Carole Coleman, Corporate Secretary
The Board of Directors
The New Germany Fund, Inc.
345 Park Avenue
New York, NY 10154

Dear Ms. Coleman and Board Members:

As you know, litigation is pending regarding the validity of the Fund's so-called qualifications bylaw and the results of last year's annual meeting. We believe that, if not for the board's adoption of preclusive qualifications for director that are obviously designed to perpetuate its control over the Fund (and its refusal to waive the qualifications), our slate of directors would have been elected and our open-ending proposal would have passed by an overwhelming 71% to 29% margin. Moreover, a similar proposal was adopted by a 61% to 39% margin the previous year. Over the past two months, we have tried in vain to reach out to the board in an attempt to resolve the litigation and to avert another proxy contest. In light of the shareholders' desire to be afforded an opportunity to realize net asset value, we cannot understand why the board has refused to even discuss this matter. The only conclusion we can draw now is that it will continue to pay millions of dollars of shareholder funds to its consigiores to prevent a democratic election. That is great for Sullivan & Cromwell's bottom line but not so good for the Fund's shareholders. In view of the board's intransigence, it appears we have no choice but to pursue another proxy contest. Assuming there will be three directors elected in 2006, we hereby give notice that we intend to nominate Lawrence Goldstein, Richard Shaker and Brad Orvieto for election as directors. Like virtually every shareholder of the Fund, none of them meets the notorious "qualifications" set forth in the Fund's bylaws although if it means anything to the board, Mr. Orvieto happens to be a director of Temple Kol Ami and a member of the Anti-Defamation League Civil Rights Committee. More importantly, unlike the incumbent directors who have demonstrated their contempt for shareholder rights, each of our nominees is committed to abide by the wishes of the shareholders. We think that is more important than any so-called "qualifications" Sullivan & Cromwell can conjure up to entrench the incumbent directors.

Edgar Filing: NEW GERMANY FUND INC - Form SC 13D/A

We also intend to submit a "ballot access" proposal to nullify any impediments to a democratic election. If the board is willing to allow a democratic election for directors, we will withdraw our "ballot access" proposal and provide the board with any reasonable information it requires about our nominees. However, if it persists in refusing to allow shareholders to vote for our nominees on the dubious grounds that they do not meet the board's self-serving "qualifications," there is no point in providing any further information. Our "ballot access" proposal reads as follows:

Notwithstanding any provision of the Fund's bylaws to the contrary, at any meeting of shareholders (1) any beneficial or registered shareholder of the Fund shall be entitled to make nominations for the board of directors and (2) the shareholders may vote for and elect as directors any persons so nominated.

We intend to solicit proxies from other shareholders and to seek reimbursement from the Fund for our solicitation expenses. If there is any additional information that will induce the board to allow the directors to be democratically elected, please so advise us and we will endeavor to provide it. Finally, please advise us immediately if you believe this notice is deficient in any way so that we can promptly cure any deficiency.

Very truly yours,

Phillip Goldstein
Portfolio Manager

p.s. We are taking the liberty of advising shareholders that have asked us what they can do to persuade the board to afford them an opportunity to realize NAV to communicate their views to Ms. Patricia Rosch Carrington at 212-454-2123 who will hopefully relay them to the board. Please confirm with Sullivan & Cromwell whether the bylaws allow shareholders to do that. Thank you.
