Edgar Filing: TRANSCONTINENTAL REALTY INVESTORS INC - Form SC TO-T/A

Item 1. Summary Term Sheet is hereby amended as follows:

See Item 1 of this Tender Offer Statement.

Items 4. Terms of the Transaction is hereby amended as follows:

See Item 1 of this Tender Offer Statement.

Item 8. Fairness of the Transaction is hereby amended as follows:

The following is added after the bullet point on page 24 of the Offer to Purchase:

- o The ARL board did not consider the liquidation value or the going concern value of TCI in reaching its fairness determination because it did not have available to it a current liquidation analysis of TCI, or any analysis of the going concern value thereof beyond the value assigned by the ongoing market for TCI's shares. Further, the ARL board did not believe that liquidation of TCI was a realistic alternative.
- o Because the ARL board had already given consideration to the historical market prices of TCI's stock, it did not give further consideration to its affiliates' open market purchases of such stock in connection with its fairness determination. The ARL board did note that the purchase of TCI common stock from Gotham Partners in April 2001 was material to the negotiations that led to the Settlement Agreement. See "Special Factors - Background of the Offer."
- o The ARL board was not aware of any firm offers made by any unaffiliated person during the past two years for the merger or consolidation of TCI with any other company, the sale or other transfer of all or any substantial part of the assets of TCI or a purchase of TCI's stock that would enable the holder to exercise control of TCI and, therefore, did not consider any such offers in its fairness determination.
- o The offer does not require the approval of TCI stockholders. Each stockholder will determine whether to tender or not and the offer is not dependent upon a vote of stockholders. No Stockholder will be compelled to sell in the Offer. In the event there is a follow-on merger after the expiration of the offer, ARL intends to seek the approval of at least a majority of unaffiliated TCI stockholders. The ARL board believes the offer is procedurally fair despite the absence of approval of at least a majority of stockholders because the terms of the offer were negotiated by Settlement Counsel representing the TCI stockholders as part of the Settlement Agreement and because no stockholder is required to accept the offer. See "Special Factors - Overview of the Lawsuit and Settlement Agreement that Led to this Tender Offer."
- o The TCI board did not retain an unaffiliated representative to act solely on behalf of the unaffiliated stockholders for purposes of negotiating the terms of the offer or preparing a report concerning fairness. The ARL board believes the offer is procedurally fair despite the absence of such a representative because the terms of the offer were negotiated by Settlement Counsel representing the TCI stockholders as part of the Settlement Agreement and because TCI has a board of directors that reviewed and approved the Settlement Agreement. See "Special Factors - Overview of the Lawsuit and Settlement Agreement that Led to this Tender Offer."

- o The ARL board was aware that BCM may receive fees, currently estimated to be $1,939,000, in connection with the sale of any property that may be sold and loans that may be obtained to finance the purchase of shares in the offer. The ARL board did not consider this fact material when making its determination of fairness because the price was determined in arms-length negotiations with Settlement Counsel representing the IOT stockholders as part of the negotiations that led to the Settlement Agreement. See "Special Factors - Overview of the Lawsuit and Settlement Agreement that Led to this Tender Offer."

The words "procedural and substantive" are added before the word "fairness" in the first sentence of the last paragraph on page 24 of the Offer to Purchase.
