The Group's consolidated revenue rose by 10.8% to 18,111.1m, versus 16,348.8m in the first nine months of 2004. This growth confirmed the trend posted over the first half of the year. Organic growth remained robust at 9.0%.

Revenues deriving from outside France stood at 9,436.4m, or 52% of the total.

In accordance with IAS 18, revenue now excludes indirect charges and taxes collected on behalf of third parties in the Water division.

In France, the engineering and construction business continued to grow and the distribution business performed well, lifting organic growth in revenue to 5%.

Internationally, revenue was up sharply (22.0% at constant scope and exchange rates). The strong growth in Europe (+33.0% at constant exchange rates) was driven by the Braunschweig contract in Germany, other new contracts signed in recent months (in particular in the Czech Republic and in Italy), as well as the five-year price review plan in the UK. In North America, revenue advanced by more than 8%, at constant exchange rates, owing in particular to favorable revenue levels from the Indianapolis contract. In Asia/Pacific, revenue growth was strong, exceeding 20%, underpinned by the start-up of the Shenzhen contract.

Several large design build construction contracts in France and abroad enabled Veolia Water Systems to post organic growth in revenue of more than 8.0%.

The Water division posted external growth of 2.0%, deriving from two factors: the acquisition of an engineering concern in Germany in 2004, and in the second quarter of 2005, the division increased its stake in certain Italian water companies.

VEOLIA ENVIRONMENTAL SERVICES (WASTE)

9-mos. 2005 (m)	9-mos. 2004 (m)	% change 2005/2004	Organic growth	External growth	Currency effect
4,824.6	4,651.6	3.7%	4.5%	-0.6%	-0.2%

Revenue growth in the Environmental Services (waste) division remained stable, consistent with the first half of the year, at 3.7%.

In France, organic growth in revenue totaled 2.1%. This growth was achieved despite a relatively unfavorable economic environment affecting the industrial waste activities.

Internationally, organic growth in revenue accelerated to 6.6%. The businesses benefited from the increasing impact of integrated contracts, higher tonnages in the UK and strong growth in the Asia/Pacific region (+15.9%). In North America, new contracts, favorable hazardous waste volumes and a high level of activity in industrial services, led to solid revenue growth of 5.4%.

VEOLIA ENERGY

9-mos. 2005 (m)	9-mos. 2004 (m)	% change 2005/2004	Organic growth	External growth	Currency effect
3,628.5	3,331.1	8.9%	7.9%	0.3%	0.7%

In France, revenue was up 7.8% organically and continued to benefit from the increased price of energy in the heating business.

Internationally, internal revenue growth was 8.0%. Organic growth was especially high in eastern Europe (22.6%), driven, in particular, by the full impact of new contracts in Poland, Hungary and Romania.

The net effect of external growth reflects the Group's efforts to optimize the portfolio of businesses. This included acquisition growth in Spain and the divestiture of the nuclear industry construction business the Energy Services division in France, as well as the German facilities management activity.

VEOLIA TRANSPORTATION

9-mos. 2005 (m)	9-mos. 2004 (m)	% change 2005/2004	Organic growth	External growth	Currency effect
3,136.5	2,642.0	18.7%	12.5%	5.8%	0.4%

In France, revenue increased by 16.2% primarily due to the full effect of urban transit contracts renewed in 2004 and the Toulouse contract, which began on January 1, 2005.

Internationally, revenue grew 10.0% organically and benefited from the full effect of the Melbourne contract and the latest developments achieved in the United States (Denver, Los Angeles Metrolink) and Europe (Dublin tramway, Helsinki bus contract).

External growth in Transportation (5.8%) reflected the impact of last September's acquisition of ATC in the US.

Recurring operating income increased 17.3% at current exchange rates (16.4% at constant exchange rates) to 1,321m in the first nine months of 2005 from 1,127m in the year-earlier period.

Each of the divisions contributed to this improvement, which was driven by the increasing maturity of contracts, the favorable impact from the efficiency program, and the accelerated growth. These operating results confirmed the improvement in the Group's performance.

When taking into account the non-recurring items included in the nine-month 2004 results, consolidated operating income increased 24.9% to 1,321m, versus 1,058m in the year-earlier period.

Net financial debt remained stable at 13.56 billion, versus 13.51 billion at June 30, 2005. After deducting financial receivables and marketable securities, economic net debt totaled 10.8 billion, versus 10.9 billion at June 30, 2005. All investments, including those in the third quarter (acquisition of the heating network of the city of Lodz, acquisition of the transportation company ATC in the US and of Shanks toxic waste business in the UK), were financed by operating cash flow generated during the period.
