HHS-OIG DROPS POTENTIAL ACTION AGAINST FOREST CEO HOWARD SOLOMON

NEW YORK, August 5, 2011 Forest Laboratories, Inc. (NYSE: FRX) today announced that the Office of the Inspector General, Department of Health and Human Services (HHS-OIG) has notified Howard Solomon, Forest's Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and President, that it has decided not to pursue his exclusion from federal healthcare programs.

As previously disclosed on April 13, 2011, Mr. Solomon was notified that HHS-OIG was considering his exclusion in connection with matters that were settled by Forest in 2010. This afternoon, Mr. Solomon received notification in a letter from HHS-OIG that it had decided not to seek his exclusion.

The HHS-OIG letter states: Based on a review of the information in our file and consideration of the information that your attorneys provided to us, both in writing and during an in-person meeting, we have decided to close this case. We anticipate no further action related to this matter.

Forest's Presiding Independent, Director Kenneth Goodman, stated, We are gratified by the HHS-OIG's determination that an exclusion of Mr. Solomon is unwarranted. Our company and board remain committed to ensuring that all Forest employees adhere to the highest standards of professional conduct and that our company operates under industry-leading compliance procedures. We also would like to thank our shareholders, employees and business partners who have consistently supported us throughout the process.

Dear Mr. Solomon:
Re: OI File Number H-11-40460-9

You were previously advised that an exclusion action was being proposed under section 1128(b)(15) of the Social Security Act based on your relationship to Forest Pharmaceuticals, Inc.

Based on a review of the information in our file and consideration of the information that your attorneys provided to us, both in writing and during an in-person meeting, we have decided to close this case. We anticipate no further action related to this matter.

Sincerely,

/s/ Peter Clark
