PFIZER RECONFIRMS PREVIOUS EARNINGS EXPECTATIONS IN CONJUNCTION WITH BEAR STEARNS HEALTHCARE CONFERENCE AND BANC OF AMERICA INVESTMENT CONFERENCE

NEW YORK, Sept. 17 Pfizer Inc Chairman and Chief Executive Officer Hank McKinnell will present Tuesday, September 17, at the Bear Stearns Healthcare Conference in New York, and Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer David L. Shedlarz will present on Monday, September 23, at the Banc of America 32nd Annual Investment Conference in San Francisco.

In conjunction with those presentations, and in keeping with the requirements of SEC Regulation FD, Pfizer today reconfirmed its expectations of the Company's earnings for 2002 as discussed in its second quarter earnings release on July 15, 2002. In that release, Mr. Shedlarz said: "We have refined our full-year 2002 EPS target and now expect diluted EPS from continuing operations, excluding the cumulative effect of a change in accounting principle, certain significant items, and merger-related costs, of $1.58 (21 percent growth). Moreover, we anticipate double-digit full-year 2002 revenue growth at current exchange rates, margin improvements, and continuing investments in product support and in R&D."

Also reconfirmed today by the Company were the longer-term expectations outlined in its Pharmacia acquisition announcement of July 15, 2002, i.e.: "From 2002 to 2004 on a stand-alone basis, Pfizer expects compounded annual revenue growth of 11%, growth in net income of 14%, and growth in diluted EPS of 16%," excluding the cumulative effect of the change in accounting principle, certain significant items and merger-related costs. Dr. McKinnell and Mr. Shedlarz are expected to discuss the Company's performance and prospects, as well as the proposed acquisition of Pharmacia.

Pfizer Inc discovers, develops, manufactures and markets leading prescription medicines, for humans and animals, and many of the world's best-known consumer products.

DISCLOSURE NOTICE: The information contained in this document is as of September 17, 2002. The Company assumes no obligation to update any forward-looking statements contained in this document as a result of new information or future events or developments.

This document and the attachments contain forward-looking information about the Company's financial results and estimates, business prospects and products in research that involve substantial risks and uncertainties. You can identify these statements by the fact that they use words such as anticipate, estimate, expect, project, intend, plan, believe, and other words and terms of similar meaning in connection with any discussion of future operating or financial performance. Among the factors that could cause actual results to differ materially are the following: the success of research and development activities and the speed with which regulatory authorizations and product launches may be achieved; competitive developments affecting our current growth products; the ability to successfully market both new and existing products domestically and internationally; difficulties or delays in manufacturing; trade buying patterns; ability to meet generic and branded competition after the expiration of the Company's patents; trends toward managed care and health care cost containment; possible U.S. legislation affecting pharmaceutical pricing and reimbursement or Medicare; exposure to product liability and other types of lawsuits; contingencies related to actual or alleged environmental contamination; the Company's ability to protect its intellectual property both domestically and internationally; interest rate and foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations; governmental laws and regulations affecting domestic and foreign operations, including tax obligations; changes in generally accepted accounting principles; any changes in business, political and economic conditions due to the threat of future terrorist activity in the U. S. and other parts of the world, and related U. S. military action overseas; growth in costs and expenses; changes in our product mix; and the impact of acquisitions, divestitures, restructurings, product withdrawals and other unusual items, including our ability to obtain the anticipated results and synergies from our announced proposed acquisition of Pharmacia and the increased uncertainty created by the integration of the two businesses, as well as the timing and success of the announced exploration of strategic options of the Adams, Schick-Wilkinson Sword, and Tetra businesses. A further list and description of these risks, uncertainties and other matters can be found in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001, and in its periodic reports on Forms 10-Q and 8-K (if any).
