II State of Business

(1) Manufacturing, Orders Received and Sales

The products that Sony manufactures and sells are extremely diverse. Due to the cyclical nature of electronics devices, home game consoles, game software, and music and video software, Sony generally manufactures products based on forecasts. Because Sony maintains a relatively stable and necessary level of product inventory in order to carry out the manufacturing of electronic devices, its level of production is generally similar to its level of sales. For further information regarding the level of sales, please refer to (4) Management s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition, Results of Operations and Status of Cash Flows below.

(2) Risk Factors

Note for readers of this English translation:

Aside from the description of the joint venture agreement with Sharp Corporation (Sharp) and the judicial review on Sony smusic business by the European Court discussed in the risk factors below, there are no significant changes from the information presented in the Risk Factors section of the Annual Report on Form 20-F filed with the SEC on June 23, 2009. The descriptions below are based on management s assumptions and beliefs in light of the information currently available.

Sony s utilization of joint ventures and alliances within strategic business areas may not be successful.

During the last several years Sony has moved toward the establishment of joint ventures and strategic alliances in order to supplement or replace functions that were previously performed by divisions of Sony Corporation or its wholly-owned subsidiaries.

Sony currently has investments in several joint ventures, including Sony Ericsson Mobile Communications AB and S-LCD Corporation. If Sony and its partners from existing alliances, joint ventures and strategic investments are unable to reach their common financial objectives successfully, Sony s financial performance may be adversely affected. Sony s financial performance may also be adversely affected temporarily or in the short- and medium-term during the period of alliances, joint ventures and strategic investments even if Sony and its partners remain on course to achieve their common objectives. On July 30, 2009, Sony entered into an agreement to establish a joint venture company with Sharp to produce and sell large-sized LCD panels and modules.

Sony may not adequately manage the growing number of joint ventures and strategic alliances, and, in particular, may not deal effectively with the legal and cultural differences that can arise in such relationships, with changes in the relationships, or with changes in the financial status of its partners. In addition, by participating in joint ventures or strategic alliances, Sony may encounter conflicts of interest, may not maintain sufficient control over the joint venture or strategic alliance, including over cash flow, and may be faced with an increased risk of the loss of proprietary technology or know-how. Sony s reputation could be harmed by the actions or activities of a joint venture that uses the Sony brand.

Sony s music business may be subject to renewed judicial review by the European Court.

In August 2004, Sony combined its recorded music business outside of Japan with the recorded music business of Bertelsmann AG (Bertelsmann), forming SONY BMG MUSIC ENTERTAINMENT (SONY BMG), after receiving antitrust approval from, among others, the European Commission. On December 3, 2004, Impala, an international association of 2,500 independent recorded music companies, appealed the European Commission s clearance decision to the EU Court of First Instance (CFI).

On July 13, 2006, the CFI annulled the Commission s decision to allow the merger to go forward, requiring the Commission to re-examine the transaction. In October 2006, Sony Corporation of America (SCA) and Bertelsmann filed an appeal of the CFI s judgment to the Court of Justice of the European Communities (ECJ). On October 3, 2007, following its re-examination of the merger, the Commission rendered a second clearance decision reaffirming the conclusion reached in 2004 that the transaction raised no competition concerns. On June 16, 2008, Impala announced it had filed an appeal of that second clearance decision to the CFI. On July 10, 2008, the ECJ rendered judgment on the 2006 appeal of SCA and Bertelsmann, setting aside the CFI s annulment of the Commission s original clearance decision and referring the case back to the CFI for further consideration. On September 26, 2008, the CFI stayed Impala s 2008 appeal of the Commission s second clearance decision pending a final ruling by the CFI on the original clearance decision. As of October 1, 2008, SONY BMG became a wholly-owned subsidiary of Sony and was renamed Sony Music Entertainment as of January 1, 2009. On June 30, 2009, the CFI determined that Impala s 2004 appeal of the Commission s original clearance decision was devoid of purpose and that there was therefore no longer any need to adjudicate on that appeal. Accordingly, the 2004 clearance decision has become final. On September 30, 2009, the CFI further determined that Impala s appeal of the second clearance decision was devoid of purpose and that there was therefore no longer any need to adjudicate on that appeal. If the CFI s determination is not appealed, the 2007 clearance decision will also become final and the judicial proceedings relating to the formation of Sony BMG will be concluded.

(3) Material Contracts

Foreign Exchange Fluctuations and Risk Hedging

Status of Cash Flows

The following analysis refers to the status of cash flow during the second quarter ended September 30, 2009.

Operating Activities: During the second quarter ended September 30, 2009, there was a net cash inflow of 175.5 billion yen from operating activities, an increase of 102.7 billion yen, or 140.9% year-on-year. For all segments excluding the Financial Services segment, there was a net cash inflow of 85.2 billion yen, an increase of 80.3 billion yen year-on-year. The Financial Services segment had a net cash inflow of 90.2 billion yen, an increase of 22.3 billion yen, or 32.8% year-on-year.

During the current quarter, with respect to all segments excluding the Financial Services segment, the major cash inflow factors included an increase in notes and accounts payable, trade, and a cash contribution from net income (loss), after taking into account depreciation and amortization. This exceeded cash outflows, which included increases in film costs, inventories, and notes and accounts receivable, trade. The Financial Services segment increased its net cash inflow mainly from an increase in revenue from insurance premiums reflecting a steady increase in policy amounts in force at Sony Life.

Compared with the same quarter of the previous fiscal year, within all segments excluding the Financial Services segment, net cash generated during the current quarter significantly increased mainly as a result of a lower increase in inventories, receipt of tax refunds, and a lower increase in notes and accounts receivable, trade. This increase in net cash generated was partially offset by a lower increase in notes and accounts payable, trade. Within the Financial Services segment, net cash generated increased year-on-year mainly due to the increase in revenue from insurance premiums reflecting a steady increase in policy amounts in force at Sony Life noted above.

Investing Activities: During the current quarter, Sony used 157.1 billion yen of net cash in investing activities, a decrease of 116.8 billion yen, or 42.6% year-on-year. For all segments excluding the Financial Services segment, 85.2 billion yen of net cash was used, a decrease of 42.8 billion yen, or 33.5% year-on-year. The Financial Services segment used 71.9 billion yen of net cash, a decrease of 77.1 billion yen, or 51.8% year-on-year.

During the current quarter, with respect to all segments excluding the Financial Services segment, there were no significant asset sales, and net cash was used mainly for the purchases of manufacturing equipment. Within the Financial Services segment, payments for investments and advances, carried out primarily at Sony Life and Sony Bank, exceeded proceeds from the maturities of marketable securities, sales of securities investments and collections of advances.

Compared with the same quarter of the previous fiscal year, net cash used during the current quarter decreased significantly within all segments excluding the Financial Services segment, primarily due to a decrease in purchases of manufacturing equipment. Net cash used within the Financial Services segment decreased significantly year-on-year primarily due to a decrease in investments at Sony Bank.

In all segments excluding the Financial Services segment, net cash used in operating and investing activities combined for the current quarter was 0.02 billion yen, an improvement of 123.1 billion yen compared with the same quarter of the previous fiscal year.

Financing Activities: During the current quarter, 33.6 billion yen of net cash was provided by financing activities, a decrease of 89.3 billion yen, or 72.6% year-on-year. For all segments excluding the Financial Services segment, there was 22.3 billion yen of net cash generated from financing activities, an increase of 17.4 billion yen year-on-year. This was primarily due to issuances of long-term borrowings from banks in the current quarter, which were partially offset by net repayments of short-term borrowings including commercial paper. Sony executed a 1.0 billion U.S. dollar long-term bank loan (3 year term) in July 2009. In the Financial Services segment, financing activities generated 11.5 billion yen of net cash, a decrease of 109.8 billion yen, or 90.5% year-on-year, mainly due to a lower increase in deposits from customers at Sony Bank compared to the same quarter of the previous fiscal year.

Total Cash and Cash Equivalents: Accounting for the above factors and the effect of fluctuations in exchange rates, the total outstanding balance of cash and cash equivalents as of September 30, 2009 was 838.5 billion yen, an increase of 30.6 billion yen, or 3.8% compared with the balance as of June 30, 2009. Compared with the balance as of September 30, 2008, cash and cash equivalents increased 137.6 billion yen, or 19.6%. The outstanding balance of cash and cash equivalents of all segments excluding the Financial Services segment, was 665.7 billion yen, an increase of 0.7 billion yen, or 0.1%, compared with the balance as of June 30, 2009. Compared with the balance as of September 30, 2008, cash and cash equivalents increased 132.0 billion yen, or 24.7%. Sony believes it maintains sufficient liquidity through access to approximately 780 billion yen of unused committed lines of credit in addition to the cash and cash equivalents balance as of September 30, 2009. Within the Financial Services segment, the outstanding balance of cash and cash equivalents was 172.8 billion yen, an increase of 29.8 billion yen, or 20.9%, compared with the balance as of June 30, 2009. Compared with the balance as of September 30, 2008, cash and cash equivalents increased 5.6 billion yen, or 3.3%.

Information on Cash Flow Separating Out the Financial Services Segment (Unaudited)

The following charts show Sony sunaudited cash flow information for all segments (consolidated), all segments excluding the Financial Services segment and for the Financial Services segment alone. These separate condensed presentations are not required under U.S. GAAP, which Sony uses in its consolidated financial statements. However, because the Financial Services segment is different in nature from Sony s other segments, Sony utilizes this information to analyze the results without Financial Services segment and believes that these presentations may be useful in understanding and analyzing Sony s consolidated financial statements. Transactions between the Financial Services segment and all segments excluding the Financial Services segment are eliminated in the consolidated figures shown below.

On July 30, 2009 Sony entered into an agreement to establish a joint venture company with Sharp to produce and sell large-sized LCD panels and modules (the Joint Venture Agreement). On July 1, 2009, Sharp split out its new LCD panel plant located in Sakai City, which was under construction, and transferred it to Sharp Display Products Corporation (SDP), its wholly-owned subsidiary. SDP commenced operations in October 2009. On December 29, 2009, as the first step toward the final investment ratio (66% by Sharp and 34% by Sony), Sony intends to invest 10 billion yen into SDP in exchange for new shares to be issued by SDP to Sony as third-party allotment. The Joint Venture Agreement further provides that, subject to its conditions, Sony will make a number of additional capital injections to SDP, resulting in a maximum 34% ownership by Sony of SDP by the end of April 2011. SDP will produce and sell large-sized LCD panels and modules, utilizing the new LCD panel production plant using the world's first 10th generation glass substrate. LCD panel production capacity is planned at 72,000 substrates of mother glass per month (initially 36,000 substrates per month).
