“Fiscal 2007 was a very successful year for CGI. Throughout the year, we were able to significantly enhance shareholder value by focusing on delivering on the fundamentals necessary for sustained profitable growth. We grew revenue while significantly increasing profitability and cash flow as we continue to implement our build and buy strategy,” added Roach. “In addition, we were able to significantly reduce our debt and buy back shares for a total investment of $459.5 million. We entered our F2008 in excellent position to continue to profitably grow our business.”
