(b) To the best knowledge of the Company and Washington Mutual, the Company will not purchase any Notes from any of its or Washington Mutual's officers, directors or affiliates.

Item 5. Past Contacts, Transactions, Negotiations and Agreements.

The Notes are governed by an Indenture, dated as of May 1, 1999, between Providian and J.P. Morgan Trust Company, National Association, as the successor trustee to Bank One Trust Company, N.A. and The First National Bank of Chicago, as supplemented by the Fourth Supplemental Indenture dated as of March 19, 2004 and as further supplemented by the Fifth Supplemental Indenture dated as of October 1, 2005. The Indenture is also supplemented by the First Supplemental Indenture dated as of August 23, 2000, the Second Supplemental Indenture dated as of February 15, 2001 and the Third Supplemental Indenture dated as of May 27, 2003.

In addition, Washington Mutual and/or the Company are also party to the following additional agreements with respect to the securities of Washington Mutual and/or the Company:

(1) The Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of June 5, 2005 (the Merger Agreement ), between Washington Mutual and Providian, as amended to add the Company as a party thereto, pursuant to which Providian has merged with and into the Company and each share of Providian common stock outstanding at the effective time of the Merger was converted into the right to receive (i) an amount in cash, without interest, equal to $2.00, and (ii) 0.4005 shares of common stock, no par value, of Washington Mutual. The Merger was consummated on October 1, 2005.

(2) Washington Mutual has adopted a shareholder rights plan which provides that the right to purchase 1/1,000th of a share of Washington Mutual's Preferred Stock, Series RP (the Washington Mutual Rights ) is attached to each outstanding share of Washington Mutual's common stock. The Washington Mutual Rights have certain anti-takeover effects and are intended to discourage coercive or unfair takeover tactics and to encourage any potential acquiror to negotiate a price fair to all Washington Mutual shareholders. The Washington Mutual Rights may cause substantial dilution to an acquiring party that attempts to acquire Washington Mutual on terms not approved by Washington Mutual's board of directors, but they will not interfere with any merger or other business combination that is approved by Washington Mutual's board of directors. The Washington Mutual Rights are issuable pursuant to the Rights Agreement dated December 20, 2000 between Washington Mutual and Mellon Investor Services, LLC.

(3) In connection with Washington Mutual's acquisition of Dime Bancorp, Inc. ( Dime ), Washington Mutual assumed the obligations under Litigation Tracking Warrants that Dime had issued to holders of Dime common stock. As a result of Washington Mutual's acquisition of Dime and pursuant to the 2003 Amended and Restated Warrant Agreement, dated March 11, 2003, by and between Washington Mutual and Mellon Investor Services, LLC, the Litigation Tracking Warrants are now convertible into shares of Washington Mutual's common stock upon receipt by Washington Mutual of any damages upon the final adjudication or settlement of Anchor Savings Bank FSB v. United States, litigation that Washington Mutual assumed upon the acquisition of Dime. Upon receipt by Washington Mutual of any final damages from this lawsuit, holders of Litigation Tracking Warrants will, in the aggregate, be entitled to receive shares of Washington Mutual's common stock whose aggregate value will be based on the amount actually recovered in the lawsuit, if any, net of litigation costs and any taxes.
