Part I

Item 1. Business

We are one of the nation's leading diversified health care benefits companies, serving approximately 35.9 million people with information and resources to help them make better informed decisions about their health care. We offer a broad range of traditional and consumer-directed health insurance products and related services, including medical, pharmacy, dental, behavioral health, group life, long-term care and disability plans and medical management capabilities. Our customers include employer groups, individuals, college students, part-time and hourly workers, health plans and government-sponsored plans.

We are dedicated to helping people achieve health and financial security by providing easy access to safe, cost-effective, quality health care and protecting their finances against health-related risks. We seek to achieve superior customer satisfaction through innovative products, comprehensive health and related benefits choices, effective service and easy-to-understand information.

The health insurance and related benefits industry continues to experience significant change. Employers, consumers and the government have increased their focus on health care costs, which continue to drive changes in the structure of health insurance and related benefits products and services. Product features continue to evolve that are directed at containing rising health care costs, enhancing access to quality health care services and, for employer-based health coverage, requiring covered employee members to assume a greater portion of the cost of care. These economic factors and greater consumer awareness are also leading to increased popularity of products that offer flexibility in design features such as deductibles and co-payments, more consumer choice of health care providers and quality-based physician networks. The industry is also subject to other forces including federal and state legislative and regulatory reforms, advances in pharmaceutical and medical technology, the increasing convergence of health and wealth considerations, and industry consolidation that can affect the competitiveness of product and service offerings, the range of industry competitors and the bases of competition.

We believe that these factors will continue to exist for some time and will drive a continuing evolution in the health related benefits industry. We place significant emphasis on maintaining and developing our product and service offerings to serve existing and new customer markets and have done so through organic growth and acquisitions. In recent periods this focus has led to the introduction of new products, such as our recently introduced Personal Health Record (which provides members with online access to personal information to help them make informed decisions about their health care), Aetna Health Connections, Health Savings Account (HSA) and Aetna HealthFund[®] plans (consumer directed plans that combine traditional health plan and/or dental coverage, subject to a deductible, with an accumulating benefit account) and Medicare Part D prescription drug plans. We continue to develop and enhance our existing products, such as our AexcelSM physician networks, which are comprised of specialists who have demonstrated effectiveness in the delivery of care based on a balance of measures of clinical performance and efficiency. We are also expanding our transparency initiative to include internet-based access to physician-specific cost, clinical quality and efficiency information in select markets.

Over the past two years, we have continued to invest in the development of our business by acquiring companies that support our strategy as well as continuing the introduction or enhancement of new products and services. In 2006, we acquired a disability and leave management business for approximately $161 million. In 2005, we completed five acquisitions for approximately $1.2 billion, expanding our Health Care product offerings to include group limited benefit plans, as well as other specialty product offerings including specialty pharmacy services, medical management and data analytics services, behavioral health plans, and products that provide access to our provider network in select markets. We funded our acquisitions in 2006 and 2005 with available cash.

During 2006, our emphasis on introducing, developing and enhancing new products and services through organic growth and acquisitions led to the expansion and diversification of both the geographic reach of our operations as well as the customer markets we serve. Our significant expansions and diversifications during 2006 included:

expanding our small group product offering into four new states;

expanding our Individual market to a total of 17 states;

expanded our capabilities to serve the labor market; and,

successful implementation of our Medicaid offering into two new geographies in Texas.

As we enhance our product capabilities and geographic presence, we continually evaluate acquisitions and other transactions that present strategic growth opportunities.

Our operations include three business segments: Health Care, Group Insurance and Large Case Pensions.

We derive our revenues primarily from premiums earned on risk-based products (i.e., arrangements under which we assume all or a majority of the financial risk for health care costs or other risks covered by the plan, hereinafter referred to as "Risk"), fees (comprised of administrative services contract ("ASC") and other fees), investments and other revenue. Refer to Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations ("MD&A") which begins on page 2 and Note 19 which begins on page 82 of Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements of the Annual Report, each of which is incorporated herein by reference, regarding revenue and profit information for each of our business segments. The following is a description of each of our business segments.

Health Care

Products and Services

Health Care products consist of medical, pharmacy benefits management, dental and vision plans offered on both a Risk basis and an employer-funded basis (i.e., arrangements under which the employer or other plan sponsor under an ASC assumes all or a majority of the financial risk for health care costs or other risks covered by the plan). Medical products include point of service ("POS"), health maintenance organization ("HMO"), preferred provider organization ("PPO") and indemnity benefit ("Indemnity") plans. Medical products also include HSAs and Aetna HealthFund consumer-directed plans that combine traditional POS or PPO and/or dental coverage, subject to a deductible, with an accumulating benefit account (which may be funded by the plan sponsor and/or the member in the case of HSAs). We also offer specialty products, such as medical management and data analytics services, behavioral health plans and stop loss insurance, as well as products that provide access to our provider networks in select markets.

Our principal products and services are targeted specifically to small, mid-sized and large multi-site national employers. We also serve individuals and, in certain markets, Medicare and Medicaid beneficiaries. Medicare and Medicaid products and services are categorized separately from our other products and services, which we refer to as Commercial.

The primary Commercial products we offer are HMO, PPO, POS and Indemnity plans. We also offer other products and services. Our other Commercial products and services include:

ActiveHealth Management

Through the use of our patented Care Engine® system, our ActiveHealth Management business provides evidence-based medical management and data analytics products and services to a broad range of customers, including health plans, employers and others.

Personal Health Record

We recently introduced our Personal Health Record which provides members with online access to personal information, including individual personalized messages and alerts, detailed health history based on available claims data and voluntarily submitted information, integrated information and resources to help members make informed decisions about their health care.

Network Access

We also maintain a regional health care network with operations in Michigan, Colorado and other states. We provide access to this network to a broad range of customers, including other health plans and employers, for a fee.

Stop Loss

In connection with the administration of ASC plans, we offer stop loss coverage for certain employers. Under this product, we assume the costs associated with large individual claims and/or aggregate loss experience within the ASC plan above a pre-set annual threshold.

Pharmacy

We offer pharmacy benefit management, mail order and specialty pharmacy services to our members. Our pharmacy services are delivered by Aetna Specialty Pharmacy (ASP) and Aetna Rx Home Delivery. ASP compounds and dispenses specialty medications and offers disease management programs associated with certain specialty medications. Specialty medications are generally injectable or infused medications that may not be readily available at the local pharmacy. Aetna Rx Home Delivery® compliments ASP by offering a mail order prescription drug service. Our pharmacy operations are primarily in Missouri and Florida.

Behavioral Health

In 2006, we launched a full-service behavioral health benefits product. Our behavioral health product provides members with a variety of integrated services designed to assist them in effective problem resolution.

Other Commercial Products

We offer a variety of other health care coverage products either as supplements to health products or as stand-alone products. Such products, which may be offered on a Risk or an ASC basis, include Indemnity and managed dental plans and vision programs. We are one of the nation's largest providers of dental coverage, based on membership at December 31, 2006.

Vital Savings

The Vital Savings by AetnaSM discount program provides members access to networks of independent dental, pharmacy, long-term care and vision participating providers who offer services at a discounted fee. Vital Savings by AetnaSM is not an insurance product.

In addition to Commercial health products, in select markets we also offer HMO, PPO-based and prescription drug coverage for Medicare beneficiaries and participate in Medicaid and subsidized Children's Health Insurance Programs (CHIP). CHIP are state-subsidized insurance programs that provide benefits for families with uninsured children. Our Medicare and Medicaid products include:

Medicare

Through annual contracts with the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS), we offer HMO and PPO plans for Medicare-eligible individuals in certain geographic areas through the Medicare Advantage (formerly Medicare+Choice) program. Members typically receive enhanced benefits over standard Medicare fee-for-service coverage, including reduced cost-sharing for preventive care, vision and other non-Medicare services. As a result of the changes in Medicare resulting from the Medicare Prescription Drug Improvement and Modernization Act of 2003, we expanded our Medicare Advantage program in select markets in 2006 and now offer these plans in 161 counties in 13 states and Washington D.C.

We were selected by CMS to be a national provider of the Medicare Part D Prescription Drug Program (PDP) in all 50 states to both individuals and employer groups beginning in 2006 and again in 2007. All Medicare eligible individuals are eligible to participate in this voluntary prescription drug plan. Members typically receive coverage for certain prescription drugs, usually subject to a deductible, co-insurance and/or co-payment.

Beginning in 2007, we will offer private fee-for-service Medicare plans (PFFS) in select markets for individuals and nationally for employer groups. PFFS compliments our PDP product, forming an integrated national fully insured product.

Medicaid and CHIP

We participate on a Risk basis in a CHIP contract in Pennsylvania and in a Medicaid and CHIP contract in Texas, and provide administrative services in connection with a hospital-based Medicaid and CHIP contract in Texas.

Provider Networks

We contract with physicians, hospitals and other health care providers for services provided to our health plan members and the members of our customers. The participating providers in our networks are independent contractors and are neither our employees nor our agents, except for providers who work in our mail-order and specialty pharmacy facilities.

We use a variety of techniques designed to help encourage appropriate utilization of medical resources and maintain affordability of quality coverage. In addition to contracts with health care providers for negotiated rates of reimbursement, these techniques include the development and implementation of guidelines for the appropriate utilization of health care resources and providing health care providers with data in order to help them improve consistency and quality. We also offer, directly or in cooperation with third parties, a variety of disease management programs related to specific conditions including asthma, diabetes, congestive heart failure and lower back pain. At December 31, 2006, we had extensive nationwide provider networks of more than 774,000 participating health care providers, including over 455,600 primary care and specialist physicians and over 4,400 hospitals.

PCPs

We compensate primary care physicians (PCPs) on both a fee-for-service and capitated basis, with capitation generally limited to HMO products in certain geographic areas. In a fee-for-service arrangement, network physicians are paid for health care services provided to the member based upon a fee schedule. Under a capitation arrangement, physicians receive a monthly fixed fee for each member, regardless of the medical services provided to the member. During 2006 and 2005, we eliminated or reduced the use of capitation arrangements in many areas. The percentage of health care costs related to capitation arrangements was 5.9% for the year ended December 31, 2006 compared to 7.9% and 9.1% for the years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004, respectively.

Specialist Physicians

Specialist physicians participating in our networks are generally reimbursed at contracted rates per visit or per procedure.

Hospitals

We typically enter into contracts with hospitals that provide for per day and/or per case rates, often with fixed rates for ambulatory, surgery and emergency room services. We also have hospital contracts that provide for reimbursement based on a percentage of the charges billed by the hospital.

Our medical plans generally require notification of elective hospital admissions, and we monitor the length of hospital stays. Physicians who participate in our networks generally admit their HMO and POS patients to participating hospitals using referral procedures that direct the hospital to contact our patient management unit, which confirms the patient's membership status while obtaining pertinent data. This unit also assists members and providers with related activities, including the subsequent transition to the home environment and home care, if necessary. Case management assistance for complex or catastrophic cases is provided by a special case unit.

Other Providers

Our plans generally use fee-for-service payment arrangements for laboratory, imaging, urgent care and other freestanding health facility providers.

Quality Assessment

We seek accreditation for most of our HMO plans from the National Committee for Quality Assurance (NCQA), a national organization established to review the quality and medical management systems of health care plans. NCQA accreditation is a nationally recognized standard. As of December 31, 2006, approximately 99% of our HMO members participated in HMOs that had received accreditation by the NCQA.

We also seek accreditation and certification for our PPO-based and other products from NCQA and URAC, a national organization founded to establish standards for the health care industry. Purchasers and consumers look to URAC's and NCQA's accreditation and certification as an indication that a health care organization has the necessary structures and processes to promote high quality care and preserve patient rights. In addition, regulators in over half of the states recognize URAC's and NCQA's accreditation and certification standards in the regulatory process. Aetna Life Insurance Company (ALIC), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Aetna that offers our PPO-based products, has received URAC Core and Credentials Verification Organization accreditation extending through October 1, 2007. ALIC has received NCQA Utilization Management Certification through March 7, 2008 and NCQA Credentials Verification Organization Certification through January 29, 2009.

Our quality assessment programs for contracted providers who participate in our networks begin with the initial review of health care practitioners. Practitioners' licenses and education are verified, and their work history is collected by us or in some cases by the practitioner's affiliated group or organization. Our credentialing and recredentialing practices are in accordance with applicable URAC and NCQA requirements and state and federal regulations. Participating hospitals generally are required to be certified by CMS or accredited by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Health Care Organizations or the American Osteopathic Association.

We also offer quality and outcome measurement programs, quality improvement programs and health care data analysis systems to providers and purchasers of health care services.

Principal Markets and Sales

Our medical membership is dispersed throughout the United States. We offer a broad range of traditional and consumer-directed health insurance products and related services, many of which are available in all 50 states.

Depending on the product, we market to a range of customers including employer groups (small, mid-sized and large multi-site national accounts), individuals, college students, part-time and hourly workers, health plans and government-sponsored plans.

The following table presents total medical membership by geographic region and funding arrangement at December 31, 2006, 2005 and 2004:

Additional information on Health Care's membership is included in the Membership section of the MD&A, beginning on page 9 of the Annual Report, which is incorporated herein by reference.

Both Risk and ASC products and services are marketed primarily to employers that sponsor our products (or plan sponsors) for the benefit of employees and their dependents. Frequently, employers offer employees a choice among coverage options, from which the employee makes his or her selection during a designated annual open enrollment period. Typically, employers pay all of the monthly premiums to us and, through payroll deductions, obtain reimbursement from employees for a percentage, as determined by the employer, of the monthly premium. Some Health Care products are sold on a fully employee-paid basis, and some billing is done on an individual basis. Within Risk products, Medicare coverage is sold on an individual basis as well as through employer groups to their retirees. Medicaid and CHIP arrangements are marketed on an individual basis. We also sell Risk plans directly to individual consumers in a number of states.

Health Care products are sold through our sales personnel, as well as independent brokers, agents and consultants who assist in the production and servicing of business. For large plan sponsors, independent consultants and brokers are frequently involved in employer health plan selection decisions and sales. We pay brokers, consultants and sales representatives who place business with us commissions, fees and other amounts. Marketing and sales efforts are promoted by an advertising program that includes television, radio, billboards and print media, supported by market research and direct marketing efforts.

Pricing

For Commercial Risk plans, employer group contracts are generally established in advance of the policy period, typically for a duration of one year. We use prospective rating methodologies in determining the premium rates charged to the majority of employer groups, and we also use retrospective rating methodologies for some groups. Premium rates for customers with more than 125 employees generally give consideration to the individual plan sponsor's historical and anticipated claim experience. Some states may prohibit the use of one or more of these rating methods for some customers, such as small employer groups, or all customers.

Under prospective rating, a fixed premium rate is determined at the beginning of the policy period. We cannot recover unanticipated increases in medical costs in the current policy year; however, we may consider prior experience for a product in the aggregate or for a specific customer, among other factors, in determining premium rates for future policy periods. Where required by state laws, premium rates are filed and approved prior to contract inception. Our future results could be adversely affected if the premium rates we request are not approved or are adjusted downward by state regulators.

Under retrospective rating, we determine a premium rate at the beginning of the policy period. After the policy period has ended, the actual experience is reviewed. If the experience is favorable (i.e., actual claim costs and other expenses are less than expected) we may issue a refund to the plan sponsor. If the experience is unfavorable, we may, in certain instances, recover the resulting deficit through contractual provisions or consider the deficit in setting future premium levels. We cannot recover the deficit if a plan sponsor elects to terminate coverage. Retrospective rating may be used for commercial plans that cover more than 300 lives.

We have Medicare Advantage and PDP contracts with CMS to provide HMO, PPO, PFFS and prescription drug coverage to Medicare beneficiaries in certain geographic areas. Under these annual contracts, CMS pays us a fixed capitation payment and/or a portion of the premium, both of which are based on membership and adjusted for demographic and health risk factors. CMS also considers inflation, changes in utilization patterns and average per capita fee-for-service Medicare costs in the calculation of the fixed capitation payment or premium. Our PDP contracts also provide a risk sharing arrangement with CMS to limit our exposure to unexpected expenses. Amounts payable under the Medicare arrangements are subject to annual revision by CMS, and we elect to participate in each Medicare service area or region on an annual basis. In addition to payments received from CMS, most of our Medicare Advantage products and all of our PDP products require a supplemental premium to be paid by the member or sponsoring employer and in some cases are adjusted based on the member's income and asset levels. Compared to commercial business, Medicare contracts generate higher per member per month revenues and medical expenses. We also have HMO and consumer-directed contracts to serve a variety of federal government employee groups under the Federal Employees Health Benefit Program. Premium rates are subject to federal government review and audit, which can result in retroactive and prospective premium adjustments.

Contracts with plan sponsors to provide administrative services for employer-funded plans are generally for a period of one year. Some of our contracts include guarantees with respect to certain functions such as customer service response time, claim processing accuracy and claim processing turnaround time, as well as certain guarantees that claim expenses to be incurred by plan sponsors will fall within a specified range. With any of these guarantees, we are financially at risk if the conditions of the arrangements are not met, although the maximum at risk is typically 10% to 30% of fees for the customer involved.

Competition

The health care industry is highly competitive, primarily due to a large number of competitors, competitor marketing and pricing, and a proliferation of competing products, including new products that are continually being introduced into the market. New entrants into the marketplace as well as significant consolidation within the industry have contributed to the competitive environment.

We believe that the significant factors that distinguish competing health plans are perceived overall quality (including accreditation status), quality of service, comprehensiveness of coverage, cost (including both premium and member out-of-pocket costs), product design, financial stability, the geographic scope of provider networks, the providers available in such networks, and the quality of member support and care management programs. We believe that we are competitive on each of these factors. Our ability to increase the number of persons covered by our plans or to increase revenues is affected by our ability to differentiate ourselves from our competitors on these factors. In addition, our ability to increase the number of persons enrolled in our Risk products is affected by the desire and ability of employers to self fund their health coverage. Competition may also affect the availability of services from health care providers, including primary care physicians, specialists and hospitals.

Within Risk products, we compete with local and regional managed care plans, in addition to managed care and other plans sponsored by other large commercial health benefit insurance companies and Blue Cross/Blue Shield plans. Additional competitors include other types of medical and dental provider organizations, various specialty service providers, integrated health care delivery organizations, and, in certain plans, programs sponsored by the federal or state governments.

With regard to ASC plans, we compete primarily with other large commercial health benefit companies, Blue Cross/Blue Shield plans and third party administrators.

Factors Affecting Forward-Looking Information

Information regarding certain important factors that may materially affect Health Care's business is included in the Outlook for 2007 and Forward-Looking Information/Risk Factors sections of the MD&A, beginning on page 3 and 34 of the Annual Report, respectively, which are incorporated herein by reference.

Group Insurance

Principal Products

Group Insurance products consist primarily of the following:

Life Insurance Products consist principally of renewable term life insurance coverage, the amounts of which may be fixed or linked to individual employee wage levels. Basic, supplemental or voluntary, spouse and dependent term life coverage, and group universal life and accidental death and dismemberment coverage are also available. Life products are offered on a Risk basis.

Disability Insurance Products provide employee income replacement benefits for both short-term and long-term disability. We also offer disability products with additional case management features. Similar to Health Care products, disability benefits are offered on both a Risk and employer-funded basis. Additionally, as a result of the Broadspire Disability acquisition on March 31, 2006, we provide absence management services, including short-term and long-term disability administration and leave management, to employers.

Long-Term Care Insurance Products provide benefits to cover the cost of care in private home settings, adult day care, assisted living or nursing facilities. Long-term care benefits are offered primarily on a Risk basis. The product is available on both a service reimbursement and disability basis. In 2006, we announced our intention to exit the long-term care insurance market and no longer solicit or accept new long-term care customers. Over the next two to three years, we expect to work with our customers on an orderly transition of this product to other carriers.

Group Insurance members may utilize more than one of our products, and multi-product cases have been counted in membership totals for each applicable product.

Principal Markets and Sales

Products offered by Group Insurance are available in 49 states (Group Insurance products are not offered in New Mexico) as well as the District of Columbia, Guam, Puerto Rico, the United States Virgin Islands and Canada. Depending on the product, we market to a range of customers from small employer groups to large, multi-site and/or multi-state employer programs.

Group Insurance products and services are marketed primarily to employers for the benefit of employees and their dependents. Frequently, employers offer employees a choice of benefits, from which the employee makes his or her selection during a designated annual open enrollment period. Typically, employers pay all of the monthly premiums to us and, through payroll deductions, obtain reimbursement from employees for a percentage, as determined by the employer, of the monthly premium. Some Group Insurance products are sold directly to employees of employer groups where the premiums are not subsidized by the employer group. In some cases, we bill the covered individual directly.

Group Insurance products are sold through our sales personnel, as well as independent brokers and consultants who assist in the production and servicing of business. Sales representatives also sell to employers on a direct basis. For large plan sponsors, independent consultants and brokers are frequently involved in employer plan selection decisions and sales. We pay brokers, consultants and sales representatives who place business with us commissions, fees and other amounts. Marketing and sales efforts are promoted by an advertising program that may include television, radio, billboards and print media, supported by market research and direct marketing efforts.

Pricing

For Risk Group Insurance plans, employer group contracts are generally established in advance of the policy period. We use prospective and retrospective rating methodologies to determine the premium rates charged to employer groups.

Under prospective rating, a fixed premium rate is determined at the beginning of the policy period. We cannot recover unanticipated increases in mortality or morbidity costs in the current policy period; however, we consider prior experience for the specific customer and/or the product in aggregate, among other factors, in determining premium rates for future policy periods.

Under retrospective rating, we determine a premium rate at the beginning of the policy period. After the policy period has ended, the actual experience is reviewed. If the experience is favorable (i.e., actual claim costs and other expenses are less than expected) we may issue a refund to the plan sponsor. If the experience is unfavorable, we consider the resulting deficit in setting future premium levels, and in certain circumstances, we may recover the deficit through contractual provisions such as offsets against refund credits that develop for future policy periods. However, we may not recover the deficit if a plan sponsor elects to terminate coverage. Retrospective rating is most often used for insured employer funded plans that cover more than 3,000 lives and pay more than $500,000 in annual premiums.

Competition

For the Group Insurance industry, we believe that the most significant factors which distinguish competing companies are price, quality of service, comprehensiveness of coverage, and product array and design. Specialty carriers have increased market penetration in the life and disability business. The group life market remains highly competitive.

Reinsurance

We currently have several reinsurance agreements with nonaffiliated insurers that relate to both group life and long-term disability products, although these agreements do not reduce our exposure to life insurance claims resulting from terrorist attacks or other extreme events. Most reinsurance arrangements are quota share treaties (where a percentage of the insured claims are subject to reinsurance) on large in force customers and are established on a case by case basis, but current agreements also cover closed blocks of business and cancelled cases. We frequently evaluate reinsurance opportunities and refine our reinsurance and risk management strategies on a regular basis.

Group Life Insurance In Force and Other Statistical Data

The following table summarizes changes in group life insurance in force before deductions for reinsurance ceded to other companies for the years indicated:

Large Case Pensions

Principal Products

Large Case Pensions manages a variety of retirement products (including pension and annuity products) primarily for tax qualified pension plans. Contracts provide non-guaranteed, experience-rated and guaranteed investment options through general and separate account products. Large Case Pensions' products that use separate accounts provide contract holders with a vehicle for investments under which the contract holders assume the investment risk. Large Case Pensions earns a management fee on these separate accounts.

In 1993, we discontinued our fully guaranteed Large Case Pensions products. Information regarding these products is incorporated herein by reference to Note 20 of Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements on page 84 in the Annual Report. Additionally, we do not actively market our other Large Case Pensions products, but continue to manage the run-off of existing business.

Miscellaneous

We had approximately 30,000 employees at December 31, 2006.

The federal government is a significant customer of both the Health Care segment and the Company. Premiums and fees and other revenue paid by the federal government accounted for approximately 13% of the Health Care segment's revenue and 12% of our total consolidated revenue in 2006. Contracts with CMS for coverage of Medicare-eligible individuals accounted for 63% of our federal government premiums and fees and other revenue, with the balance coming from federal employee related benefit programs. No other individual customer, in any of our segments, accounted for 10% or more of our consolidated revenues in 2006. Our segments are not dependent upon a single customer or a few customers, the loss of which would have a significant effect on the earnings of a segment. The loss of business from any one, or a few, independent brokers or agents would not have a material adverse effect on our earnings or any of our segments. Refer to Note 19 of Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements, which begins on page 82 of the Annual Report, which is incorporated herein by reference, regarding segment information.

We carry excess professional liability insurance.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Board of Directors and Shareholders

Aetna Inc.:

Under date of February 26, 2007, we reported on the consolidated balance sheets of Aetna Inc. and subsidiaries as of December 31, 2006 and 2005, and the related consolidated statements of income, shareholders' equity and cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended December 31, 2006, as contained in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year 2006. In connection with our audits of the aforementioned consolidated financial statements, we also audited the related financial statement schedule listed in the accompanying index. The financial statement schedule is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the financial statement schedule based on our audits.

In our opinion, such financial statement schedule, when considered in relation to the basic consolidated financial statements taken as a whole, presents fairly, in all material respects, the information set forth therein.

As discussed in Note 2 to the consolidated financial statements, effective January 1, 2006, the Company adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123(R), Share-Based Payment (FAS 123(R)). The Company elected to use the modified retrospective approach of adopting FAS 123(R) and, therefore, financial information for 2005 and 2004 has been adjusted. Also, as discussed in Notes 2 and 12 to the consolidated financial statements, effective December 31, 2006, the Company adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 158, Employers Accounting for Defined Benefit Pension and Other Postretirement Plans .
