April __, 2006

Dear Fellow PBIP Shareholder,

On April 6, 2006, the Company announced its plans to hold a special meeting of shareholders on May 26, 2006, to vote on approval of its 2006 Recognition and Retention Plan and Trust Agreement and 2006 Stock Option Plan (together, the Plans).

As you know, in February, my Group contested the election of directors although the outcome was pre-determined because PBIP's mutual holding company (MHC) controlled the vote. But, 71% of the public shareholders withheld their votes from management and supported our campaign, which urged that the Board should include a public shareholder with substantial holdings, with capital allocation experience, and who is not from the community. We also said that the Company's stock benefit plans should not be adopted so long as the Board does not include such a person. Management is now trying to adopt its Plans regardless of the wishes of the public shareholders the MHC's attempt to vote on this issue is contrary to the Company's previous disclosures.

It should be noted that the individuals who control the votes at the MHC will be among the direct financial beneficiaries of these Plans.

While the Company's recent press release noted that the FDIC has given them advice that the MHC can vote on the Plans, we believe that this is wrong in terms of public policy and general common sense. My Group is in the process of challenging this advice to the appropriate regulatory authorities. If the Company overcomes our challenge, your votes will not count any more than mine because the MHC holds a majority of the Company's stock. But, should we be successful, this attempt by the Company's insiders to enable themselves to receive stock awards potentially worth millions of dollars without public shareholder approval will have failed.

I urge you, in the strongest of terms as a vindication of corporate democracy and shareholder rights to vote against the Plans. I promise you that I will see this process through to its conclusion and, together, win or lose, we will have taken a stand against this repugnant attempt to go against the wishes of the Company's public shareholders.

Please review our proxy statement and, most importantly, please sign the enclosed GOLD proxy card and return it in the enclosed postage-paid return envelope. When you receive proxy cards from the Company, my advice is to throw them in the garbage. If you've already returned the Company's card, you can still change your vote and vote against the Plans by returning the GOLD card to us.

Sincerely,
Joseph Stilwell

SPECIAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

PROXY STATEMENT OF THE STILWELL GROUP

IN OPPOSITION TO THE MANAGEMENT OF PRUDENTIAL BANCORP, INC. OF PENNSYLVANIA

WHY YOU WERE SENT THIS PROXY STATEMENT

This Proxy Statement and accompanying GOLD proxy card are being furnished to holders (the Shareholders) of the common stock, par value $.01 per share (the Common Stock), of Prudential Bancorp, Inc. of Pennsylvania, a Pennsylvania corporation (the Company), in connection with the solicitation of proxies (the Proxy Solicitation) by The Stilwell Group (the Group, we or us) at the Company's Special Meeting of Shareholders to be held on May 26, 2006, at _____.m. local time, at _____ (the Special Meeting). Shareholders who own the Common Stock on April 24, 2006 (Special Meeting Record Date) will be entitled to vote at the Special Meeting. The Company's principal executive offices are located at 1834 Oregon Avenue, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19145. This Proxy Statement and GOLD proxy card are being first mailed or furnished to Shareholders on or about April ____, 2006.

At the Special Meeting, the Company will be seeking Shareholder approval of the Prudential Bancorp 2006 Recognition and Retention Plan and Trust Agreement and 2006 Stock Option Plan (together, the Stock Benefit Plans). These Stock Benefit Plans authorize the grant of stock options, restricted stock awards and similar rights to purchase or acquire shares of Common Stock. Please refer to the Company's proxy materials for details of the Plans.

The Stilwell Group, members of which beneficially own, as of the date of this Proxy Statement, an aggregate of 1,150,900 shares of the Common Stock, believes it is one of the Company's largest Shareholders. We have sought representation on the Company's Board of Directors (the Board), which the Board has so far denied. Prudential Mutual Holding Company (Prudential MHC) currently owns 55% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock. We have decided to oppose approval of the Stock Benefit Plans unless and until our request for Board representation is satisfied, and are soliciting the votes of other Shareholders in opposition to approval of the Stock Benefit Plans. Our solicitation of votes is in opposition to the Company, which seeks approval of the Stock Benefit Plans.

The Company has announced that it intends to vote Prudential MHC's shares in the Company in favor of approval of the Plans. In that case, the Plans will be approved even if a majority of the shares held by the public Shareholders are voted against the Plans. If, however, the Group is able to obtain regulatory review or denial of the MHC's ability to control the vote, the public Shareholders can defeat the Plans' adoption and their voice will be heard on this issue. In any case, we believe that a vote against the Plans by a majority of the public Shareholders will send a message to the Company that the public Shareholders want a representative of their interests with substantial beneficial holdings of Common Stock placed on the Board.

The Stilwell Group consists of Stilwell Value Partners I, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership (Stilwell Value Partners I); Stilwell Partners, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership (Stilwell Partners); Stilwell Value LLC, a Delaware limited liability company which is the general partner of Stilwell Value Partners I (Stilwell Value LLC); Joseph Stilwell, individually and as the managing and sole member of Stilwell Value LLC and the general partner of Stilwell Partners; and John Stilwell. Additional information concerning The Stilwell Group is set forth under the heading "Certain Information Regarding the Participants" and in Appendix A.

We urge you not to return any proxy card sent to you by the Company. Remember, your last dated proxy is the only one that counts, so return the GOLD proxy card even if you delivered a prior proxy.

Your vote is important, no matter how many or how few shares you hold. If your shares are held in the name of a brokerage firm, bank or nominee, only that brokerage firm, bank or nominee can vote your shares and then only upon receipt of your specific instructions. Accordingly, please return the GOLD proxy card in the envelope provided or contact the person responsible for your bank or brokerage account and give instructions for how your shares are to be voted. We urge you to vote AGAINST the Stock Benefit Plans, which are Proposals 1 and 2 on the enclosed proxy card.

Please refer to the Company's proxy statement for a full description of management's proposals for approval of the Stock Benefit Plans and the share vote required to ratify or approve the Stock Benefit Plans.

Holders of record of shares of the Common Stock on the Special Meeting Record Date are urged to submit a proxy even if your shares have been sold after that date. The number of shares of the Common Stock outstanding as of the Special Meeting Record Date is _____. Each share of the Common Stock is entitled to one vote at the Special Meeting.

BACKGROUND OF PROXY SOLICITATION

The Company is part of a mutual holding company, such that 55% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock are owned by Prudential MHC and approximately 45% of the outstanding shares are owned by public Shareholders, other than shares held by the Company's directors and executive officers representing less than 1% of the total outstanding shares. The Company's Board and management control Prudential MHC.

The Stilwell Group owns approximately 9.2% of the outstanding Common Stock, or about one-fifth of the shares held by the public Shareholders. In light of the Group's substantial share ownership, Joseph Stilwell and the Group's counsel met with Company representatives on July 12, 2005, to request that Mr. Stilwell be placed on the Board. The Company's representatives indicated that the full Board would consider the request. On July 27, 2005, the Company notified Mr. Stilwell that the Board had denied the Group's request.

With regard to most corporate decisions, including the election of directors, Prudential MHC will be able to outvote the public Shareholders. For example, even if 100% of the public Shareholders voted for a non-management nominee for director, the non-management nominee would still lose because Prudential MHC holds more than 50% of the outstanding Common Stock.

At the upcoming Special Meeting, the Company will be seeking Shareholder approval of the Stock Benefit Plans. Although the Company has stated that the FDIC has advised that Prudential MHC may vote on the Stock Benefit Plans (thereby assuring approval of the Plans), the Group may be successful in obtaining regulatory review of this issue. If the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares held by the public Shareholders is ultimately required for approval of the Stock Benefit Plans, the public Shareholders will thereby be able to meaningfully exercise their shareholder rights with regard to their investment in the Common Stock.

We believe that it is in the best interests of the Shareholders that the Board include at least one member who is a public Shareholder and beneficially owns a substantial number of shares of the Common Stock. To our knowledge, none of the current six directors of the Company have any previous experience sitting on a public company board. If the Company is willing to add to its Board a representative of the Stilwell Group, the Group will recommend a person other than Mr. Stilwell, but who is well-qualified in capital allocation and is recruited by Mr. Stilwell.

Therefore, we believe that by voting against the Stock Benefit Plans, the public Shareholders can send a message to the Company that a public Shareholder with substantial beneficial holdings of Common Stock should be placed on the Board. We believe this message can be sent even if the public Shareholders are not able to prevent the adoption of the Stock Benefit Plans. We seek a vote of the public Shareholders against the Stock Benefit Plans as a referendum that the public Shareholders want the Board to appoint a public Shareholder with substantial beneficial holdings of Common Stock as a director.

We urge you to vote AGAINST the Stock Benefit Plans, which are Proposals 1 and 2 on the enclosed proxy card.

CERTAIN INFORMATION REGARDING THE PARTICIPANTS

Except as described herein, no Group member is now, or within the past year has been, a party to any contract, arrangement or understanding with any person with respect to any securities of the Company (including, but not limited to, joint ventures, loan or option arrangements, puts or calls, guarantees against loss or guarantees of profit, division of losses or profits, or the giving or withholding of proxies). Stilwell Value LLC, as general partner of Stilwell Value Partners I, and Joseph Stilwell, as the general partner of Stilwell Partners, are entitled to allocations of profits and income.

Except as described herein, there are no material proceedings to which any Group member, or any associate of any Group member, is a party adverse to the Company or any of its subsidiaries or has a material interest adverse to the Company or any of its subsidiaries. Except as described herein, no Group member or any associate of any Group member has any interest in the matters to be voted upon at the Special Meeting, other than an interest, if any, as a Shareholder of the Company.

Except as described herein, no Group member or any associate of any Group member (1) has engaged in or has a direct or indirect interest in any transaction or series of transactions since the beginning of the Company's last fiscal year, or in any currently proposed transaction, to which the Company or any of its subsidiaries is a party where the amount involved was in excess of $60,000; (2) has been indebted to the Company or any of its subsidiaries; (3) has borrowed any funds for the purpose of acquiring or holding any securities of the Company, or is presently, or has been within the past year, a party to any contract, arrangement or understanding with any person with respect to any securities of the Company, any future employment by the Company or its affiliates, or any future transaction to which the Company or any of its affiliates will or may be a party; or (4) is the beneficial or record owner of any securities of the Company or any parent or subsidiary thereof.

No Group member or any associate of any Group member, during the past 10 years, has been convicted in a criminal proceeding (excluding traffic violations or similar misdemeanors).

Additional information concerning The Stilwell Group, including, but not limited to, beneficial ownership of and transactions in the Common Stock, is set forth in Appendices A and B hereto. Each of the individuals listed on Appendix A attached hereto is a citizen of the United States.

OTHER MATTERS

The Group anticipates that the Company's proxy statement, when it becomes available, will contain information regarding (1) the material terms of the Stock Benefit Plans and (2) voting procedures, including the share vote required for approval of the Stock Benefit Plans at the Special Meeting. The Group has no knowledge of the accuracy of the Company's disclosures in its proxy materials.

SOLICITATION; EXPENSES

Proxies may be solicited by the Group by mail, advertisement, telephone, facsimile, telegraph, and personal solicitation. Phone calls will be made to individual Shareholders by Joseph Stilwell and certain of his administrative personnel and employees of D.F. King & Co., Inc. Mr. Stilwell will be principally responsible for soliciting proxies for the Group and certain of his administrative personnel will perform secretarial work in connection with the solicitation of proxies, for which no additional compensation will be paid. Banks, brokerage houses, and other custodians, nominees, and fiduciaries will be requested to forward the Group's solicitation material to their customers for whom they hold shares and the Group will reimburse them for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses. The Group has retained D.F. King & Co., Inc. to assist in the solicitation of proxies and for related services. The Group will pay D.F. King & Co., Inc. a fee of up to $20,000 and has agreed to reimburse it for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses. In addition, the Group has agreed to indemnify D.F. King & Co., Inc. against certain liabilities and expenses, including liabilities and expenses under the federal securities laws. It is the position of the Securities and Exchange Commission that such indemnification may be against public policy. Approximately 25 persons will be used by D.F. King & Co., Inc., in its solicitation efforts.

Although no precise estimate can be made at the present time, the Group currently estimates that the total expenditures relating to the Proxy Solicitation to be incurred by the Group will be approximately $50,000, of which approximately $10,000 has been incurred to date. The entire expense of preparing, assembling, printing, and mailing this Proxy Statement and related materials and the cost of soliciting proxies will be borne by the Group. The Group does not intend to seek reimbursement from the Company for those expenses incurred by the Group in connection with this Proxy Solicitation.

VOTING AND REVOCATION OF PROXIES

For proxies solicited hereby to be voted, the enclosed GOLD proxy card must be signed, dated, and returned to the Group, c/o D.F. King & Co., Inc. in the enclosed envelope in time to be voted at the Special Meeting. If you wish to vote against approval of the Stock Benefit Plans, please return the enclosed GOLD proxy card. If you have already returned the Company's proxy card, you have the right to revoke it as to all matters covered thereby and may do so by subsequently signing, dating, and mailing the enclosed GOLD proxy card. If you later vote on the Company's proxy card, you will revoke your previous proxy card. ONLY YOUR LATEST DATED PROXY WILL COUNT AT THE SPECIAL MEETING.

Execution of a GOLD proxy card will not affect your right to attend the Special Meeting and to vote in person. Any proxy may be revoked as to all matters covered thereby at any time prior to the time a vote is taken by (i) filing with the Secretary of the Company a later dated written revocation; (ii) submitting a duly executed proxy bearing a later date to the Group or the Company; or (iii) attending and voting at the Special Meeting in person. Attendance at the Special Meeting will not in and of itself constitute a revocation.

Although a revocation will be effective only if delivered to the Company, the Group requests that either the original or a copy of all revocations be mailed to The Stilwell Group c/o D.F. King & Co., Inc. at the address set forth on the back page of this Proxy Statement, so that the Group will be aware of all revocations and can more accurately determine how many proxies voting AGAINST approval of the Stock Benefit Plans have been received. The Group may contact Shareholders who have revoked their proxies.

Shares of the Common Stock represented by a valid, unrevoked GOLD proxy card will be voted as specified. Shares represented by a GOLD proxy card where no specification has been made will be voted AGAINST approval of the Stock Benefit Plans (Proposals 1 and 2).

Except as set forth in this Proxy Statement, the Group is not aware of any other matter to be considered at the Special Meeting. The persons named as proxies on the enclosed GOLD proxy card will, however, have discretionary voting authority as such proxies regarding any other business that may properly come before the Special Meeting. The proxies may exercise discretionary authority only as to matters unknown to the Group a reasonable time before this Proxy Solicitation.

If your shares are held in the name of a brokerage firm, bank or nominee, only such brokerage firm, bank or nominee can vote such shares and only upon receipt of your specific instructions. Accordingly, please promptly contact the person responsible for your account at such institution and instruct that person to execute and return the GOLD proxy card on your behalf. You should also promptly sign, date and mail the voting instruction form (or GOLD proxy card) that your broker or banker sends you. Please do this for each account you maintain to ensure that all of your shares are voted.

Only holders of record of the Common Stock on the Special Meeting Record Date will be entitled to vote at the Special Meeting. If you are a Shareholder of record on the Special Meeting Record Date, you will retain the voting rights in connection with the Special Meeting even if you sell such shares after the Special Meeting Record Date. Accordingly, it is important that you vote the shares of the Common Stock held by you on the Special Meeting Record Date, or grant a proxy to vote such shares on the GOLD proxy card, even if you sell such shares after such date.

The Group believes that it is in your best interests to vote against approval of the Stock Benefit Plans at the Special Meeting. THE GROUP STRONGLY RECOMMENDS A VOTE AGAINST THE APPROVAL OF THE STOCK BENEFIT PLANS.
