EXPLANATORY NOTE

This registration statement relates to shares of common stock of Cott Corporation that may be acquired (1) under the Cott USA 401(k) Savings & Retirement Plan by employees of Cott Beverages Inc. and Cott Beverages Wyomissing Inc., both indirect wholly owned subsidiaries of Cott Corporation, and Northeast Retailer Brands LLC, an entity in which Cott Corporation indirectly owns a majority interest, and (2) under the Cott Beverages San Bernardino Savings & Retirement Plan by those employees of Cott Beverages, Inc., an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Cott Corporation, who are covered by the collective bargaining agreement between Cott Beverages Inc. and the United Industrial Workers Service, Transportation, Professional and Governmental of North American Sub Region B. Shares of Cott Corporation's common stock acquired under these plans are obtained from time-to-time by the plan administrators through open market purchases at prevailing market prices. Such transactions do not involve the original issuance by Cott Corporation of any new shares of its common stock or result in a change in the number of outstanding shares of its common stock.

Item 4. Description of Securities.

Not Applicable.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Not Applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The corporation laws of Canada and the by-laws of Cott Corporation include provisions designed to provide for the indemnity of the corporation's officers and directors against certain liabilities. These provisions are designed to encourage qualified individuals to serve as officers and directors of Cott Corporation.

Under the Canada Business Corporations Act (the "CBCA"), a corporation may indemnify a director or officer of the corporation, a former director or officer of the corporation or another individual who acts or acted at the corporation's request as a director or officer, or an individual acting in a similar capacity, of another entity against all costs, charges and expenses (including an amount paid to settle an action or satisfy a judgment) reasonably incurred by him or her in respect of certain civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or other proceedings in which he or she is involved because of that association with the corporation or other entity.

The CBCA permits indemnification and monetary advances only if the indemnifiable person acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the corporation (in the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, he or she had reasonable grounds for believing his or her conduct to be lawful). An indemnifiable person is entitled to the indemnity if, in addition to the foregoing, such indemnifiable person was not adjudged by a court or other competent authority to have committed any fault or omitted to do anything that the indemnifiable person ought to have done. With the approval of the court, a corporation may also indemnify an indemnifiable person in respect of an action by or on behalf of the corporation.

Sections 7.02 to 7.04 of Cott Corporation's by-laws provide, without in any manner derogating from or limiting the mandatory provisions of the CBCA but subject to the conditions contained therein, for the indemnity of Cott Corporation's directors or officers, former directors or officers, or a person who acts or acted at Cott Corporation's request as a director or officer or in a similar capacity of another entity substantially in accordance with the provisions set out in the CBCA.

Edgar Filing: COTT CORP /CN/ - Form S-8

Section 7.05 of the corporation's by-laws states that subject to the limitations contained in the CBCA, Cott Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of its directors and officers as such, as the board may from time to time determine.

In addition, Cott Corporation has entered into indemnification agreements with certain directors and officers which embody, in all material respects, the indemnity provisions contained in the CBCA and Cott Corporation's by-laws and subject to the limitations contained therein.

Item 7. Exemption from Registration Claimed.

Not Applicable.

Item 9. Undertakings.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales or being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement;

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the

Edgar Filing: COTT CORP /CN/ - Form S-8

Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement and;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15 (d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
