On January 18, 2011, L-1 Identity Solutions, Inc. filed a Form 8-K, the text of which is set forth below:

On January 12, 2011, L-1 Identity Solutions, Inc. (the "Company") received notification from the Federal Trade Commission that the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the "HSR Act") applicable to the previously announced Safran merger transaction was terminated. L-1 continues to expect the Safran merger to close during the first quarter of 2011, subject to the timing of the Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States ("CFIUS") process in respect of the Safran merger, and assuming satisfaction or waiver of all other applicable conditions.

With respect to the previously announced sale of L-1's intelligence services business group (the "Intel Sale") to BAE Systems Information Solutions Inc. ("BAE Systems"), the waiting period under the HSR Act applicable to the pending Intel Sale has terminated, and the Company and BAE Systems have received written notice from CFIUS that review of the Intel Sale has concluded and that there are no unresolved national security concerns with respect to such Intel Sale. L-1 expects the Intel Sale to close in the first quarter of 2011, subject to the receipt of a U.S. government customer's confirmation of a planned contract novation (as further described below) and assuming satisfaction or waiver of all of other applicable conditions.

In connection with the pending Intel Sale, on January 14, 2011, the Company delivered notice to BAE Systems providing for the exercise of the Company's right to extend the outside termination date under Section 8.1(b) of the Purchase Agreement, dated as of September 19, 2010 (the "Intel Purchase Agreement"), by and between the Company and BAE Systems. As previously disclosed, the Intel Purchase Agreement provides that either party may terminate the agreement beginning on January 19, 2011 (the "Outside Date") if the Intel Sale had not been consummated by such date, subject to certain rights of the parties to extend the Outside Date for an additional two months in certain circumstances. Pursuant to such rights, the Company has elected (and BAE Systems has agreed) to extend the Outside Date until March 19, 2011 to allow for additional time to complete the novation of a certain U.S. government contract as required by the Intel Purchase Agreement. Such contract and related assets have been transferred to a third party in accordance with the Intel Purchase Agreement and the parties are waiting for formal confirmation of the novation from the affected U.S. government customer.

Forward Looking Statements

This document contains forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. Forward-looking statements are made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 and reflect the Company's current views based on management's beliefs and assumptions and information currently available. Forward-looking statements concerning future plans or results are necessarily only estimates, and actual results could differ materially from expectations. Certain factors that could cause or contribute to such differences include, among other things, the availability of customer funding for L-1 products and solutions, general economic and political conditions, the timing of consummating the previously announced proposed transactions with BAE Systems and Safran SA, the risk that a condition to closing such transactions may not be satisfied or waived, the risk that a regulatory approval that may be required for such transactions is not obtained or is obtained subject to conditions that are not anticipated, the ability of the Company to successfully refinance or amend its credit agreement on a timely basis if required, and additional risks and uncertainties described in the Securities and Exchange Commission filings of L-1 Identity Solutions, including its Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009 and the Company's Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2010 and the Form 8-K filed on November 17, 2010. L-1 Identity Solutions expressly disclaims any intention or obligation to update any forward-looking statements.
