Item 1. Description of Registrant's Securities to be Registered.

The authorized capital of the Registrant consists of an unlimited number of Common Shares without par value. As of December 12, 2006, the Registrant had 344,403,172 Common Shares issued and outstanding. Holders of Common Shares are entitled (i) to receive ratable dividends from funds legally available for distribution when and if declared by the Board of Directors; (ii) to share ratably in all of the Registrant's assets available for distribution upon liquidation or winding up of the Registrant; and (iii) to one vote for each share held of record on each matter submitted to a vote of shareholders. Each holder of Common Shares is entitled to receive notice of and to attend all meetings of shareholders of the Registrant. The Common Shares do not have cumulative voting, pre-emptive, purchase or conversion rights. There are no sinking fund provisions in relation to the Common Shares and they are not liable to further calls or to assessment by the Registrant. Provisions as to the modifications, amendments or variations of such rights or such provisions are contained in the Canadian Business Corporations Act.

There are no restrictions on the repurchase or redemption of the Common Shares by the Registrant provided that such purchase or redemption is either made through a stock exchange, from a bona fide employee of the Registrant or an affiliate or his personal representative, or is under an offer to purchase pro rata made to every holder or is required to be made pursuant to the Canadian Business Corporations Act upon exercise by the holder of certain dissent provisions or shareholders remedies set out therein, and provided further that the Registrant is not insolvent at the time of such repurchase or redemption nor would be made insolvent by such action.

The Registrant is limited in its ability to pay dividends on its Common Shares by limitations under the Canadian Business Corporations Act relating to the sufficiency of profits from which dividends may be paid.

Pursuant to applicable provisions of the Canadian Business Corporations Act, no right or special right attached to shares issued by the Registrant may be prejudiced, altered or otherwise interfered with unless the members of the class of shareholders affected consent to such action by a separate resolution of the members of the class adopted by at least a majority of 66-2/3% of the votes cast with respect to the resolution.
