Gregory P. Hill, the Company's Executive Vice President and President, Worldwide Exploration and Production, to the Board.

In connection with Mr. O'Connor's retirement from the Company, which will begin on March 31, 2009, the Company entered into an agreement with Mr. O'Connor, which was approved by the compensation and management development committee, restricting him from engaging in certain activities that might be harmful to the competitive position of the Company. Under the agreement, 170,000 stock options unvested as of March 31, 2009 will be permitted to vest on their stated vesting dates and, together with other outstanding stock options, be permitted to remain exercisable for their stated terms. Also, a cash payment of $5,000,000 will be made in each of February 2010 and March 2011 to compensate him for unvested shares of restricted stock that will be forfeited upon his termination of employment.

In consideration for these arrangements, Mr. O'Connor has agreed that until March 31, 2011 he will not: (i) be employed by, serve as a director or manager of, act as a consultant to, or maintain any material ownership interest in, any business that competes with the business of the Company or its subsidiaries; (ii) disclose or use any confidential or proprietary information of the Company or its subsidiaries; (iii) employ or solicit for employment any employee or consultant of the Company or its subsidiaries, or assist any other person in doing so; (iv) interfere with business relationships of the Company or its subsidiaries; (v) disparage the Company or its subsidiaries or their respective directors, officers or employees; or (vi) otherwise engage in any activity detrimental to the business of the Company or its subsidiaries. Mr. O'Connor has also agreed to make himself available until March 31, 2011 to consult from time to time with the chief executive officer of the Company.

If such provisions are not complied with, the agreement provides that (a) any cash payments remaining to be paid will be forfeited and any cash payments previously made must be repaid, (b) all vested and unvested stock options will immediately terminate, and (c) any gain realized on exercise of vested and unvested stock options outstanding on March 31, 2009 (less taxes paid) must be repaid to the Company.
