Freedom of the Seas departed Miami on December 12, two days later than scheduled, after the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention recommended that the ship undergo enhanced cleaning. The ship is now sailing a modified five-night itinerary and will resume its normally scheduled seven-night itineraries on December 17. More than 90 percent of the guests originally booked on the sailing departed with the ship. Royal Caribbean Cruises Ltd. expects that the delay will have a negative impact on earnings of approximately $.03 per share.
