COMPANHIA BRASILEIRA DE DISTRIBUICAO (CBD)

PUBLIC ANNOUNCEMENT:

CADE MANIFESTS A POSITION CONTRARY TO THE REQUEST OF SUSPENSION OF THE ACQUISITION OF THE SUPERMARKET CHAIN
SE SUPERMERCADOS

Sao Paulo, August 21, 2002 - Companhia Brasileira de Distribuicao - CBD hereby informs the market that the Administrative Council for Economic Defense ("CADE"
- the Brazilian antitrust authority) manifested on 08/21/2002 a position
contrary to the request made by the Brazilian Secretariat of Economic Control ("SEAE") of a temporary suspension, in a precautionary basis, of the acquisition of the supermarket chain Se Supermercados by CBD.

On the same date, CADE and Companhia Brasileira de Distribuicao celebrated a Commitment of Preservation of the Reversibility of the transaction, which describes the following main conditions to be observed until the final decision of the process:

- 1) To not deactivate any of the acquired stores, except for three stores in the city of Bauru - SP and for one store located in the Shopping ABC (Santo Andre-SP);
- 2) To maintain the SE banner during the whole period of this agreement. The only exception will be made to the store located at Raposo Tavares (city of Sao Paulo), which will be under the Extra banner, during 2002;
- 3) To maintain the jobs according to an average index indicated by the Brazilian Supermarket Association - ABRAS in relation to the gross revenue per employee of the 10 largest supermarket companies in 2001;
- 4) In the consumer's benefit, CADE decided it was not necessary to avoid the adoption of uniform commercial policies, as it can be verified that CBD carried lower average prices than the ones carried by Se chain.

CBD understands that these are normal measures in processes of this nature and that they will not significantly affect the actions already planned for the stores acquired from the Se chain.

We reaffirm our high degree of confidence in a final favorable decision in this process, considering the lack of excessive concentration of market in any region in the state of Sao Paulo. It is important to note that the retail market in this state is strongly fragmented, implying significant and high competition, by companies with global presence or by national and local competitors of large and strong presence within the market.
