ITEM 8.01. OTHER EVENTS.

On December 20, 2007, the Texas 3rd Court of Appeals in Austin, Texas, issued its decision in the appeal of the true-up order issued by the Public Utility Commission of Texas (Commission) to CenterPoint Energy, Inc. s (the Company s) transmission and distribution subsidiary, CenterPoint Energy Houston Electric, LLC (CEHE). The Court of Appeals opinion is attached as Exhibit 99.1.

In its opinion, the Court of Appeals reversed portions of an earlier decision by an Austin district court that would have allowed CEHE to recover certain costs related to the capacity auction true-up aspect of CEHE s 2004 stranded cost true-up filing. In addition, the Court of Appeals reversed the Commission s true-up order to the extent it allowed CEHE to recover certain excess mitigation credits that CEHE had been required to pay to Reliant Energy, Inc. (Reliant), but it did uphold a ruling by the district court that CEHE is entitled to the interest component of excess mitigation credits paid to retail electric providers other than Reliant. In response to a request from the Commission, the Court of Appeals ordered that the Commission s decision on tax normalization be remanded for further consideration. In all other respects, the Court of Appeals affirmed the Texas Utility Commission s true-up order, as modified by the district court s earlier ruling. When compared to the Commission s final true-up order, the Court of Appeals decision has the effect of reversing the Commission s decision (1) to disallow recovery of the $73 million interest component of the excess mitigation credits paid by CenterPoint to retail energy providers other than Reliant; (2) to disallow recovery of $146 million in excess deferred federal income taxes and investment tax credits; (3) and to allow recovery of $278 million in excess mitigation credits paid to Reliant. Additionally, appropriate interest would be applicable to these amounts. Although the Court of Appeals decision remands these issues, CEHE and the Company will seek further review of the true-up order from the Texas Supreme Court.
