State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As previously announced in a press release issued by Grupo Simec S.A.B. de C.V. (the "Company") on April 29, 2016, attached as Exhibit 99.1 to a Form 6-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on the same date, the Company has determined that it is unable to file its Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2015 (the "Form 20-F") by the prescribed due date.

The Company is unable to file its Form 20-F within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort or expense due to the fact that the Company has not finalized its financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2015, nor have the Company's external auditors had the opportunity to complete their audit of the financial statements to be included in the Form 20-F, in particular, because the preparation of the external auditor's report for one of our subsidiaries in the United States has required a more detailed analysis and additional deliveries of information to external auditors.

The Company intends to file its Form 20-F with the Securities and Exchange Commission as promptly as practicable; however, at this time the Company anticipates that it will not be able to do so within the extension period of fifteen calendar days provided under Rule 12b-25 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

As described in Part III of this Form, because the Company has not finalized its financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2015, nor have the Company's external auditors had the opportunity to complete their audit of the financial statements to be included in the Form 20-F, the Company is unable to provide a reasonable estimate of its results of operations for the year ended December 31, 2015 and cannot at this time accurately estimate what significant changes will be reflected in its results of operations for the year ended December 31, 2015 compared to its results of operations for December 31, 2014.
