If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate.)

- (a) The reasons described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense;
- ☐ (b) The subject annual report, semi-annual report, transition report on Form 10-K, Form 20-F, Form 11-K, Form N-SAR or Form N-CSR, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date; or the subject quarterly report or transition report on Form 10-Q, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date; and

PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Registrant was unable to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2007 (the 1st Quarter Form 10-Q) by the prescribed due date of May 15, 2007 without unreasonable effort and expense because it is still obtaining the necessary financial information related to the Registrant's acquisition of the aesthetics business of Laserscope, a California corporation, a wholly owned subsidiary of American Medical Systems, Inc., a Delaware corporation, which was completed on January 16, 2007. The information is necessary to allow the Company to properly account for the acquisition and to make the appropriate financial statement disclosures, including providing pro forma financial information. Management continues to work diligently to obtain the necessary financial information, and the Registrant will file the 1st Quarter Form 10-Q as soon as possible, but does not expect to file it on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date.

As a result of the asset acquisition discussed in Part III above, the Registrant believes that there will be a significant change in its results of operations from the corresponding period of the last fiscal year. However, as the Registrant is still obtaining the necessary financial information related to the acquisition, it is not possible at this time to provide a reasonable estimate of the change in results of operations from the corresponding period of the last fiscal year.
