Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On January 21, 2008, Lakeland Industries, Inc. (the “Company”) entered into an exclusive product distribution agreement (the “Product Distribution Agreement”) with Wesfarmers Industrial and Safety (“Wesfarmers”). Contemporaneously, with the execution of the Product Distribution Agreement, the Company and Wesfarmers agreed that the rights, duties and obligations of both parties thereunder would be subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions precedent and that, until such conditions precedent were deemed satisfied by both parties, neither party would have any rights, duties or obligations under the Product Distribution Agreement. On March 28, 2008, the Company and Wesfarmers mutually agreed that the conditions precedent to the effectiveness of the Product Distribution Agreement were satisfied and that both parties were thereafter obligated to commence performance under the Product Distribution Agreement.

Pursuant to the terms of the Product Distribution Agreement, the Company has granted two Wesfarmers subsidiaries – J. Blackwood & Son Limited (Blackwoods) and Protector Alsafe exclusive distribution rights for the Company’s disposable and protective clothing in Australia, New Zealand, New Guinea and South Africa. Lakeland believes that the sales generated from this distribution agreement will be significant and potentially material to its total international revenues and represents Lakeland’s latest successful initiative to expand its international sales.

The foregoing description of the Product Distribution Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Product Distribution Agreement, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K. The Company has submitted a request to the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) for confidential treatment of certain portions of the Product Distribution Agreement. Such confidential portions have been omitted from this filing.

The Product Distribution Agreement has been included to provide investors with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any factual information about the Company. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Product Distribution Agreement are made only for purposes of that agreement and as of the specific dates set forth therein, are solely for the benefit of the parties thereto, and may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties. The representations and warranties may have been made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Investors are not third-party beneficiaries of the Product Distribution Agreement, and should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or conditions of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of this agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the Company’s public disclosures.

Item Regulation FD Disclosure.
