FrontFour Capital Group LLC together with the other Participants named herein (collectively, “FrontFour”), is filing materials contained in this Schedule 14A with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) in connection with the solicitation of proxies for the election of its slate of director nominees at the 2014 annual meeting of shareholders (the “Annual Meeting”) of Sensient Technologies Corporation. FrontFour has not yet filed a proxy statement with the SEC with regard to the Annual Meeting.

Item 1: On March 4, 2014, the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel published the following article:

Sensient Technologies announces stock buyback, restructuring

By Rick Romell of the Journal Sentinel
March 4, 2014

The management at Sensient Technologies Corp. appeared to strike back Tuesday at a bid by a hedge fund to exercise a hand in the affairs of the publicly traded producer of food flavorings and colors, dehydrated vegetables and fragrances.

Just two weeks after FrontFour Capital Group, a Greenwich, Conn., hedge fund, opened fire on Sensient, the Milwaukee-based company said it will embark on a cost-cutting restructuring program and will buy back 4% of its stock.

FrontFour Tuesday dismissed Sensient’s announcement as a too-little response to issues the hedge fund has raised.

“Although the company’s announced cost savings plan represents a welcomed start, it only scratches the surface of the true savings rationalization and business optimization opportunity that exists,” FrontFour said in a statement.

The investment firm also noted that Sensient CEO Paul Manning recently said the company had no plans for restructuring in 2014. Manning made the remarks while talking to stock analysts on a conference call Feb. 10 — nine days before FrontFour released an open letter to shareholders calling for changes at Sensient.

FrontFour has said it will nominate four candidates for seats on Sensient’s nine-member board.

The hedge fund has called Sensient’s performance “lackluster” and sharply criticized the elevation of Manning to CEO last year. He succeeded his father, Kenneth, who held the position for 17 years. Kenneth Manning remains company chairman.

FrontFour also has called for Sensient to buy back $350 million of its stock — more than three times the amount the firm is proposing to acquire.

It would appear that FrontFour, by itself, lacks the leverage to force the changes it wants at Sensient. As of two weeks ago, the hedge fund owned just 1.5% of Sensient’s stock.

Seven other investment firms own at least twice that much, including one, Neuberger Berman Group LLC, that holds 10.2% of the shares; and another, BlackRock Inc., that holds 8.7%.

In a preliminary proxy statement filed Tuesday, Sensient urged shareholders to support the company-endorsed slate of directors at the annual meeting, scheduled for April 24 in Chicago.

Separately, Sensient said its new restructuring plan will save $20 million to $25 million a year. The plan, expected to be completed next year, will “eliminate underperforming operations, consolidate manufacturing facilities and improve efficiencies within the company,” Sensient said in a statement.

The firm said it expects to take $90 million in pretax charges — less than $25 million of it in cash — in connection with the restructuring.

The plan follows a 2013 restructuring that the company said is saving it $12million a year.

Sensient also declared a 25 cent-per-share quarterly dividend, up 9%. The company said its annual dividend payments now will have increased for nine straight years.

Sensient earned $113.3 million last year on $1.47 billion in sales. The firm said restructuring costs reduced earnings by $22.0 million.

In 2012, the firm earned $123.9 million on sales of $1.46 billion.

Investors embraced Tuesday’s developments. Sensient shares rose $2.24 — 4.3% — to close at $54.98.
