Item 8.01 Other Events.

On October 6, 2010, Washington Mutual, Inc. (the “Company”) and WMI Investment Corp. (together with the Company, the “Debtors”) filed with the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the “Court”) the Debtors’ Sixth Amended Joint Plan of Affiliated Debtors Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code (as modified on October 29, 2010 and November 24, 2010, the “Sixth Amended Plan”) and a disclosure statement relating thereto. In connection with the Sixth Amended Plan, holders of preferred shares classified as “REIT Series” in class 19 under the Sixth Amended Plan (the “Class 19 REIT Series Securities”) who made certain release and exchange elections pursuant to the Sixth Amended Plan tendered such securities into contra-CUSIP accounts established with The Depository Trust Company (“DTC”) for the purpose of identifying and “freezing” trading in such securities.

After hearing testimony and argument regarding confirmation of the Sixth Amended Plan, on January 7, 2011, the Court issued an opinion (the “Opinion”), pursuant to which, among other things, the Court denied confirmation of the Sixth Amended Plan unless certain modifications are made thereto. In light of the Opinion, on February 8, 2011, the Debtors filed with the Court a Modified Sixth Amended Joint Plan of Affiliated Debtors Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code (the “Modified Plan”) and a related Supplemental Disclosure Statement.

On March 14, 2011, the Company confirmed that the Class 19 REIT Series Securities previously tendered into contra-CUSIP accounts established with DTC have been released and returned to the target CUSIP accounts, and such securities are available for trading by the holders thereof. As set forth in detail in the Debtors’ proposed solicitation procedures with respect to the Modified Plan, the holders of Class 19 REIT Series Securities will not have an opportunity to resubmit release elections; such holders’ elections made in connection with the Sixth Amended Plan will remain valid and enforceable in connection with the Modified Plan. To the extent that a holder elected to grant the releases set forth in the Sixth Amended Plan, such holder’s information shall be recorded in an escrow CUSIP account established with DTC prior to such holder’s securities being released from the contra-CUSIP.

The solicitation procedures and the Supplemental Disclosure Statement will be considered by the Court on March 21, 2011. These documents are available electronically on the internet website of the Debtors’ claims agent, Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC, at <http://www.kccllc.net/>; however, the information set forth on the foregoing website shall not be deemed to be part of or incorporated by reference into this Current Report on Form 8-K.

A copy of the press release regarding the release and return of the Class 19 REIT Series Securities to the target CUSIP accounts as described above is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

Words such as “anticipates,” “expects,” “intends,” “plans,” “believes,” “seeks,” “estimates” or variations of such words and similar expressions are intended to identify such forward-looking statements. These statements are not guarantees of future performance and are subject to risks and uncertainties that are difficult to predict and which may cause the Company’s actual results and performance to differ materially from those expressed or forecasted in any such forward-looking statements. Some of these risks and uncertainties are discussed in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K/A for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007 under “Factors that May Affect Future Results.” These risks include, among other factors, changes in business, economic and market conditions, changes in government regulation, and changes in the competitive environment in which the Company operates. Other risks that the Company faces include, but are not limited to, the following: (i) the Company's ability to obtain Court approval with respect to motions in the Debtors' chapter 11 proceedings prosecuted by the Debtors from time to time; (ii) risks associated with third parties seeking and obtaining Court approval to convert the Debtors' chapter 11 cases to cases under chapter 7 of the bankruptcy code; (iii) risks associated with litigation and other claims that involve the Company; and (iv) the potential adverse impact of the Debtors' chapter 11 cases on the Debtors' liquidity or results of operations. Unless required by law, the Company undertakes no obligation to update publicly any forward-looking statements. However, readers should carefully review the statements set forth in the reports, which the Company files from time to time with the Securities and Exchange Commission, particularly its Current Reports on Form 8-K.
