Anthem files Form A with Virginia's State Corporation Commission

On May 31, 2002, Anthem and Trigon filed a Form A with the Virginia State Corporation Commission (SCC), Bureau of Insurance, to request the Commission's approval of the proposed merger between Anthem and Trigon. The Commission must approve the change in control of Trigon's five Virginia-domiciled insurance companies and health maintenance organizations -- Trigon Blue Cross Blue Shield (Trigon Insurance Co.), Trigon Health and Life Insurance Co., HealthKeepers Inc., Peninsula Health Care Inc. and Priority Health Care Inc. -- in connection with Trigon's proposed merger with Anthem. This is one of the regulatory approvals required to complete the merger.

The public hearing is set for Wednesday, July 10, 2002, at 10 a.m. (EDT) in Richmond, Virginia.

Thanks to all the associates in both Trigon's and Anthem's Finance departments who worked so hard to complete this filing quickly and efficiently. A job well done.

Transition Update will keep you posted on this process.

Finance Team Makes Initial Decisions

When the proposed merger between Anthem and Trigon was announced, Larry Glasscock and Tom Snead noted the expected consolidation of some corporate functions when the two companies combine. Consistent with that expectation, the Finance Transition Team has been working to determine how the functions of the two companies will work together after the merger. While they still have more work to do, their initial work has resulted in decisions to keep some functions at Trigon and to consolidate others into Anthem's corporate organization.

The following decisions, approved by the Executive Steering Committee, will take effect upon completion of the merger:

The Anthem Southeast Tax function will be led by Trigon’s Steve Meyer, director of corporate tax management. Meyer will have responsibility for income tax and related matters at Anthem Southeast. This regional Tax function will be located in Richmond and will report to Anthem’s Doug Gettelfinger, vice president of taxation.

Trigon’s Treasury functions and responsibilities will be assumed by the corporate Treasury function at Anthem, under the leadership of Anthem’s George Martin, vice president and treasurer.

Responsibility for Trigon’s Investment Management and Investment Accounting will transfer to Anthem’s Mike Koettters, vice president and chief investment officer.

The Finance Transition Team still has more work to do as it determines the shape the function will take after the merger. The Transition Update will continue to keep you informed as decisions are made by this and other teams.

Questions & Answers

An important function of The Transition Update is to answer questions submitted from people at Trigon and Anthem. We anticipate getting a wide variety of questions, some that apply to Trigon only, some that are geared toward Anthem and others that apply to both. Therefore, the Questions & Answers section of the Update will reflect those questions that are relevant to the given audience.

No Anthem Questions This Week.

SAFE HARBOR STATEMENT UNDER THE PRIVATE SECURITIES LITIGATION REFORM ACT OF 1995

This newsletter contains certain forward-looking information about Anthem, Inc. (Anthem) and the combined company after completion of the transactions that are intended to be covered by the safe harbor for forward-looking statements provided by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements are statements that are not historical facts. Words such as expect(s) , feel(s) , believe(s) , will , may , anticipate(s) and expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. These statements include, but are not limited to, financial projections and estimates and their underlying assumptions; statements regarding plans, objectives and expectations with respect to future operations, products and services; and statements regarding future performance. Such statements are subject to certain risks and uncertainties, many of which are difficult to predict and generally beyond the control of Anthem, that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in, or implied or projected by, the forward-looking information and statements. These risks and uncertainties include: those discussed and identified in public filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) made by Anthem; trends in health care costs and utilization rates; our ability to secure sufficient premium rate increases; competitor pricing below market trends of increasing costs; increased government regulation of health benefits and managed care; significant acquisitions or divestitures by major competitors; introduction and utilization of new prescription drugs and technology; a downgrade in our financial strength ratings; litigation targeted at health benefits companies; our ability to contract with providers consistent with past practice; our ability to consummate Anthem s acquisition of Trigon Healthcare, Inc. (Trigon), to achieve expected synergies and operating efficiencies in the Trigon acquisition and to successfully integrate our operations; our expectations regarding the timing, completion and accounting and tax treatments of the transactions and the value of the transaction consideration; and general economic downturns. You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements that speak only as of the date hereof. Anthem does not undertake any obligation to republish revised forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date hereof or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events. You are also urged to carefully review and consider the various disclosures in Anthem s various SEC filings, including but not limited to the registration statement on Form S-4, including the joint proxy statement/prospectus constituting a part thereof, filed by Anthem on June 7, 2002, Anthem s Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2001, and Anthem s Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended March 31, 2002.
