Dear El Paso Employee:

This afternoon, I accepted the Board of Directors' appointment as chief executive officer and chairman of the board, replacing Bill Wise, effective immediately. While Bill had previously agreed to step down by the end of the year and assist in a CEO transition plan, the board has now accelerated the transition to provide strong leadership and stability while in search of a permanent CEO. The board recognizes that the CEO search has been complicated by the announced proxy contest and believes that the pursuit of the company's business strategy will be better served without leadership uncertainty.

I am honored to serve as your CEO and chairman while a new CEO is selected. All of the building blocks are in place, and we are executing our 2003 business plan. While our industry has recently faced unprecedented challenges, I am confident that the board and the company will continue to take the necessary actions to preserve and enhance the value of El Paso.

As you know, under Bill's direction El Paso assembled North America's leading natural gas franchise and the largest natural gas pipeline network in the United States. He was instrumental in the creation and implementation to date of our 2003 business plan, and I know that many of you will miss him, as will I, after his 33 years with the company.

El Paso is a great company with the most qualified and dedicated employees in the industry. I look forward to working more closely with all of you.

On behalf of the board and the management of El Paso, I want to thank you for your ongoing commitment to the company and let you know how much we appreciate your support.

Sincerely,

Ronald L. Kuehn, Jr.
Chairman and Chief Executive Officer
