Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On May 20, 2009, NeuStar, Inc. (the Company) entered into amendments with North American Portability Management LLC (NAPM) to adopt and implement certain IP fields and functionality under the seven contracts under which the Company provides telephone number portability and other clearinghouse services to telecommunications service providers in the United States (collectively, the Amendments). The particular IP fields and functionality that are adopted and implemented under the Amendments are the uniform resource identifier (URI) for voice, URI for multimedia message service, and URI for short message service (collectively, the Covered New URIs). The previously-filed amendments executed in January 2009 to the Company's contracts with NAPM contemplated the possible future adoption and implementation of these Covered New URIs fields.

The foregoing description of the Amendments is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Amendments, the form of which will be filed as an exhibit to the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2009.
