

NYSE Euronext
Form 425
January 28, 2008

Filed by The Amex Membership Corporation

Pursuant to Rule 425 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended

Subject Companies:

NYSE Euronext (Commission File No. 001-33392)

The Amex Membership Corporation

Dear Amex Seat Owners:

After careful consideration and thorough review, on Thursday, January 17th, 2008, the American Stock Exchange entered into a definitive agreement (the Agreement) to be acquired by NYSE Euronext, the world's largest exchange group. The agreement followed approvals by the board of The Amex Membership Corporation and the American Stock Exchange LLC Board of Governors and NYSE Euronext Board of Directors.

The Agreement was filed by NYSE Euronext with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) on January 18, 2008, as exhibit 2.1 to Form 8-K and can be accessed on the SEC's website at <http://www.sec.gov>.

The proposed business combination will be subject to requisite approval by the Amex seat owners, and customary regulatory approvals, including from the SEC and Department of Justice. Subject to regulatory approvals and other closing conditions, we anticipate this business transaction to close in the third quarter of this year.

Under terms of the agreement, NYSE Euronext will pay $260 million in NYSE Euronext common stock for the Amex. The shares of NYSE Euronext common stock will not be subject to any transfer restrictions. There are 837 seats outstanding: 807 regular seats and 30 Options Principal Member (OPM) seats. The 30 outstanding OPM seats will be valued at a $36,000 discount to a regular seat. Accordingly, each regular member will receive $311,923.54 in NYSE Euronext shares and each OPM will receive $275,923.54 in NYSE Euronext shares. In addition, as described in more detail in the Agreement, Amex seat owners will also be entitled to receive contingent consideration in the form of additional shares of NYSE Euronext common stock based on the net proceeds (net of fees, taxes, and other items as provided in the Agreement), if any, from the expected sale of Amex's headquarters in lower Manhattan. We are unable to predict the net sales proceeds that will be realized from the sale of Amex's headquarters 86 Trinity Place and 22 Thames Street.

As required by U.S. securities laws, a registration statement on Form S-4 will be filed with the SEC to register the NYSE Euronext shares to be issued in the transactions described above. The S-4 will include a proxy statement with relevant information to permit you to make an informed decision. When finalized, the S-4 and proxy statement will be distributed to seat owners prior to a seat owners meeting which will be held to approve the Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby,

As for the Gratuity Fund, it will be terminated upon the effectiveness of the merger and any excess of funds then held in the Gratuity Fund will be distributed to participants of the fund.

We realize that you will have many more questions about the proposed transaction. Please be patient as we put together a detailed proxy statement that will provide comprehensive information about the deal. You will have ample time to review the proxy statement and have your questions answered before you vote on this proposed transaction.

We will also be scheduling one or more informational meetings.

This proposed transaction offers Amex the scale and liquidity that we likely could not achieve going forward independently. This is an exciting time for the Amex as we prepare to join NYSE Euronext and become part of the world's leading multi-asset global exchange. We know that you have many questions and we look forward to providing you with more information in the near future.

Sincerely,

/s/ Neal L. Wolkoff
