PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Desjardins Trust and CGI renew a five-year contract valued at CDN$18 million

Montreal, Quebec, September 11, 2003 Desjardins Trust, the largest trust company in Quebec, and CGI Group Inc. (CGI) (TSX: GIB.A; NYSE: GIB;), a leading provider of information technology and business processing services, announced today the signing of a five-year IT outsourcing contract renewal valued at CDN$18 million for the delivery of facilities management services for central office data computing, the technical assistance centre and incident management. In particular, CGI is charged with managing all mainframe and printing activity.

In working with CGI over the years, we have come to depend on their excellent service and ability to work proactively with our own teams. It is this kind of collaboration that has tangible results for our business, said Claude Dupuis, senior vice-president technology, for Desjardins Trust.

Michael Roach, president and chief operating officer of CGI added: We are pleased to continue our long-term service delivery to Desjardins Trust. By working together, we are continually adding value and we look forward to delivering results throughout and beyond the horizon of this agreement.

About Desjardins Trust

With $143 million in managed assets, Desjardins Trust is the largest trust company in Quebec. It designs products and services in the field of wealth management and administration. It is particularly specialized in mutual funds, private management, group savings plans and securities administration and custody.

Desjardins Trust responds to the needs of individuals, corporations, institutions and pension funds in the private, public, parapublic and cooperative sectors. Its products are distributed through the Desjardins caisses in Quebec and Ontario and through other Canadian networks.
