REVOCATION OF CONSENT STATEMENT
BY THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS
OF AUSTINS STEAKS & SALOONS, INC.

Dear Stockholders:

The Board of Directors of Austins Steaks & Saloons, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Austins" or the "Company") is furnishing this Revocation of Consent Statement and the accompanying BLUE Revocation of Consent Card to the holders of the outstanding shares of Austins common stock, par value $0.01 per share, in opposition to the solicitation by a small group calling themselves the "Austins Group" (the "Dissidents"), who collectively own slightly more than 23% of the Company's outstanding stock.

The Annual Meeting of Stockholders of Austins was recently held on June 25, 2002. At that time, nine persons were elected to serve as Directors of your Company for the ensuing year. One of the persons elected at the Annual Meeting was Titus W. Greene. Mr. Greene served on the Nominating Committee, which Committee nominated the persons who were elected.

Mr. Greene resigned from the Company's Board of Directors effective as of July 18, 2002. Mr. Greene and the Dissidents (Titus W. Greene, G. Thomas Cliett, Charles W. Mantooth and Thomas M. Hontzas) are now asking you to remove all of your current Directors except Paul C. Schorr, III, Roger D. Sack, and William E. Proffitt, and to elect six persons nominated by the Dissidents. Accordingly, a consent in favor of the Dissidents' proposals is a consent to turn control of your Austins Board over to the Dissidents.

The Dissidents allege a "pattern of mismanagement" and yet acknowledge that three of the Dissidents have served as Directors of Austins during the period of time in which they allege that the mismanagement has occurred.

Rather than raise their concerns directly with management or the Board, the Dissidents have chosen this time-consuming and very expensive process. We estimate our costs will be several hundred thousand dollars. The Dissidents will spend a similar amount. If you vote for their proposals and turn over control of Austins to them, they will seek reimbursement of their costs. At a time when management is reducing costs and conserving cash, it makes no sense to incur $400,000 or more of needless expense.

We believe that your current Austins Board is in the best position to continue to move the Company forward. The current Board instituted a plan to close or franchise under-performing stores in November 1999, and has sold or franchised 13 company-operated units, which the Board anticipates will result in a $910,000 increase in cash flow annually. The attached Revocation of Consent Statement responds to the Dissidents' contentions and highlights certain statements and omissions in the Consent Statement of the Dissidents which your Board believes are false and misleading.

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

In an effort to head off this consent battle with the Dissidents and to try to avoid much needless expense, your management and Board of Directors requested a meeting with the Dissidents and their counsel for September 10, 2002. Victor Foti and Carson Quarles submitted the following memorandum to the Board of Directors, which the Board of Directors unanimously endorsed and presented to the Dissidents on September 10, 2002.

Memo to: Board of Directors
Austin's Steaks and Saloon, Inc.

From: Victor F. Foti
President and CEO

J. Carson Quarles
Chairman of the Board

RE: Proposal to Dissident Stockholders

We the undersigned, Victor F. Foti and J. Carson Quarles, submit for your consideration the following proposal to resolve the present conflict with the four dissident stockholders:

1. Victor F. Foti, President and CEO, will not stand for re-election as a director of the Company at its next annual stockholders meeting in June, 2003. Furthermore, he will resign his position of President and CEO effective with the adjournment of the annual meeting in June, 2003.
 2. J. Carson Quarles, Chairman of the Board of Directors, will serve in these capacities until June, 2003 and will not stand for re-election as a director of the Company after this current one year term expires.
 3. Austin's Steaks and Saloon, Inc. will nominate seven directors for election at the June, 2003 annual meeting and the dissident directors will nominate five. The number of board members will be seven and the proxy will provide that the stockholders are to vote for seven of the 12 and those seven that receive the highest number of votes by the stockholders will constitute the board of the Company.
- OR
4. Austin's Steaks and Saloon, Inc. will nominate its slate for the board and distribute a proxy for that slate and the dissidents can nominate its slate and distribute its proxy thus letting the stockholders determine its wishes as far as who constitutes the Board of Directors for the next fiscal year.
 5. Austin's Steaks and Saloon, Inc will withdraw the lawsuit against the dissidents.
 6. Vic Foti will withdraw his lawsuit against Titus Greene.
 7. All proxy efforts of both the Company and the Dissident stockholders will cease immediately.
 8. J.H. Chapman, Inc. will be given until June, 2003 to complete the contractual arrangement Austin's has with them.
 9. Any consideration for the Company to reimburse the Dissident Stockholders for legal expenses shall be placed on the proxy and voted upon by the Stockholders of the Company.

We feel the above is a reasonable resolution to the conflict and we are committed to our positions.

/s/ VICTOR F. FOTI

The three Dissidents at the meeting rejected the offer. They insisted that the only solution acceptable to them was for four members of your Board of Directors to resign immediately, including Victor Foti and Carson Quarles, to be replaced by four persons of the Dissidents' choosing. They agreed that Victor Foti would stay as Chief Executive Officer pending efforts by the J.H. Chapman Group, the Company's investment banker, to explore strategic alternatives for the Company, such efforts not to extend past June 30, 2003. In addition, the Dissidents insisted that 100% of the their legal fees, which they told us are now approaching $200,000 would have to be paid out of Company funds. Your Board of Directors did not believe that the Board could fulfill its obligation to represent all of you and to preserve the possibility of the J.H. Chapman Group finding a strategic alternative for the Company by four directors having to resign. Further, the Board did not believe it was appropriate to pay out approximately $200,000 of your money to the Dissidents who started this fight. Your Board did offer two other alternatives to try to secure a settlement. First, your Board offered to immediately increase the size of the Board and elect two members of the Dissident group as new directors. That was rejected. Second, an offer was made to try to find buyers for the Dissidents' stock if their real desire was to liquidate their holdings. They also rejected this.

The other seven members of the Board of Directors were very appreciative of the willingness of Victor Foti and Carson Quarles to relinquish their positions at the next annual stockholders meeting in June, 2003, in order to resolve this fight. Your Board is disappointed that this proposal, which it unanimously believed was fair and reasonable, was rejected by the Dissidents.

The Board feels that it is important to maintain continuity of the management team and the Board of Directors as the J.H. Chapman Group explores strategic alternatives for the Company. Because of this, the Board has asked Mr. Foti to remain and guide this strategic process, and Mr. Foti has agreed. If the Board determines that it is in the best interest of the Company to continue to execute the current strategic plan of the Company (as discussed elsewhere in these materials), then the Board and management will discuss the appropriate composition of the Company's management team.

THEREFORE, WE ARE URGING YOU NOT TO GIVE ANY CONSENTS IN RESPONSE TO THE DISSIDENTS SOLICITATION, AND WE ARE SEEKING THE REVOCATION OF ANY CONSENTS THAT MAY HAVE BEEN GIVEN TO THE DISSIDENTS SOLICITATION.

YOUR AUSTINS BOARD (WITH THE EXCEPTION OF WILLIAM E. PROFFITT) OPPOSES THE DISSIDENTS CONSENT SOLICITATION AND URGES YOU NOT TO SIGN ANY GOLD CONSENT CARD SENT TO YOU BY THE DISSIDENTS. THE BOARD URGES YOU TO DISCARD ANY GOLD CONSENT CARDS SENT TO YOU BY THE DISSIDENTS.

IF YOU HAVE PREVIOUSLY SIGNED AND RETURNED ANY GOLD CONSENT CARD TO THE DISSIDENTS, YOU HAVE EVERY RIGHT TO CHANGE YOUR MIND. THE BOARD URGES YOU TO SIGN, DATE AND MAIL THE ENCLOSED BLUE REVOCATION OF CONSENT CARD IN THE POSTAGE-PAID ENVELOPE PROVIDED.

EVEN IF YOU HAVE NOT PREVIOUSLY SIGNED AND RETURNED ANY GOLD CONSENT CARD TO THE DISSIDENTS, YOU MAY STILL SEND A BLUE REVOCATION OF CONSENT CARD TO AUSTINS, WHICH WILL HAVE NO LEGAL EFFECT BUT WOULD ASSIST US IN MONITORING THE PROGRESS OF THE CONSENT SOLICITATION.

IF YOUR SHARES ARE HELD IN THE NAME OF A BANK, BROKER OR OTHER NOMINEE, ONLY YOUR BANK, BROKER OR OTHER NOMINEE CAN EXECUTE A REVOCATION OF CONSENT FOR YOUR SHARES, AND ONLY PURSUANT TO YOUR SPECIFIC INSTRUCTIONS. ACCORDINGLY, YOU ARE URGED TO REJECT THE DISSIDENTS BY SIGNING, DATING AND RETURNING THE ENCLOSED BLUE REVOCATION OF CONSENT CARD PROMPTLY, USING THE ACCOMPANYING POSTAGE-PREPAID ENVELOPE PROVIDED BY YOUR BANK, BROKER OR NOMINEE.

REASONS YOUR AUSTINS BOARD
OPPOSES THE DISSIDENTS' CONSENT SOLICITATION

The Dissidents indicate that they are disappointed with the Company's performance, financial condition and stock price. Your management and the current Board of Directors are also not satisfied with the earnings and the stock price. Management is clearly responsible for the performance and operating results of the Company, but unfortunately cannot control the market price of any individual stock, including Austins.

Edgar Filing: AUSTINS STEAKS & SALOON INC - Form PRER14A

All that the management and current Board can do is work hard to increase the earnings of Austins. We have been through several difficult years in the Company's history but the Board and management have been working hard to position the Company for future growth and profitability. For example, general and administrative expenses have been reduced from approximately $5,310,000 in the year 2000 to $2,650,000 in 2001. Additionally, we believe that due to our strategy of closing or franchising under performing company-owned stores and a campaign to change the image of the WesterN SizzliN concept, we will show increased earnings and we ask for your continued support to implement our plan.

After reviewing the Dissidents' plan, we believe that this very costly and time-consuming process initiated by the Dissidents offers virtually nothing that the Company has not undertaken already. Let's examine their plan.

The Dissidents want to undertake a line-by-line review of the revenue and expense items of the Company to operate more efficiently, reduce overhead and improve liquidity. In fact, detailed monthly operating information is provided to our Board of Directors and has been for the past several years. Line-by-line reviews have been done in the past by board request and approved without change. In 1995, Jerry Gardner, then chairman of the Finance and Audit Committee, requested and received a line-by-line review of the Company financial statements. Again, in 1997, Jesse Harrington III, then chairman of the Finance and Audit Committee and currently one of the Dissidents' nominees to be a Director, requested and received a line-by-line review of the Company financial statements. No specific reasons were given for the requests, nor were any changes made in response to any specific finding during the reviews.

The Dissidents want to evaluate company-owned stores with a focus on stemming the losses. This is precisely the program the Board has been effecting over the past several years. Over the past two years, 13 Company-owned stores have been closed, franchised or subleased. By the end of the current calendar year, it is expected that all unprofitable company stores will either be sold or franchised.

During the time that various Dissidents were on the WesterN SizzliN Board, dating back to 1994 and continuing through the merger with Austins, they rarely objected to the acquisition of Company stores. During the time that the Dissidents were on the Board, they approved of the acquisition of 26 Company stores.

Management has determined over the past several years, that it is difficult for a small organization such as Austins to profitably operate company-stores. What the Dissidents fail to point out to you, however, is that under generally accepted accounting principles, stores cannot just be closed on a moment's notice without incurring significant impairment losses. Management believes that it has acted responsibly and in a timely manner to reduce the impact to the financial statements of Company store closings.

The Dissidents want to minimize costly legal expenses and losses by not initiating so-called misguided lawsuits. The Dissidents do not point out to you, however, that the most expensive litigation in the Company's history occurred when Mr. Greene was chairman of the board of The WesterN SizzliN Corporation. At the first meeting of the board of directors following the reorganization of the Company after coming out of bankruptcy at the end of 1993, Mr. Greene and David Wachtel, then president and chief executive officer of the Company, had a confrontation about who would be chairman of the board. Mr. Greene prevailed. Under Mr. Greene's leadership, David Wachtel was terminated by a unanimous vote of the Board approximately 14 months later in February 1995. Mr. Wachtel then sued for substantial damages alleging a breach of his employment agreement. Mr. Greene's term as a Director expired in November 1996, and Mr. Foti, who was CEO at the time, was chiefly responsible for responding to the litigation from that point until it finally ended in July 1999. The ultimate resolution of this litigation cost the Company over $1.65 million in legal fees and a $1 million settlement to Mr. Wachtel.

Currently, the Company is involved in only one piece of operating litigation involving lease disputes with the landlord of five company stores in Louisiana. We sued the landlord over his refusal to allow us to sublease certain of these stores to other operators and thereby recoup some value to the Company. Contrary to the Dissidents' assertions, we believe the Company has meritorious claims against the landlord, but even if the landlord should prevail in claims the landlord may make (the landlord has not yet claimed any damages as a result of the litigation), the cost would be approximately offset by the Company's claims against the landlord ($150,000 claim for billboard revenue owed by the Landlord to the Company, and $156,000 claim for lost revenue for failure to allow the Company to sublease properties). The landlord prevailed in his attempt to evict the Company from the stores, which claim the Company lost on appeal. However, the Company's other outstanding claims against the landlord are expected to go to trial in 2003. We do not believe that the litigation is material or will have any material adverse impact upon the Company's financial condition. Disclosure was made in the Company's

Form 10-Q for June 30, 2002 even though the litigation is not material according to Regulation S-K, because certain members of the Dissidents were falsely telling stockholders that a one million judgment had been rendered against the Company.

We have one other piece of litigation pending against the Dissidents. Again, contrary to their representations to you, we did not initiate the lawsuit to prevent them from proceeding with their consent procedure but because they were proceeding in a manner which we believed was violating federal securities laws.

The Dissidents want to restore confidence in and communications with franchisees. Again, that has been an articulated strategy of management over the past several years. The Quincy's transaction, which we will discuss below, ultimately netted over twenty new franchisees. We have enhanced our franchise activities over the past two years by providing additional services and training to franchisees and we are continually searching for new and profitable opportunities. We are not considering a plan to increase franchise fees for existing franchisees. We do, however, intend to increase franchise fees for new franchisees, as disclosed in our Uniform Franchise Offering Circular. Along with the image enhancement program, we will continue to develop new ideas for franchisees to upgrade their store images and physical facilities and derive new and additional revenues. No quantifiable information is yet available for these efforts, however, the Company does not foresee any risks associated with closing unprofitable stores. The only potential risk associated with our marketing program would be that it may not be entirely successful, but the feedback that we have received thus far has been positive.

The Dissidents want to implement long-range strategic planning with an emphasis on developing systems to grow earnings and increase shareholder value. We have been doing exactly that over the past several years. Our long range strategy of closing or franchising unprofitable company owned units and improving and enhancing the franchise program is calculated to significantly increase earnings and stockholder value. The anticipated increase in cash flow of $910,000 annually is based upon historical averages of the amount that the unprofitable stores were costing the Company (2001 losses: Little Rock, Arkansas $340,000, Lawrenceville, Georgia $140,000, five stores in Louisiana $430,000).

In addition, we engaged J.H. Chapman Group, LLC in Chicago, a recognized investment banking firm in the restaurant area, to analyze a variety of different investment opportunities for the Company, including the potential sale of the Company. Titus Greene, one of the Dissidents, met with J.H. Chapman personnel in May, 2002, and voted with the other directors to engage the J.H. Chapman Group. As a result of the Dissidents' action, Chapman advised by letter dated July 29, 2002 that it could go no further for you, the stockholders, until the struggle with the Dissidents is resolved.

The Dissidents want to operate the Company like a public company by complying with disclosure obligations. We believe that we have been so operating and will continue to operate in the future. We did have several mistakes in the May 24, 2002 proxy statement which we need to discuss with you. Through inadvertence, and not intention, we failed to disclose to you the one year severance package voted to Mr. Foti and Ms. Mabe in the event the Company is sold or merged. This action was taken to encourage management continuity in the event of a sale or merger. The severance package does not apply to the current proxy battle. In August, 2001, your Board of Directors approved the amendment of the Company Bylaws to provide for a staggered Board of Directors. The May 24, 2002 proxy statement was inaccurately drawn and failed to include the provision for shareholder approval of the amendment to the Bylaws. When this error was brought to the Company's attention, it was explained at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders and the Directors were elected for only a one year term which was appropriate under Delaware law. The Board has not yet determined whether to propose staggering the Board of Directors in the future.

The Company was not advised by the Delaware Secretary of State or the Company's registered agent in Delaware that it had been dissolved for non-payment of its franchise taxes. A former officer of the Company apparently failed to pay these taxes, unbeknownst to current management. The taxes have now been paid, the Company is in good standing with the State of Delaware and we believe this will have no further impact upon the Company.

Additionally, we want to set the facts straight on a number of other matters which the Dissidents raise in their Consent Solicitation Statement.

The Dissidents state that Titus Greene, and the other members of the Dissidents, feel the current makeup of the Board hinders the Company's future prospects. Mr. Greene was a director of the Company from 1994 to 1997, and again from 1999 until July 18, 2002, when he resigned. Mr. Greene was also a member of the Board Nominating Committee for 2002. Mr. Greene never proposed, either this year or in prior years, any new or different nominees for the Board of Directors. Mr. Greene did not object to the current slate of directors which were approved by you in June. Mr. Mantooth was on the Board of Directors in 1998 and 1999 and Mr. Hontzas was on the Board from 1997 to 2001. Mr. Mantooth resigned specifically to allow Mr. Greene onto the Board. Mr. Hontzas resigned in June 2001 due to health concerns. Neither of them ever offered new or different nominees to the Board of Directors nor objected to the nominees who were presented. The day following the 2002 annual meeting, Victor Foti invited Mr. Greene and the other Dissidents to Roanoke, Virginia to discuss any concerns or problems about the Company or management. No one chose to come. Until now, none of the Dissidents has ever come forward to meet with management or the current Board of Directors to propose any changes in management strategy or any changes in the Board of Directors.

The Dissidents complain about the Quincy's transaction. The Quincy's transaction was a bold move by management to try to significantly enhance earnings and shareholder value. The strategy was not totally successful, however, the Company ultimately netted over 20 new franchised units. The expected royalty stream from these units over the next 20 years should more than make up for the net loss in the year 2000. The Quincy's program was responsible for losses in 2000 of $1.2 million, and in 2001 of $164,000. This transaction increased the average life of the franchised system from nine years to eleven years. With twenty-three franchises, if each franchise averages $1.2 million in revenues (based on historical averages of stores in the franchise system), and the Company receives a 2% royalty stream plus transfer fees, this would equate to a minimum of $11 million to the Company over the next twenty years.

In an earlier filing with the SEC, the Dissidents proposed Mr. W.E. Proffitt as a director. Management would likely have proposed Mr. Proffitt as a director nominee if Mr. Greene had not stood for re-election. Since Mr. Greene resigned and joined the Dissidents, the Board of Directors on August 12, 2002 elected Mr. Proffitt to fill out Mr. Greene's term on the Board.

The Dissidents' complain about a salary increase and a bonus to Mr. Foti. In the year 2000, the Company was hiring two additional officers. Mr. Foti, on his own initiative, agreed to a $30,000 per year salary reduction, in order to lessen the impact of the hiring of these new officers. Both of the officers have since left the Company and one has not been replaced. The Compensation Committee merely restored Mr. Foti's salary to its previous level and gave him the one time bonus to make up for his salary reduction. This was not an additional increase for Mr. Foti.

Management and the current Board believe that the Company's financial condition is good at this point. The Company has improved its ratio of current assets to current liabilities to .74 and has a debt to equity ratio of .37. The Company has reduced indebtedness by $1.16 million since December, 2000, thereby strengthening the balance sheet. We believe that franchise revenues are positioned for growth based on an increase in the number of franchises due to our image enhancement program, and increased fees to be paid by the new franchises. Additionally, operating expenses have been drastically reduced general and administrative expenses have been reduced from approximately $5,310,000 in the year 2000 to $2,650,000 in 2001.

Additionally, it is highly likely that the slate of Directors proposed by the Dissidents would not comply with the new Sarbanes-Oxley Act passed by Congress in response to accounting fraud. A financial expert is now required to sit on the Company's audit committee, and among other potential problems with the Dissidents' slate of directors, it does not appear that the Dissidents have proposed a director to serve on the Board who would qualify as a financial expert. Based upon a review of the qualifications of the nominees proposed by the Dissidents in their Consent Statement, and based upon what we know about their backgrounds, none appear to have the financial background or expertise necessary to meet the new statutory standards.

Edgar Filing: AUSTINS STEAKS & SALOON INC - Form PRER14A

Before you think about signing a Gold card to replace current management and the Board of Directors, please take into account that the Dissidents are critical of Company decisions in which at least one of them participated in virtually all such decisions as a Director of the Company. Further, the Dissidents have proposed no new plan to increase profitability or to increase the value of your shares.

DISSIDENTS' PROPOSALS

The Dissidents are soliciting your consent to the following three actions. WE BELIEVE THAT THE DISSIDENTS' PROPOSALS WILL DISADVANTAGE AUSTINS STOCKHOLDERS AND URGE YOU NOT TO SIGN AND TO DISCARD ANY GOLD CONSENT CARD SENT TO YOU BY THE DISSIDENTS.

- (1) Remove six (6) of the current nine (9) Austins Directors (all except Paul C. Schorr, III, Roger D. Sack, and William E. Proffitt) and remove any other Directors elected or appointed to the Austins Board before the effective time of this shareholder action.
- (2) Elect Titus W. Greene, Charles W. Mantooth, Thomas M. Hontzas, Charles H. Wright, Pat Vezertzis, and Jesse M. Harrington, III to replace the six (6) removed Directors and to serve as Directors of Austins until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified or their earlier resignation or removal.
- (3) Repeal any amendment to the Company's Bylaws adopted by the current Board between July 17, 2002 and the date on which this Stockholder action becomes effective.

Dissidents' Proposal No. 2 is conditioned upon the adoption of the Dissident Proposal No. 1. Dissidents' Proposal Nos. 1 and 2 are designed to enable the Dissidents to take control of your Company's Board of Directors. Dissidents' Proposal No. 3 is designed to nullify unspecified bylaws which may be adopted by your Board in its effort to act in and protect the interests of Austins' stockholders. As of the date of this Revocation of Consent Statement, Austins has not adopted or amended any bylaws subsequent to July 17, 2002.

Q: WHAT ARE WE ASKING YOU TO DO?

A: We are asking you to not sign any GOLD cosent card and to sign and return the BLUE Revocation of Consent Card.

Q: WHO CAN ACT ON THESE MATTERS?

A: If you owned shares of the Company on the Record Date, you have the right to give consent as to the proposals, even if you disposed of some or all of your shares after the Record Date.

Q: HOW MANY SHARES MUST BE VOTED IN FAVOR OF THE DISSIDENTS' PROPOSALS TO ADOPT THEM?

A: The Dissidents must receive proxies from a majority (i.e., more than 50%) of the issued and outstanding shares of Austins common stock as of the Record Date for any of their proposals to be adopted. As of the Consent Record Date, the Company had 12,178,800 shares of common stock outstanding. Therefore, the affirmative vote of at least 6,089,401 shares is necessary to adopt the Dissidents' Proposals. Abstentions, failures to vote and broker non-votes will have the same effect as a "no" vote. The Board of Directors of your Company beneficially own 2,472,419 shares, or 20.3%, of the Company's issued and outstanding shares and the individual Directors DO NOT intend to vote for any of the Dissidents' Proposals.

A: Revocation of Consents must be received by the Company not later than 5:00 p.m (EST) on November , 2002. WE URGE YOU TO ACT PROMPTLY. EVEN IF YOU HAVE NOT SIGNED AND RETURNED A GOLD CONSENT CARD WE URGE YOU TO SIGN AND RETURN A BLUE REVOCATION OF CONSENT CARD, WHICH WILL HAVE NO EFFECT BUT WILL ASSIST US IN MONITORING THE PROGRESS OF THE CONSENT SOLICITATION.

CERTAIN LITIGATION

The Company filed suit to enjoin the Dissidents from violating federal securities laws and interfering with contractual relationships. A temporary restraining order issued by the Court on August 12, 2002 was terminated on August 16, 2002. The Dissidents raised an issue with the court that the Company had been dissolved in Delaware for non-payment of its franchise taxes. This oversight, created by a former officer of the Company, was corrected and Austins is, again, in good standing in the State of Delaware effective August 20, 2002. The Company continues to pursue the litigation through discovery and depositions.
