PROXY STATEMENT

This Proxy Statement is furnished holders of common stock of MidSouth Bancorp, Inc. ("MidSouth") in connection with the solicitation on behalf of its Board of Directors (the "Board") of proxies for use at MidSouth's annual shareholders meeting (the "Meeting") to be held on Tuesday, May 27, 2003, at the time and place shown in the accompanying notice and at any adjournments thereof. This Proxy Statement is first being mailed to shareholders about April 18, 2003.

Only holders of record of MidSouth common stock ("Common Stock") at the close of business on March 31, 2003, are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Meeting. On that date, MidSouth had outstanding 2,901,142 shares of Common Stock.

The presence, in person or by proxy, of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock entitled to vote is necessary to constitute a quorum. If a quorum is present, directors are elected by plurality vote; with respect to any other proposal that may properly come before the Meeting, if the Board has recommended it by the affirmative vote of the majority of the Continuing Directors, as defined in MidSouth's Articles of Incorporation ("Articles"), then, generally, the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast is required to approve it, but if it is not so recommended, then the affirmative vote of 80% of the Total Voting Power, as defined in the Articles, is required to approve it. MidSouth's By-laws provide that the Continuing Directors will appoint the Judge(s) of Election and that all questions as to the qualification of voters, validity of proxies and the acceptance or rejection of votes will be decided by the Judge(s).

Abstentions or broker non-votes will have no effect on the election of directors. With respect to any other proposal, abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted as votes not cast and will have no effect on any proposal requiring a majority of votes cast to approve it and will have the effect of a vote against any proposal requiring an affirmative vote of a percentage of the Total Voting Power.

All proxies received in the form enclosed will be voted as specified and, in the absence of instructions to the contrary, will be voted for the election of the persons named herein. MidSouth does not know of any matters to be presented at the Meeting other than those described herein; however, if any other matters properly come before the Meeting or any adjournments thereof, it is the intention of the persons named in the enclosed proxy to vote the shares represented by them in accordance with their best judgment.

The enclosed proxy may be revoked by the shareholder at any time prior to its exercise by filing with MidSouth's Secretary a written revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date. A shareholder who votes in person in a manner inconsistent with a proxy previously filed on his or her behalf will be deemed to have revoked the proxy as to the matters voted upon in person.

The cost of soliciting proxies in the enclosed form will be borne by MidSouth. In addition to the use of the mails, proxies may be solicited by personal interview, telephone, telegraph, facsimile and e-mail. Banks, brokerage houses and other nominees or fiduciaries may be requested to forward the soliciting material to their principals and to obtain authorization for the execution of proxies, and MidSouth will, upon request, reimburse them for their expenses in so acting.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Articles provide for three classes of directors, with one class to be elected at each annual meeting for a three-year term. At the Meeting, Class I Directors will be elected to serve until the third succeeding annual meeting and until their successors have been duly elected and qualified.

Unless authority is withheld, the persons named in the enclosed proxy will vote the shares represented by the proxies received by them for the election of the three Class I director nominees named below. In the unanticipated event that one or more nominees cannot be a candidate at the Meeting, the shares represented will be voted in favor of such other nominees as may be designated by the Board. Directors will be elected by plurality vote.

Other than the Board, only shareholders entitled to vote for the election of directors who have complied with the procedures of Article IV(H) of MidSouth's Articles may nominate a person for election. To do so, the shareholder must have given written notice to MidSouth by December 8, 2002, of the following: (1) as to each person whom he or she proposes to nominate, (a) his or her name, age, business address, residential address, principal occupation or employment, and the class and number of shares of MidSouth's stock of which he or she is the beneficial owner and (b) any other information relating to such person that would be required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for the election of directors by Regulation 14A under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; and (2) as to the shareholder giving the notice, (a) his or her name and address and the class and number of shares of stock of MidSouth of which he or she is the beneficial owner and (b) a description of any agreements, arrangements or relationships between the shareholder and each person he or she proposes to nominate. Two inspectors, not affiliated with MidSouth, appointed by MidSouth's Secretary, will determine whether the notice provisions were met; if they determine that the shareholder has not complied with Article IV(H), the defective nomination will be disregarded.
