Item 4. Description of Securities.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The Indiana Business Corporation Law (Section 23-1-37) grants to each corporation the power to advance reasonable expenses and to indemnify its directors, officers, employees or agents against judgments, settlements, penalties, fines and reasonable expenses incurred in certain proceedings, provided, that an appropriate determination is made that the person acted in good faith and reasonably believed, if acting in official capacity, that he acted in the Company's best interests. Furthermore, unless the Company's articles of incorporation provide otherwise, a corporation must indemnify any director or officer against reasonable expenses incurred in connection with any proceeding to which the person was a party if he was wholly successful in the defense of such proceeding. This statute provides, however, that the statutory provisions for indemnification and advancement of expenses are not exclusive of any other such rights provided by the articles of incorporation, by-laws, resolution, or other authorization adopted by a majority vote of the voting shares then issued and outstanding. This statute further provides that if such other provisions for the indemnification and advancement of expenses are more restrictive than the statute, indemnification and advancement of expenses are valid only to the extent consistent with such other provisions.

Each past, present or future Director or Officer of the Corporation shall be and hereby is indemnified by the Corporation against all liability (including the expense of defending against such liability and any payment of money or delivery of property made in satisfaction or settlement thereof, but excluding any such payment or delivery made to the Corporation for its accounts), which results from any claim, suit or proceeding threatened or commenced against him, whether or not he is then such a Director or Officer, for acts alleged to have been committed or omitted by him as such Director or Officer, or as an employee of the Corporation, provided (a) he is adjudged not guilty of willful misconduct or dereliction of duty by a judgment or decree entered by any court in respect of such claim, suit or proceeding, or (b) he is determined not guilty of willful misconduct or dereliction of duty by a majority vote of the whole Board of Directors, if no such judgment or decree is entered, or if entered, no adjudication is made therein in respect of willful misconduct or dereliction of duty. directors who are embraced in the claim, suit or proceeding shall be disqualified from participating in any such determination by the Board of Directors, both in respect of their own misconduct or dereliction of duty, if any, and that of others. In the event a majority of the Board of Directors are thus disqualified, such determination in respect of misconduct or dereliction of duty shall be made by independent counsel who shall be selected by a majority vote of all the whole Board of Directors. Those Directors who would be disqualified from participating in a determination by the Board of Directors in respect of such misconduct or dereliction of duty may nevertheless participate in the selection of such counsel. Such counsel at the time of their selection may be counsel of the Corporation in other matters, but shall not be in the employ of the Corporation in a salaried capacity. The right of indemnification herein provided shall not be exclusive of any other rights to which any such Director or Officer may be entitled as a matter of law.

Item 7. Exemption from Registration Claimed.

Item 9. Undertakings

1st Source Corporation hereby undertakes:

- (1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:
 - (i) to include any prospectus required by section 10 (a) (3) of the Securities Act of 1933;
 - (ii) to reflect in the Prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement;

(iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

Provided, however, that paragraphs (1)(i) and (1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed by the registrant pursuant to section 13 or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in this registration statement.

- (2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.
- (4) That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at the time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (5) That insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
