These calculations are based on certain assumed annual rates of appreciation as prescribed by rules adopted by the Securities and Exchange Commission requiring additional disclosure regarding executive compensation. Under these rules, an assumption is made that the shares underlying the stock options shown in this table could appreciate at rates of 5% and 10% per annum on a compounded basis over the term of the stock options. Actual gains, if any, on stock option exercises are dependent on the future performance of the Company's Common Stock and overall stock market conditions. There can be no assurance that amounts reflected in this table will be achieved, or may not be exceeded.

Item 13.

Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

During 2000, Lithia Real Estate, Inc. paid Mark DeBoer Construction, Inc. $6.8 million for remodeling certain of the Company's facilities. Mark DeBoer Construction is owned and operated by Mark DeBoer, son of Sidney B. DeBoer. This amount included $6.1 million paid for subcontractors and materials, $32,000 for permits, licenses, travel and various miscellaneous fees, and $624,000 for contractor fees. The Company believes the amount paid is fair in comparison with fees negotiated with independent third parties.

In May 1999, the Company purchased certain dealerships owned by W. Douglas Moreland for total consideration of approximately $66.0 million, at which time, Mr. Moreland became a member of the Company's Board of Directors. During 2000, in the normal course of business, these dealerships paid $2.8 million to other companies owned by Mr. Moreland for vehicles purchased and recourse paid to a financial lender. The Company also paid rental expense of $3.2 million in 2000 to other companies owned by Mr. Moreland.

The terms of the acquisition agreement with Mr. Moreland provided for additional consideration to be paid if the acquired entity results of operations exceeded certain targeted levels in 1999. Targeted levels were set substantially above the historical experience of the acquired entity at the time of acquisition. Such additional consideration was paid in cash and with shares of the Company's stock in the first quarter of 2000. Additional consideration totaled $18.0 million, including $9.0 million in cash, $4.5 million in Class A Common Stock and $4.5 million in stated value Series M Redeemable, Convertible Preferred Stock with a fair value of $2.7 million.
