most favored emerging markets. The timing of the changes has proved favorable in light of the ongoing domestic turmoil within Turkey that has caused the domestic market to decline close to 15% in May. We see this as a good opportunity to continue to add to the Fund's broadly diversified positions within Turkey.

Question: What prompted the dramatic decline of over 20% of TAV Havalimanlari, one of the Fund's holdings?

Answer: TAV Havalimanlari operates the main airport in Istanbul under a concession that is to expire in January 2021, and was one of the bidders favored to win an auction for the construction and operation of the third Istanbul airport. On Friday, May 3, 2013, it was announced that a Turkish consortium led by Limak Holding, which owns a 40% stake in Istanbul's Sabiha Gökçen airport, won the tender to build and operate the airport, for a 25-year concession. The tender was won in an open-bid auction, outstripping bids by TAV, and Fraport IC Ictas, which initially bid significantly less. TAV investors reacted to the announcement with disappointment, as a bid win would have mapped a significant road to growth for the company, with likely double-digit internal rates of return.

Question: Both the energy and utility sectors, which make up close to 35% of the Fund's assets, appear to be out of favor. Why were they the worst-performing sectors?

Answer: The utilities sector has been the worst performer over the past six months, declining over 20% in the period, as measured by the MSCI Emerging Markets Europe Index. All utilities and energy stocks, both in the Fund and in the index, turned in a negative performance for the period. The issue is not country-specific. While the company-specific issues vary, the main reason for both sectors' underperformance is ongoing discussions by government officials in various countries to increase taxes and/or export duties. Moreover, there is a risk of unplanned tariff increases for gas and utility companies in Russia. In Kazakhstan, a recent decision by the government to increase the crude oil export duty adds to already-present negative sentiment on the regulatory environment for the oil and gas sector. Additionally, within the energy sector, state-controlled companies dominate, especially in Russia, and state interests are not always aligned with minority shareholders' interests. Historically, Russian oil-and-gas state-controlled majors have been more inclined to prioritize investment plans over dividends, a strategy that was not always welcomed by investors. We expect the sector to continue to underperform while regulatory uncertainty persists.

Fair Value Measurements

Various inputs are used in determining the value of the Fund's investments. These inputs are summarized in three broad levels. Level 1 includes quoted prices in active markets for identical securities. Level 2 includes other significant observable inputs (including quoted prices for similar securities, interest rates, prepayment speeds and credit risk). Level 3 includes significant unobservable inputs (including the Fund's own assumptions in determining the fair value of investments). The inputs or methodology used for valuing securities are not necessarily an indication of the risk associated with investing in those securities.

The following is a summary of the inputs used as of April 30, 2013 in valuing the Fund's investments. For information on the Fund's policy regarding the valuation of investments, please refer to the Security Valuation section of Note 1 in the accompanying Notes to Financial Statements.

 Not Annualized. The ratio for the six months ended April 30, 2013 has not been annualized, since the Fund believes it would not be appropriate because the Fund's dividend income is not earned ratably throughout the fiscal year.

THE CENTRAL EUROPE, RUSSIA AND TURKEY FUND, INC.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS — APRIL 30, 2013 (unaudited)

NOTE 1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The Central Europe, Russia and Turkey Fund, Inc. (formerly The Central Europe and Russia Fund, Inc.) (the "Fund") is a non-diversified, closed-end management investment company incorporated in Maryland. The Fund commenced investment operations on March 6, 1990.

The following is a summary of significant accounting policies followed by the Fund in the preparation of its financial statements. The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Security Valuation: The Fund calculates its net asset value ("NAV") per share for publication at 11:30 a.m., New York time.

Various inputs are used in determining the value of the Fund's investments. These inputs are summarized in three broad levels. Level 1 includes quoted prices in active markets for identical securities. Level 2 includes other significant observable inputs (including quoted prices for similar securities, interest rates, prepayment speeds, and credit risk). Level 3 includes significant unobservable inputs (including the Fund's own assumptions in determining the fair value of investments). The inputs or methodology used for valuing securities are not necessarily an indication of the risk associated with investing in those securities.

Equity securities are valued at the most recent sale price or official closing price reported on the exchange (U.S. or foreign) or over-the-counter market on which they trade prior to the time of valuation and are categorized as Level 1 securities. Securities for which no sales are reported are valued at the calculated mean between the most recent bid and asked quotations on the relevant market or, if a mean cannot be determined, at the most recent bid quotation.

Investments in open-end investment companies are valued at their NAV each business day and are categorized as Level 1.

Securities and other assets for which market quotations are not readily available or for which the above valuation procedures are deemed not to reflect fair value are valued in a manner that is intended to reflect their fair value as determined in accordance with procedures approved by the Board and are generally categorized as Level 3. In accordance with the Fund's valuation procedures, factors used in determining value may include, but are not limited to, the type of the security; the size of the holding; the initial cost of the security; the existence of any contractual restrictions on the security's disposition; the price and extent of public trading in similar securities of the issuer or of comparable companies; quotations or evaluated prices from broker-dealers and/or the appropriate stock exchange (for exchange-traded securities); an analysis of the company's or issuer's financial statements; an evaluation of the forces that influence the issuer and the market(s) in which the security is purchased and sold and with respect to debt securities; the maturity, coupon, creditworthiness, currency denomination, and the movement of the market in which the security is normally traded. The value determined under these procedures may differ from published values for the same securities.

Disclosure about the classification of the fair value measurements is included in a table following the Fund's Schedule of Investments.

New Accounting Pronouncement: In January 2013, Accounting Standard Update 2013-01 (ASU 2013-01), Clarifying the Scope of Disclosures about Offsetting Assets and Liabilities, replaced Accounting Standards Update 2011-11 (ASU 2011-11), Disclosures about Offsetting Assets and Liabilities. ASU 2013-01 is effective for fiscal years beginning on or after January 1, 2013, and interim periods within those annual periods. ASU 2011-11 was intended to enhance disclosure requirements on the offsetting of financial assets and liabilities. The ASU 2013-01 limits the scope of the new balance sheet offsetting disclosures to derivatives, repurchase agreements, and securities lending transactions to the extent that they are (1) offset in the financial statements or (2) subject to an enforceable master netting arrangement or similar agreement. Management is currently evaluating the application of ASU 2013-01 and its impact, if any, on the Fund's financial statements.

Securities Transactions and Investment Income: Investment transactions are accounted for on a trade date plus one basis for daily NAV calculation. However, for financial reporting purposes, investment security transactions are reported on trade date. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date net of foreign withholding taxes. Certain dividends from foreign securities may be recorded subsequent to the ex-dividend date as soon as the Fund is informed of such dividends. Realized gains and losses from investment transactions are recorded on an identified cost basis and may include proceeds from litigation.

Securities Lending: The Fund lends securities to certain financial institutions. The Fund retains the benefit of owning the securities it has loaned and continues to receive interest and dividends generated by the securities and to participate in any changes in their market value. The Fund requires the borrowers of the securities to maintain collateral with the Fund consisting of either cash or liquid, unencumbered assets having a value in excess of the value of the securities loaned. When the collateral falls below specified amounts, the lending agent will use its best effort to obtain additional collateral on the next business day to meet required amounts under the security lending agreement. The Fund may invest the cash collateral into a joint trading account in an affiliated money market fund pursuant to Exemptive Orders issued by the SEC. Deutsche Investment Management Americas Inc. receives a management/administration fee (0.11% annualized effective rate as of April 30, 2013) on the cash collateral invested in the affiliated money fund. The Fund receives compensation for lending its securities either in the form of fees or by earning interest on invested cash collateral net of borrower rebates and fees paid to a lending agent. Either the Fund or the borrower may terminate the loan. There may be risks of delay and costs in recovery of securities or even loss of rights in collateral should the borrower of the securities fail financially. The Fund is subject to all investment risks associated with the reinvestment of any cash collateral received including, but not limited to, interest rate, credit and liquidity risk associated with such investments.

Foreign Currency Translation: The books and records of the Fund are maintained in United States dollars.

Assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currency are translated into United States dollars at the 11:00 a.m. midpoint of the buying and selling spot rates quoted by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York. Purchases and sales of investment securities, income and expenses are translated at the rate of exchange prevailing on the respective dates of such transactions. Net realized and unrealized gains and losses on foreign currency transactions represent net gains and losses between trade and settlement dates on securities transactions, the acquisition and disposition of foreign currencies, and the difference between the amount of net investment income accrued and the U.S. dollar amount actually received. That portion of both realized and unrealized gains and losses on investments that results from fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates is not separately disclosed but is included with net realized and unrealized gain/appreciation and loss/depreciation on investments.

Contingencies: In the normal course of business, the Fund may enter into contracts with service providers that contain general indemnification clauses. The Fund's maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown as this would involve future claims that may be made against the Fund that have not yet occurred. However, based on experience, the Fund expects the risk of loss to be remote.

Taxes: The Fund's policy is to comply with the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, which are applicable to regulated investment companies, and to distribute all of its taxable income to its shareholders.

Additionally, the Fund may be subject to taxes imposed by the governments of countries in which it invests and are generally based on income and/or capital gains earned or repatriated. Estimated tax liabilities on certain foreign securities are recorded on an accrual basis and are reflected as components of interest income or net change in unrealized gain/loss on investments. Tax liabilities realized

THE CENTRAL EUROPE, RUSSIA AND TURKEY FUND, INC.

as a result of security sales are reflected as a component of net realized gain/loss on investments.

The Fund has reviewed the tax positions for the open tax years as of October 31, 2012 and has determined that no provision for income tax is required in the Fund's financial statements. The Fund's federal tax returns for the prior three fiscal years remain open subject to examinations by the Internal Revenue Service.

Dividends and Distributions to Shareholders: The Fund records dividends and distributions to its shareholders on the ex-dividend date. The timing and character of certain income and capital gain distributions are determined annually in accordance with United States federal income tax regulations which may differ from accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. These differences primarily relate to investments in foreign denominated investments, investments in foreign passive investment companies, recognition of certain foreign currency gains (losses) as ordinary income (loss) and certain securities sold at a loss. As a result, net investment income (loss) and net realized gain (loss) on investment transactions for a reporting period may differ significantly from distributions during such period. Accordingly, the Fund may periodically make reclassifications among certain of its capital accounts without impacting the NAV of the Fund.

The tax character of current year distributions will be determined at the end of the current fiscal year.

NOTE 2. INVESTMENT ADVISORY AND ADMINISTRATION AGREEMENTS

The Fund is party to an Investment Advisory Agreement with Deutsche Asset Management International GmbH ("DeAMI"). The Fund also has an Administration Agreement with Deutsche Investment Management Americas Inc. ("DIMA"). DeAMI and DIMA are affiliated companies.

Under the Investment Advisory Agreement with DeAMI, DeAMI directs the investments of the Fund in accordance with its investment objectives, policies and restrictions.

DeAMI determines the securities, instruments and other contracts relating to investments to be purchased, sold or entered into by the Fund.

The Investment Advisory Agreement provides DeAMI with a fee, computed weekly and payable monthly, at the annual rate of 0.80% of the Fund's average weekly net assets up to and including $100 million, 0.60% of such assets in excess of $100 million and up to and including $500 million, 0.55% of such assets in excess of $500 million and up to and including $750 million, and 0.50% of such assets in excess of $750 million.

Accordingly, for the six months ended April 30, 2013, the fee pursuant to the Investment Advisory Agreement was equivalent to an annual effective rate of 0.64% of the Fund's average daily net assets.

Under the Administration Agreement with DIMA, DIMA provides all of the non-investment advisory services to the Fund. The Administration Agreement provides DIMA with a fee, computed weekly and payable monthly, of 0.20% of the Fund's average weekly net assets. For the six months ended April 30, 2013, the Administration Fee was $475,786, of which $82,872 is unpaid.

NOTE 3. TRANSACTIONS WITH AFFILIATES

DWS Investments Service Company ("DISC"), an affiliate of DIMA, is the transfer agent, dividend-paying agent and shareholder service agent of the Fund. Pursuant to a sub-transfer agency agreement between DISC and DST Systems, Inc. ("DST"), DISC has delegated certain transfer agent and dividend-paying agent paying functions to DST. DISC compensates DST out of the shareholder servicing fee it receives from the Fund. For the six months ended April 30, 2013, the amount charged to the Fund by DISC aggregated $9,851, of which $1,150 is unpaid.

Deutsche Bank AG, the German parent of DIMA and DeAMI, and its affiliates may receive brokerage commissions as a result of executing agency transactions in portfolio securities on behalf of the Fund, that the Board determined were effected in compliance with the Fund's

THE CENTRAL EUROPE, RUSSIA AND TURKEY FUND, INC.

Rule 17e-1 procedures. For the six months ended April 30, 2013, Deutsche Bank did not receive brokerage commissions.

Certain Officers of the Fund are also officers of DIMA or DeAMI.

The Fund pays each Director who is not an "interested person" of DIMA or DeAMI retainer fees plus specified amounts for attended board and committee meetings.

The Fund may invest uninvested cash balances in Central Cash Management Fund, which is managed by DIMA. The Fund indirectly bears its proportionate share of the expenses of Central Cash Management Fund. Central Cash Management Fund does not pay DIMA an investment management fee. Central Cash Management Fund seeks a high level of current income consistent with the liquidity and the preservation of capital.

NOTE 4. PORTFOLIO SECURITIES

Purchases and sales of investment securities, excluding short-term investments, for the six months ended April 30, 2013 were $89,155,802 and $115,333,699, respectively.

NOTE 5. INVESTING IN FOREIGN MARKETS

Foreign investments may involve certain considerations and risks as a result of, among others, the possibility of political and economic developments, and the level of governmental supervision and regulation of foreign securities markets. In addition, certain foreign markets may be substantially smaller, less developed, less liquid and more volatile than the major markets of the United States. Any fund that focuses in a particular segment of the market will generally be more volatile than a fund that invests more broadly.

NOTE 6. CAPITAL

During the six months ended April 30, 2013 and the year ended October 31, 2012, the Fund purchased 252,493 and 530,644 of its shares of common stock on the open market at a total cost of $8,012,644 and $17,098,411 ($31.73 and $32.23 average per share), respectively. The weighted average discount of these purchased shares comparing the purchased price to the NAV at the time of was 11.20% and 9.44%, respectively.

During the six months ended April 30, 2013, the Fund accepted 654,331 tendered shares of common stock at a total cost of $24,092,467 at a repurchase price of $36.82 per share, which was equal to 98% of the NAV per share on March 13, 2013.

During the six months ended April 30, 2013, and the year ended October 31, 2012, the Fund issued for dividend reinvestment 137,421 and 394,788 shares respectively. The average discount of these issued shares comparing the issue price to the NAV at the time of issuance was 9.39% and 8.37%, respectively.

NOTE 7. SHARE REPURCHASES AND TENDER OFFERS

On July 18, 2011, the Fund announced that the Board of Directors approved an extension of the share repurchase program permitting the Fund to repurchase up to 700,000 shares during the twelve-month period August 1, 2011 through July 31, 2012. The Fund repurchased 509,609 shares from August 1, 2011 through July 31, 2012 under this authorization. On July 18, 2012, the Fund announced that the Board of Directors approved the extension of the share repurchase program permitting the Fund to repurchase up to 700,000 shares during the period August 1, 2012 through July 31, 2013. The Fund repurchased 478,046 shares between August 1, 2012 and April 30, 2013.

Repurchases will be made from time to time when they are believed to be in the best interest of the Fund. There can be no assurance that the Fund's repurchases or Discount Management Program will reduce the spread between the market price of the Fund's shares and its NAV per share.

Monthly updates concerning the Fund's repurchase program are available on its web site at www.ceefund.com.

On July 18, 2012, the Fund announced that the Board of Directors approved a series of up to four consecutive semiannual tender offers, each for up to 5% of the Fund's outstanding shares at a price equal to 98% of NAV. Under the Fund's Discount Management Program, the Fund is required to conduct a tender offer if its shares trade at an average discount to NAV of more than 10% during the applicable twelve-week measurement period. The first measurement period commenced on September 10, 2012 and expired on November 30, 2012. During the measurement period the Fund's shares traded at an average discount to NAV of 10.18%. Therefore, the Fund conducted a tender offer which commenced on February 11, 2013 and expired on March 12, 2013. The Fund accepted 654,331 tendered shares (which represented 5% of the Fund's outstanding shares of common stock) at a price equal to 98% of the NAV per share as of the close of the regular trading session of the New York Stock Exchange on March 13, 2013. Approximately 9,528,823 shares of common stock, or approximately 73% of the Fund's common shares outstanding, were tendered through the expiration date. Because the offer was oversubscribed, not all of the tendered shares were accepted for payment by the Fund. Under the final pro-ration calculation, approximately 7% of the tendered shares were accepted for payment. The shares accepted for payment received cash at a repurchase price of $36.82, per share, which was equal to 98% of the NAV per share on March 13, 2013.

The second measurement period commenced on March 25, 2013 and expired on June 14, 2013. During the measurement period the Fund's shares traded at an average discount to NAV of 10.16%. The Fund will therefore conduct a tender offer for up to 5% of its outstanding shares at a price equal to 98% of NAV. The commencement of the tender offer for the Fund is expected to occur on or about August 12, 2013.

NOTE 8. CONCENTRATION OF OWNERSHIP

From time to time, the Fund may have a concentration of several shareholder accounts holding a significant percentage of shares outstanding. Investment activities of these shareholders could have a material impact on the Fund. At April 30, 2013, there were three shareholders that held approximately 28%, 16% and 7%, respectively, of the outstanding shares of the Fund.

NOTE 9. CHANGE IN INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND CHANGE IN NAME OF THE FUND

At a Special Meeting of Stockholders held on April 19, 2013, Stockholders approved changing the Fund's investment objective from "seeking long-term capital appreciation through investment primarily in equity and equity-linked securities of issuers domiciled in Central Europe and Russia" to "seeking long-term capital appreciation through investment primarily in equity or equity-linked securities of issuers domiciled in Central Europe, Russia and Turkey." Stockholders also approved a change in the Fund's corresponding fundamental investment policy to provide that, "under normal circumstances, the Fund will invest at least 80% of its net assets (plus borrowings used for investment purposes) in securities of issuers domiciled in Central Europe, Russia and Turkey." Consequently, the Fund is now able to invest in securities of issuers domiciled in Turkey to a greater extent than previously.

Effective as of the close of business on April 26, 2013, the Fund's name was changed to "The Central Europe, Russia and Turkey Fund, Inc." There were no changes to the Fund's ticker symbol on the New York Stock Exchange or the CUSIP number for its shares. No action was required by stockholders relating to this change.

THE CENTRAL EUROPE, RUSSIA AND TURKEY FUND, INC.

STATEMENT OF INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE, POLICIES AND INVESTMENT RESTRICTIONS

(unaudited)

Investment Objective. The investment objective of The Central Europe, Russia and Turkey Fund, Inc. (the "Fund") is to seek long-term capital appreciation through investment primarily in equity or equity-linked securities of issuers domiciled in Central Europe, Russia and Turkey. The term "Central Europe" includes, for this purpose, Republic of Albania, Republic of Austria, Republic of Belarus, Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina, Republic of Bulgaria, Republic of Croatia, Czech Republic, Republic of Estonia, Federal Republic of Germany, Republic of Hungary, Republic of Latvia, Grand Duchy of Liechtenstein, Republic of Lithuania, former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, Republic of Moldova, Republic of Poland, Romania, Slovak Republic, State Union of Serbia and Montenegro, Republic of Slovenia, Swiss Confederation, and Ukraine.

Current interest and dividend income is not an objective of the Fund. No assurance can be given that the Fund will be able to achieve its investment objective.

Under normal circumstances, the Fund will invest at least 80% of its net assets (plus borrowings used for investment purposes) in the securities of issuers domiciled in Central Europe, Russia and Turkey. The Fund may also invest in equity or equity-linked securities of issuers domiciled elsewhere in Europe. The term "Europe" includes the countries of Central Europe, as well as the Kingdom of Belgium, Republic of Cyprus, Kingdom of Denmark, Republic of Finland, Republic of France, Hellenic Republic ("Greece"), Republic of Iceland, Republic of Ireland, Italian Republic, Grand Duchy of Luxembourg, Republic of Malta, Kingdom of the Netherlands, Kingdom of Norway, Republic of Portugal, Kingdom of Spain, Kingdom of Sweden, Republic of Turkey and United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland. Any future country or countries (or other political entity) formed by combination or division of the countries comprising Central Europe or Europe shall also be deemed to be included within the term "Central Europe" or "Europe," respectively.

An issuer is deemed to be domiciled in a country or region if: (1) it is organized under the laws of that country, or a country within that region, or maintains its principal place of business in that country or region, (2) it derives 50% or more of its annual revenues or profits from goods produced or sold, investments made or services performed in that country or region, or has 50% or more of its assets in that country or region, in each case as determined in good faith by the Fund's investment adviser, or (3) its equity securities are traded principally in that country or region.

The Fund's investment objective and the investment policies described above are fundamental and may be changed only by the approval of a majority of the Fund's outstanding voting securities. Under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the "1940 Act"), a "majority" means 67% of the Fund's shares present at a meeting of its stockholders if the owners of more than 50% of the shares of the Fund then outstanding are present in person or by proxy or, if lower, more than 50% of the Fund's outstanding shares. The Fund refers to this approval voting level as a "majority vote." The Fund will not trade in securities for short-term gain.

For purposes of the above policies and for the policies and practices described below, all percentage limitations apply only immediately after a transaction, and any subsequent change in any applicable percentage resulting from changing values will not require elimination of any security or other asset from the Fund's portfolio.

Unless otherwise stated, the other investment policies described below are non-fundamental and may be changed by the Board of Directors (the "Board") without a stockholder vote.

THE CENTRAL EUROPE, RUSSIA AND TURKEY FUND, INC.

Portfolio Structure. The Fund seeks to achieve its investment objective of long-term capital appreciation primarily by investing in equity or equity-linked securities of companies in a spectrum of industries. Equity and equity-linked securities include common stock, convertible and non-convertible preferred stock, whether voting or non-voting, convertible bonds, bonds with warrants and unattached warrants. Equity-linked securities also include options, futures, and options on futures on equities or indices of equity securities. For a discussion of the types of futures and options that the Fund may or may not utilize, see "— Other Investment Practices — Futures and Options" below.

The Fund will not concentrate investments in any one industry. This means that the Fund will not invest more than 25% of its total assets in the securities of issuers in any one industry. For purposes of this policy, the Fund's investment adviser generally classifies the issuers of the Fund's portfolio securities at the industry sub-group level. (The foregoing policy is a fundamental policy due to Investment Restriction No. (2) below.)

In selecting industries and companies for investment by the Fund, the Fund's investment adviser generally considers factors such as overall growth prospects, competitive position in their product markets, management, technology, research and development, productivity, labor costs, raw material costs and sources, profit margins, return on investment, capital resources, and government regulation.

The Fund has no current intention of focusing its investments in any particular countries other than Poland, Russia, Hungary, the Czech Republic and Turkey, where Fund investments are and may in the future be significant. However, except as described herein, there are no prescribed limits on geographic asset distribution within the Central Europe countries and, from time to time, a significant portion of the Fund's assets may be invested in companies domiciled in as few as three countries. The Board has also adopted a non-fundamental policy, which may be changed without stockholder approval, that for the time being permits the Fund to invest up to the following percentages of the Fund's total assets in equity or equity-linked securities of issuers domiciled in the following countries. The Board reserves the right to change this policy.

COUNTRY	PERCENTAGE OF TOTAL ASSET LIMIT
Russia	75%
Poland	65%
Hungary	50%
Turkey	40%
Czech Republic	30%
Any single other country	15%

The Fund may not purchase more than 10% of the outstanding voting securities of any single issuer. (The foregoing policy is a fundamental policy due to Investment Restriction No. (1) below.)

Although it intends to focus its investments in equities or equity-linked securities that are listed on a recognized securities exchange or otherwise publicly traded, the Fund may also invest in securities that are not readily marketable.

The Fund may also invest in other investment companies, subject to applicable limitations under the 1940 Act. These limitations include prohibitions on the Fund's acquiring more than 3% of the voting securities of any other investment company or the Fund's investing more than 5% of its total assets in securities of any one investment company or more than 10% of its total assets in securities of all investment companies held in its portfolio. Any investment companies in which the Fund may invest will have a policy of investing all or substantially all of their assets in one or more European countries. Investments in other investment companies may involve an additional layer of expenses because of the fees and expenses payable by such other investment companies. In determining whether to invest assets of the Fund in other investment companies, the investment adviser will take into consideration, among other factors, the advisory fee and other expenses payable by such other investment companies.

Other Investment Practices. In addition to the investment practices discussed above, the Fund may also invest in additional types of securities, such as warrants, participation certificates, futures and options, fixed income securities, securities lending and currency transactions.

Warrants. The Fund may invest in warrants if consistent with the Fund's investment objective. The warrants in which the Fund may invest are a type of security, usually issued together with another security of an issuer, that entitles the holder to buy a fixed amount of common or preferred stock of that issuer at a specified price for a fixed period of time (which may be in perpetuity). Warrants are commonly issued attached to other securities of the issuer as a method of making these securities more attractive and are usually detachable and thus may be bought or sold separately from the issued security. Warrants can be a speculative instrument. The value of a warrant may decline because of a decrease in the value of the underlying stock, the passage of time or a change in perception as to the potential of the underlying stock, or any combination thereof. If the market price of the underlying stock is below the exercise price set forth in the warrant on the expiration date, the warrant will expire worthless. Publicly-traded warrants currently exist with respect to the stock of a significant number of European companies.

Participation Certificates. Certain European companies have issued participation certificates ("Participation Certificates" or "Genuss-Scheine"), which entitle the holder to participate only in dividend distributions, generally at rates above those declared on the issuer's common stock, but not to vote, nor usually to any claim for assets in liquidation. Participation Certificates trade like common stock, either in the over-the-counter market or through the relevant stock exchanges. These securities may have higher yields, but may be less liquid than common stock. The Fund may invest in Participation Certificates of issuers in any European country.

Futures and Options. (The disclosure in this sub-section regarding futures contracts, options thereon is a fundamental policy due to Investment Restriction No.s (5) and (7) below.) For hedging purposes, the Fund may also purchase put and call options on stock of European issuers and, to the extent permitted by applicable U.S. law, invest in the index and bond futures and any other derivative securities listed on any organized exchange. Options are contracts which give the buyer the right, but not the obligation, to buy or sell a fixed amount of securities at a fixed price for a fixed period of time. A futures contract is a binding obligation to purchase or deliver the specific type of financial instrument, or the cash equivalent of the instrument in certain circumstances, called for in the contract at a specific price at a future date. The Fund will only invest in options or futures in an attempt to hedge against changes or anticipated changes in the value of particular securities in the Fund's portfolio or all or a portion of the Fund's portfolio. The Fund will not invest in options or futures if, immediately thereafter, more than the amount of the Fund's total assets would be hedged. For hedging purposes, the Fund may also purchase put and call options on bonds and other securities, as well as securities indices, to the extent such investments are available. The Fund may invest in other options, futures and options on futures with respect to any securities or securities indices compatible with the Fund's investment objective that may from time to time become available on any organized exchange, if permitted by applicable law.

The Fund may also write (also referred to as "selling") covered call options on portfolio securities and appropriate securities indices for purposes of generating income. The Fund may write covered call options on portfolio securities and appropriate securities indices up to the amount of the Fund's entire portfolio. A call option gives the holder the right to purchase the underlying securities from the Fund at a special price (the "exercise price") for a stated period of time (usually three, six or nine months). Prior to the expiration of the option, the writer (also referred to as the "seller") of the option has an obligation to sell the underlying security to the holder of the option at the exercise price regardless of the market price of the security at the time the option is exercised. The initial purchaser of an option pays the writer a premium, which is paid at time of purchase and is retained by the writer whether or not the option is exercised. A "covered" call option means that so long as the Fund is obligated as the writer of the option, the Fund will own:

- the underlying securities subject to the option;
- securities convertible or exchangeable without the payment of any consideration into the securities subject to the option; or
- warrants on the securities subject to the option exercisable at a price not greater than the option exercise price and, at the time the option is exercisable, the securities subject to the option.

In the case of covered call options on securities indices, references to securities in the bullet points above will include such securities as the investment adviser believes approximate the index (but not necessarily all those comprising the index), as well as, in the case of the second two bullets, securities convertible, exchangeable or exercisable into the value of the index. The writing of a call option may involve the pledge of the underlying security which the call option covers, or other portfolio securities. In order to make use of the Fund's authority to write covered call options, the Fund may pledge its assets.

In the event the option is exercised, the writer may either deliver the underlying securities at the exercise price or if it does not wish to deliver its own securities, purchase new securities at a cost to the writer, which may be more than the exercise price premium received, and deliver the new securities for the exercise option. In the event the option is exercised, the Fund's potential for gain is limited to the difference between the exercise price plus the premium less the cost of the security. Alternatively, the option's position could be extinguished or closed out by purchasing a like option. It is possible, although considered unlikely, that the Fund might be able to execute such a closing purchase transaction. If the price of a security declines below the amount to be received from the exercise price less the amount of the call premium received and if the option could not be closed out, the Fund would hold a security which might otherwise have been sold to protect against depreciation. In addition, the Fund's portfolio turnover may increase to the extent that the market price of underlying securities covered by call options written by the Fund increases and the Fund has not entered into closing purchase transactions. Brokerage commissions associated with writing options transactions are normally higher than those associated with other securities transactions.

Fixed Income Securities. The Fund may invest up to 20% of its net assets, plus any borrowings, in fixed income securities of European or Russian issuers. Such investments may include debt instruments issued by private and public entities, including multinational lending institutions and supranational institutions if denominated in a European currency or composite currency, which have been determined by the Fund's investment adviser to be of comparable credit quality to securities rated in the three highest categories by Moody's Investors Service, Inc. or Standard & Poor's Corporation. When selecting a debt instrument from among several investment opportunities, the Fund's investment adviser will consider the potential for capital appreciation, taking into account maturity and yield considerations. For temporary defensive purposes, the Fund may also invest in money market instruments denominated in U.S. dollars or in a European currency or composite currency, including bank time deposits and certificates of deposit.

Loaned Securities. The Fund may also lend portfolio securities to banks, securities dealers and other institutions meeting the creditworthiness standards established by the Board. The Fund may lend its portfolio securities so long as the terms and the structure of the loans are consistent with the 1940 Act, which currently requires that:

- the borrower pledge and maintain with the Fund collateral consisting of cash, a letter of credit issued by a domestic United States bank or securities issued or guaranteed by the United States Government having a value at all times of not less than 100% of the value of the securities loaned;

- the borrower add to such collateral whenever the price of the loaned securities rises (e.g., the value of the loan is "marked to market" on a daily basis);
- the loan be made subject to termination by the Fund at any time; and
- the Fund receives reasonable interest on the loan (which may include a portion of the interest from the investment of any cash collateral in interest-bearing short-term investments).

Pursuant to an exemptive order granted by the Securities and Exchange Commission, cash collateral received by the Fund may be invested in a money market fund managed by Deutsche Investment Management Americas Inc. (or one of its affiliates). Any distributions on the loaned securities and any increase in their market value accrue to the Fund. Loan arrangements made by the Fund will comply with all other applicable regulatory requirements. All relevant facts and circumstances, including the creditworthiness of the borrowing institution, will be monitored by the investment adviser, and will be considered in making decisions with respect to lending of securities, subject to review by the Board. The Fund may pay reasonable negotiated fees in connection with loaned securities, so long as such fees are set forth in a written contract and approved by the Board. In addition, any voting rights may pass with the loaned securities, but if a material event were to occur affecting an investment on loan, the loan may be called and the securities voted. Any gain or loss in the market price of the loaned securities that may occur during the term of the loan will be for the Fund's account.

Currency Transactions. (The disclosure in this sub-section regarding forward currency contracts is a fundamental policy due to Investment Restriction No. (5) below.) The Fund may attempt to hedge its foreign currency exposure by entering into forward currency contracts. The Fund does not currently engage in foreign exchange transactions as an investment strategy. However, at such future time as the investment adviser believes that one or more currencies in which Fund securities are denominated might suffer a substantial decline against the U.S. dollar, the Fund may, in order to hedge the value of the Fund's portfolio, enter into forward currency contracts (e.g., to sell fixed amounts of such currencies for fixed amounts of U.S. dollars in the interbank market). A forward currency contract involves an obligation to purchase or sell a specific currency at a future date, which may be any fixed number of days from the date of the contract agreed upon by the parties, at a price set at the time of the contract.

The Fund's dealings in forward exchange transactions will be limited to hedging involving either specific transactions or portfolio positions. Transaction hedging is the purchase or sale of a forward currency contract with respect to the Fund's specific receivables or payables, which will generally arise in connection with the purchase or sale of the Fund's portfolio securities. Position hedging is the sale of a forward currency contract with respect to portfolio security positions denominated or generally quoted in that currency.

THE CENTRAL EUROPE, RUSSIA AND TURKEY FUND, INC.

The Fund may engage in "conventional hedging," which involves entering into forward currency contracts to sell fixed amounts of a foreign currency for fixed amounts of U.S. dollars in order to hedge the U.S. dollar value of the Fund's portfolio. The Fund may also engage in "cross-hedging," which involves entering into forward currency contracts to sell fixed amounts of a foreign security for fixed amounts of another foreign currency to which the Fund may seek exposure.

The Fund may not position a hedge with respect to any currency to an extent greater than the aggregate market value (at the time of making such sale) of the securities held in the Fund's portfolio denominated or generally quoted in or currently convertible into such currency. If the Fund enters into a hedging transaction, the Fund's custodian or subcustodian will place cash or United States government or other liquid securities in a segregated account in an amount equal to the value of the Fund's total assets committed to the consummation of the forward currency contract, which value will be adjusted on a daily basis. If the value of the securities placed in the segregated account declines, additional cash or securities will be placed in the account so that the value of the account will equal the amount of the Fund's commitment with respect to the contract.

Investment Restrictions. In addition to its investment objective and the other fundamental investment policies described above, the Fund has adopted certain investment restrictions that are also fundamental policies and may be changed only by the approval of a "majority vote" (as defined above) of the Fund's outstanding voting securities. For purposes of the restrictions listed below, all percentage limitations apply only immediately after a transaction, and any subsequent change in any applicable percentage resulting from changing values will not require elimination of any security or other asset from the Fund's portfolio.

The Fund may not:

- (1) purchase more than 10% of the voting securities of any single issuer;
- (2) invest 25% or more of its total assets in the securities of issuers in any one industry;
- (3) issue senior securities, borrow money or pledge its assets, except that the Fund may borrow for temporary or emergency purposes or for the clearance of transactions in amounts not exceeding 10% of the value of its total assets (not including the amount borrowed) and will not purchase securities while any such borrowings are outstanding, and except that the Fund may pledge its assets in connection with writing covered call options;
- (4) make real estate mortgage loans or other loans, except through the purchase of debt obligations consistent with the Fund's investment policies;
- (5) buy or sell commodities, commodity contracts, futures contracts, real estate or interests in real estate (other than as described under "Investment Objective and Policies — Portfolio Structure" and "—Other Investment Practices — Currency Transactions" above);
- (6) make short sales of securities or maintain a short position in any security;
- (7) buy, sell or write put or call options (other than as described under "Investment Objective and Policies — Portfolio Structure" and "— Other Investment Practices — Futures and Options" above);

(8) purchase securities on margin, except such short-term credits as may be necessary or routine for the clearance or settlement of transactions;

(9) act as an underwriter, except to the extent the Fund may be deemed to be an underwriter in connection with the sale of securities in its portfolio; or

(10) purchase securities, the sale of which by the Fund could not be effected without prior registration under the Securities Act of 1933, except that this restriction shall not preclude the Fund from acquiring non-U.S. securities.

The Fund is classified as a "non-diversified" investment company under the 1940 Act, which means the Fund is not limited by the 1940 Act in the proportion of its assets that may be invested in the securities of a single issuer. However, the Fund conducts its operations in order to qualify as a "regulated investment company" for purposes of the Internal Revenue Code, which relieves the Fund of any liability for Federal income tax to the extent that its earnings are distributed to stockholders. To so qualify, among other requirements, the Fund must limit its investments so that, at the close of each quarter of the taxable year, (i) not more than 25% of the market value of the Fund's total assets may be invested in the securities of a single issuer or a group of related issuers and (ii) at least 50% of the market value of its total assets must be represented by cash, U.S. Government securities, and other securities, with such other securities limited, in respect of any one issuer, to not more than 5% of the market value of the Fund's total assets and not more than 10% of the issuer's outstanding voting securities.

VOLUNTARY CASH PURCHASE PROGRAM AND DIVIDEND REINVESTMENT PLAN

The Fund offers shareholders a Voluntary Cash Purchase Program and Dividend Reinvestment Plan ("Plan") which provides for optional cash purchases and for the automatic reinvestment of dividends and distributions payable by the Fund in additional Fund shares. Plan participants may invest as little as $100 in any month and may invest up to $36,000 annually. The Plan allows current shareholders who are not already participants in the Plan and first time investors to enroll in the Plan by making an initial cash deposit of at least $250 with the plan agent. Share purchases are combined to receive a beneficial brokerage fee. A brochure is available by writing or telephoning the transfer agent:

On July 18, 2012 the Fund announced that its Board of Directors has authorized the extension of the repurchase program permitting the Fund to repurchase of up to 700,000 shares during the period August 1, 2012- July 31, 2013.

On July 18, 2012, the Fund announced that its Board of Directors has approved a series of up to four consecutive, semi-annual tender offers each up to 5% of the Fund's outstanding shares at a price equal to 98% of net asset value (NAV). Under the Fund's Discount Management Program, the Fund is required to conduct a tender offer if its shares trade at an average discount to net asset value of more than 10% during the applicable twelve-week measurement period. The first measurement period commenced on September 10, 2012 and expired on November 30, 2012. During the first measurement period, the Fund's shares traded at an average discount to NAV of 10.18%. Therefore the Fund conducted a tender offer which commenced on February 11, 2013 and expired on March 12, 2013. The Fund accepted 654,331 tendered shares (which represented 5% of the Fund's outstanding shares of common stock) at a price equal to 98% of the NAV per share as of the close of regular trading session of the New York Stock Exchange on March 13, 2013. The second measurement period commenced March 25, 2013 and expired June 14, 2013. During the second measurement period the Fund's shares traded at an average discount of 10.16%. Therefore the Fund will conduct a tender offer for up to 5% of its outstanding shares at the price equal to 98% of NAV. The tender is expected to commence on or about August 12, 2013.

ITEM 10. SUBMISSION OF MATTERS TO A VOTE OF SECURITY HOLDERS

There were no material changes to the procedures by which stockholders may recommend nominees to the Fund's Board. The Nominating and Governance Committee will consider nominee candidates properly submitted by stockholders in accordance with applicable law, the Fund's Articles of Incorporation or By-laws, resolutions of the Board and the qualifications and procedures set forth in the Nominating and Governance Committee Charter and this proxy statement. The Nominating and Governance Committee's Charter requires that a stockholder or group of stockholders seeking to submit a nominee candidate (i) must have beneficially owned at least 5% of the Fund's common stock for at least two years, (ii) may submit only one nominee candidate for any particular meeting of stockholders, and (iii) may submit a nominee candidate for only an annual meeting or other meeting of stockholders at which directors will be elected. The stockholder or group of stockholders must provide notice of the proposed nominee pursuant to the requirements found in the Fund's By-laws. Generally, this notice must be received not less than 90 days nor more than 120 days prior to the first anniversary of the date of mailing of the notice for the preceding year's annual meeting. Such notice shall include the specific information required by the Fund's By-laws. The Nominating and Governance Committee will evaluate nominee candidates properly submitted by stockholders on the same basis as it considers and evaluates candidates recommended by other sources.
