Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

As disclosed in prior filings, the Filers ("Lawndale") have expressed concerns to members of the board of Mace Security International ("Mace") and Mace's management regarding several corporate governance issues including, but not limited to, what Lawndale believes to be insufficient independent composition and structuring of Mace's board.

At Mace's Annual Meeting (the "Meeting"), held on December 8, 2006, Lawndale voted to "withhold" on the reelection of all of Mace's board members. Lawndale's rationale for such vote was set forth in a November 27, 2006, letter sent to the directors of Mace, a copy of which was attached as Exhibit B to Amendment No. 1 to Schedule 13D filed November 28, 2006. Lawndale also requested in the letter that Mace's board meet with Lawndale representatives to discuss and implement several steps to expeditiously improve the board's structure and functioning.

During and following the Meeting, on December 8, 2006, Andrew Shapiro, Lawndale's Managing Member and Portfolio Manager met with members of Mace's management and board and discussed recommendations that Lawndale believes will improve Mace's corporate governance and aid in maximizing value for all shareholders. On December 15, 2006, Lawndale sent the directors of Mace a letter (a copy of which is attached at Exhibit B hereto, and incorporated by reference to this filing) requesting that Mace:

- Add two additional qualified independent directors in the very near future with meaningful input from large shareholders, such as Lawndale; and
- Immediately formally appoint and empower a Lead Independent Director.

Lawndale has had discussions with several individuals that it believes are highly qualified, independent and willing to serve as directors of Mace. Lawndale believes these individuals could make a constructive contribution to Mace's board either as additional directors should the board decide to expand, or as replacements for existing board members should the need arise. Lawndale intends to submit the names and backgrounds of certain of these individuals to Mace for consideration by the board's Nominating Committee for timely addition to the board.

Lawndale believes that these steps are necessary to enhance Mace's long-term sustainable value. Lawndale has been and may continue to be in contact with Mace management, members of Mace's Board of Directors, other significant shareholders and others regarding additional alternatives that MACE could employ to maximize shareholder value.

Lawndale believes the public market value of MACE, currently trading below Mace's tangible book value, is undervalued by not adequately reflecting the value of MACE's personal defense, car/truck wash (and underlying real estate) and corporate security assets. Lawndale acquired the Stock solely for investment purposes, and Lawndale may from time to time buy or sell the Stock at its discretion.

Lawndale incorporates by reference its activities and discussions disclosed in its prior Schedules 13D to the extent not inconsistent with the discussion herein.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer

The beneficial ownership of the Stock by each Filer at the date hereof is reflected on that Filer's cover page.

The Filers effected the following transactions in the Stock in open market transactions on the dates indicated, and such transactions are the only transactions in the Stock by the Filers since November 27, 2006:

| Name | Purchase or Sale | Date | Number of Shares | Purchase Price |      |
|------|------------------|------|------------------|----------------|------|
|      | DAP              | P    | 12/4/2006        | 400            | 2.38 |

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangement, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer

Pursuant to such limited partnership agreements, the general partner of such clients is entitled to allocations based on assets under management and realized and unrealized gains.

EXHIBIT B

LETTER FROM LAWNDALE CAPITAL MANAGEMENT, LLC
TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF MACE

Andrew Shapiro

President

December 15, 2006

To the Board Members of Mace Security International:

Gentlemen,

It was a pleasure to share our views with you at the recent Annual Meeting of Mace Security International ("Mace" or the "Company"). We hope you found it insightful to hear comments from the many Mace shareholders who took the time to personally attend the meeting. More importantly, in light of the historically high number of "broker non-votes" cast at Mace's annual meetings (>55% of outstanding shares in each of 2005 and 2004), we hope you recognize the significance of over 3 million votes to "withhold" at this meeting.

I appreciate the opportunity you provided me to address the board regarding governance issues and your effort to better understand the nature and source of our concerns. However, the real test will be what meaningful actions you take in the near future. I am already encouraged by the timeliness with which the company has committed to begin quarterly conference calls and has made more readily available (via an 8-K filing) its business presentation from the Annual Meeting. Conference calls can provide a valuable forum for interaction with existing and potential Mace shareowners. Directors who regularly attend or review transcripts of these calls better satisfy their fiduciary duty to be informed and should improve their ability to exercise oversight and accountability over management. I hope you will avail yourselves of this valuable opportunity.

It should be noted that part of this meeting's substantial "withhold vote" was the result of analysis and voting recommendations made by two leading independent proxy advisory services, Institutional Shareholder Services ("ISS") and Glass Lewis, with which I have provided you. Glass Lewis's report cited "concerns about the objectivity and independence" of Mace's board and "its ability to perform its proper oversight role," highlighting that Mace lacks and needs at least 2/3rds of its board members to be independent and does not have either an Independent Chairperson or an Independent Lead Director. We have offered to work constructively with you to improve Mace's governance in these areas and request you take the following steps:

Increased Independence on the Board

Expand your board by adding two additional qualified Independent directors. This would not only help you address existing governance weaknesses, but would also lighten the load upon the three Independent directors who now serve on every key board committee. These prospective directors would be able to add fresh perspective, expertise, and allow your current independent directors the opportunity to become more expert on fewer committees. We believe that it is imperative you add the additional independent directors in the very near future with meaningful input from large shareholders, such as ourselves. We have already identified at least two individuals that we believe could make a constructive contribution to Mace's board. They have impressive backgrounds with substantial directorial, legal, M&A, real estate, and operational experience. In addition, most or all of them will qualify as "financial experts" providing substantial depth in a role public companies find so difficult to satisfy. In the near future, we will send the CV's of these individuals to Mace's Corporate Secretary for consideration by your Nominating Committee for timely addition to the board.

Lead Independent Director

I would hope and expect there already is an Independent director who informally serves in a lead director capacity, certainly when your board meets in executive session without management present, as all public boards must now regularly do. While we are not currently requesting that the Chairman title be moved from Mr. Paolino to another director, we think the board should immediately formally appoint and empower a Lead Independent Director and, that in the event Mr. Paolino ceases to be the Company's leader or other circumstances warrant earlier implementation, split the office of CEO and Chairman and require the Chairperson to be Independent.

Our goal is to enhance Mace's long-term sustainable shareholder value. Employing best practices in corporate governance is the essential foundation to achieve this goal. We hope the Mace Board will work with us to expeditiously improve the board's structure and functioning.

Thank you for your prompt consideration of the matters outlined in this communication. We look forward to working with you to improve shareowner value in Mace.

Sincerely,

Andrew Shapiro

President
