Company Press Release

CNOOC Ltd. voted as "The Best Managed Company" in China and earns top ranking for Corporate Governance and Corporate Strategy

(Hong Kong, December 11, 2001) CNOOC Limited (SEHK:883, NYSE:CEO), (the "Company") is pleased to announce that it has been voted as the best managed company in China by Asiamoney's annual poll.

The tenth annual poll was conducted by way of a questionnaire sent to nearly 2,000 fund managers, chief investment officers and heads of research at fund management firms, insurance companies and brokerage houses in the Asia-Pacific region including Australia and Japan, Europe and the United States. Respondents were asked to name three companies in twelve categories, including best corporate strategy, best management of financial accounts, best corporate governance, best access to senior management, best investor relations, best treatment of minority shareholders, best company websites, best annual report, least impressive management, least investor relations, best newly listed company in 2001 and the best small company.

"We are very delighted that the Company is recognized by the global investment community as the best managed company in China with top rankings in corporate strategy and corporate governance. We also scored high in investor relations, management of accounts, and treatment of minority shareholders. These impressive rankings are testament to the work we've put into making sure that the Company is well run, accessible, transparent and open to the needs of investors," said Mr. Wei Liucheng, Chairman and CEO of the Company.

"We will continue to maintain a high level of management quality and corporate governance, which is of paramount importance to creating value for our shareholders, " added Mark Qiu, CFO of the Company.
