Item 1. Security and Issuer

This statement relates to shares of Common Stock (the "Stock") of Mace Security International, Inc. (the "Issuer"). The principal executive office of the Issuer is located at 240 Gibraltar Road, Suite 220, Horsham, Pennsylvania 19044.

Item 2. Identity and Background

The persons filing this statement and the persons enumerated in Instruction C of Schedule 13D and, where applicable, their respective places of organization, general partners, directors, executive officers and controlling persons, and the information regarding them, are as follows:

(a) Lawndale Capital Management, LLC ("Lawndale" or "LCM"); Andrew E. Shapiro ("Shapiro"); Diamond A Partners, L.P. ("DAP") (collectively, the "Filers").

DAP is filing this statement jointly with the other Filers, but not as a member of a group and expressly disclaims membership in a group. Lawndale and Shapiro disclaim beneficial ownership of the Stock except to the extent of their respective pecuniary interests therein.

(b) The business address of the Filers is 591 Redwood Highway, Suite 2345, Mill Valley, CA 94941.

(c) Present principal occupation or employment of the Filers and the name, principal business and address of any corporation or other organization in which such employment is conducted: LCM is the investment adviser to and the general partner of DAP, which is an investment limited partnership. Shapiro is the sole manager of LCM.

(d) During the last five years, none of the Filers has been convicted in a criminal proceeding (excluding traffic violations or similar misdemeanors).

(e) During the last five years, none of the Filers was a party to a civil proceeding of a judicial or administrative body of competent jurisdiction and as a result of such proceeding was or is subject to a judgment, decree or final order enjoining future violations of, or prohibiting or mandating activities subject to, federal or state securities laws or finding any violation with respect to such laws.

(f) Shapiro is a citizen of the United States of America.

C USIP No. 554335208

Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration

The source and amount of funds used in purchasing the Stock were as follows:

Purchaser	Source of Funds	Amount
LCM	Funds under Management ⁽¹⁾	$3,946,874.90
DAP	Working Capital	$3,421,602.78

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

As disclosed in its prior filings of Schedule 13D, the Filers ("Lawndale") launched a proxy contest in 2007, the settlement of which resulted in a substantial recomposition of the Board of Mace Security International ("Mace" or the "Company") and several corporate governance enhancements. Lawndale is pleased with the effect these changes have had on the corporate governance of Mace, in particular in the increased independence and qualifications of Mace's directors that contributed to the Board's 2008 decision to terminate Louis Paolino, Jr. as Mace's Chairman and CEO and pursue an operational turnaround.

On November 24, 2009, Lawndale sent Mace a letter (a copy of which is attached as Exhibit B hereto, and incorporated by reference in this filing) informing Mace's Board of Lawndale's intent to vote against the reelection of the one director remaining from the period when former Chairman and CEO, Louis Paolino, Jr., ran the Company. Lawndale believes that a board as small as Mace's cannot afford even a minority of influence from this past era.

Specifically, for reasons set forth in its November 24th letter, Lawndale will vote its proxies representing an aggregate of 1,638,382 shares, equal to 10.2% of eligible shares, "FOR ALL EXCEPT" for Mark Alsentzer on Proposal 1, Election of Directors at Mace's Annual Meeting on December 15, 2009.

Lawndale has been and may continue to be in contact with Mace management, members of Mace's Board of Directors, other significant shareholders and others regarding alternatives that MACE could employ to maximize shareholder value.

Lawndale believes the public market value of Mace, currently trading well below Mace's tangible book value, is undervalued by not adequately reflecting the value of Mace's brand, other assets and business divisions. Lawndale acquired the Stock solely for investment purposes, and Lawndale may from time to time buy or sell the Stock at its discretion.

Lawndale incorporates by reference its activities and discussions disclosed in its prior Schedules 13D to the extent not inconsistent with the discussion herein.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer

The beneficial ownership of the Stock by each Filer at the date hereof is reflected on that Filer's cover page.

The Filers have effected no transactions in the Stock in the past 60 days.

C USIP No. 554335208

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangement, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer

LCM is the general partner of its clients pursuant to limited partnership agreements providing to LCM the authority, among other things, to invest the funds of such clients in Stock, to vote and dispose of Stock and to file this statement on behalf of such clients. Pursuant to such limited partnership agreements, the general partner of such clients is entitled to allocations based on assets under management and realized and unrealized gains.

Item 7. Material to Be Filed as Exhibits

Exhibit A: Agreement Regarding Joint Filing of Statement on Schedule 13D or 13G.

Exhibit B: Letter dated November 24, 2009, from Lawndale Capital Management, LLC to the Board of Directors of Mace Security International, Inc.

SIGNATURES

After reasonable inquiry and to the best of my knowledge, I certify that the information set forth in this statement is true, complete and correct.

Lawndale to Vote Withhold on Mace Director Mark Alsentzer

To the Board Members of Mace Security International:

As you know, Lawndale Capital Management, LLC, through the funds it manages, is the largest shareowner of Mace Security International ("Mace" or the "Company"). Beginning in 2006, we publicly communicated serious concerns regarding several corporate governance issues. This included excessive and unreasonable compensation provided to Mace's then Chairman and CEO, Louis Paolino Jr. despite a litany of remarkable debacles that illustrated a lack of oversight by the Paolino Board ("legacy directors"). These legacy directors appeared to have further rubber-stamped several egregious compensation contracts and multiple overpriced acquisitions, including the misguided purchase of Mace's digital media business, Linkstar.

At the end of 2007, we led a proxy fight that facilitated the replacement of several of these legacy directors. Today, however, one last director from the Lou Paolino era, Mark Alsentzer, still remains on Mace's board. Mace is about to hold its next Annual Meeting on December 15th, 2009 where it will elect directors for the coming year. We note with dismay that Mr. Alsentzer is again on the slate of director nominees for reelection. This is despite over 32% of all shares (and likely a majority of shares when excluding broker non-votes) voting to "withhold" on Mr. Alsentzer at last year's Annual Meeting.

We note Mr. Alsentzer had extensive past dealings with Mr. Paolino, inside and out of Mace, and, in our opinion, as part of the legacy Paolino Board, blindly or complicity approved multiple excessive employment contracts, overpriced acquisitions and related party transactions. The large withhold vote last year should have clearly illustrated that Mr. Alsentzer's continued Board role with Mace hinders investor's need for Mace to move away from the Paolino past. We feel a board as small as Mace's cannot afford even a minority of influence from this past.

Therefore, after considerable thought and review, Lawndale will vote against reelecting Mr. Alsentzer as director by voting its 1,638,382 shares, equal to 10.2% of eligible shares, "FOR ALL EXCEPT" for Mark Alsentzer on Proposal 1, Election of Directors at Mace's Annual Meeting on December 15, 2009.

Thank you for your prompt consideration of the matters outlined in this communication. We look forward to working with you to improve shareowner value in Mace.

Sincerely,

Andrew Shapiro

President
