Ultrapar is awarded for its corporate governance by IBGC

São Paulo, Brazil, November 21st, 2012 – Ultrapar Participações S.A. (BM&FBOVESPA:UGPA3 / NYSE:UGP) has the honor to announce that it received the IBGC Corporate Governance Award – Category Evolution for Publicly Listed Companies 2012 (“Prêmio IBGC de Governança Corporativa - Categoria Evolução Empresas Listadas de 2012”), granted by the Brazilian Institute of Corporate Governance (IBGC). IBGC assessed the evolution of listed and non-listed companies’ corporate governance for a 3-year period, and Ultrapar was elected the company with the best evolution in corporate governance in the period.

Ultrapar continuously evaluates its corporate governance in light of its stage and structure, as well as its suitability for the next strategic steps. In this context, Ultrapar was the first Brazilian company to grant 100% tag-along rights to all shareholders and to go public simultaneously at the BM&FBOVESPA and the NYSE. Additionally, it was a pioneer in Brazil in implementing incentive schemes to align interests between management and shareholders. As part of this continuous evolution, in 2011 Ultrapar understood it was the proper moment for a new step and implemented its new corporate governance structure, which included (i) the conversion of each preferred share into one common share, (ii) new bylaws and (iii) the migration to Novo Mercado, including statutory provisions that exceed the requirements of this segment.

The award received attests the constant development of Ultrapar’s corporate governance structure, aimed at enduring the company and its growth and at value creation.
