EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Report of the Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee (the Committee) of the Board of Directors establishes the general compensation policies of the Company and specific compensation for each of the Company's executive officers. The purpose of this report is to inform stockholders of the Company's compensation policies for executive officers.

Compensation Philosophy

The Company has historically implemented a pay for performance compensation program for its executive officers. The compensation program is designed to motivate and reward executives responsible for attaining the financial and strategic objectives essential to the Company's success and continued growth, while at the same time allowing the Company to attract and retain high-caliber executives. The Committee believes that the Company's compensation practices reward executives commensurately with their ability (i) to meet the Company's established financial targets and other goals, through cash bonuses, and (ii) to drive increases in stockholder value, through stock options.

A central feature of the Company's compensation program is its emphasis on objective performance incentives that put a substantial portion of executives' total cash compensation at risk by tying it to the achievement of objective financial results and other goals. An additional important aspect of the Company's compensation program is its use of stock options. The Committee believes that the use of stock-based incentives ensures that the executive's interests are aligned with the long-term interests of the Company's stockholders. Executives are thereby given the incentive not only to meet their annual performance objectives, but also to achieve longer-term strategic goals.

Executive Officer Compensation Program

The key components of the Company's compensation program are base salary, cash bonuses and stock options.

Base Salary. The Committee annually reviews the base salary of each executive officer. For fiscal 2005, the Committee determined to approve increases in the base salaries of all executive officers, which had been frozen for the previous four consecutive years.

The Company entered into employment agreements with certain executive officers that establish certain minimum base salaries and bonus targets. The Committee has reviewed these salaries and targets and believes that they are consistent with the Company's compensation philosophy described above.

Cash Bonuses. Each executive of the Company is given a specified bonus target which he will receive if the applicable objectives set by the Committee are met. These bonus targets have typically been 100% of base salary. At the outset of the 2004 fiscal year, the Committee established quarterly and annual Company-wide financial objectives. Certain of the objectives for Mr. Berger were based on business unit level objectives. Mr. Dunsmore received a cash bonus equal to approximately 89% of his base salary, Mr. Krishnan received a cash bonus equal to approximately 91% of his base salary and Mr. Berger received a cash bonus equal to approximately 91% of his bonus target, resulting in a bonus equal to approximately 82% of his base salary, as a result of the company achieving certain financial objectives and partially achieving revenue growth objectives.

Similar to the program for fiscal 2004, the Committee has set criteria for achievement of cash bonuses in fiscal 2005 by the executive officers based upon the achievement of Company-wide financial goals and, in the case of Messrs. Krishnan and Berger, certain additional regional sales and business unit objectives, respectively. For fiscal 2005, the Committee set various bonus targets for Messrs. Dunsmore, Krishnan and Berger corresponding to levels of achievement of the financial objectives. For fiscal 2005, the bonus targets will remain at 100% of base salary for Messrs. Dunsmore and Krishnan and 90% of base salary for Mr. Berger. The cash bonus plan for fiscal 2005 sets quarterly and annual financial objectives, with 50% of the bonus target payable upon achievement of the approved quarterly financial objectives and 50% of the bonus target payable upon achievement of the approved annual financial objectives. Up to an additional 50% of the bonus target is payable upon exceeding certain financial objectives related to revenue growth and up to an additional 50% of the bonus target is payable upon achieving certain strategic growth objectives, which results in a maximum bonus of 200% of the individual's bonus target. In addition, the Compensation Committee has authority to award bonuses in its discretion.

Stock Options. Long-term incentives are provided through the Company's Stock Option Plan. The Plan is administered by the Committee, which is authorized to award stock options to employees of the Company and its subsidiaries, non-employee directors of the Company and certain advisors and consultants to the Company. The Committee has broad discretion to select the optionees and to establish the terms and conditions for the grant, vesting and exercise of each option. The Committee also administers the grant of stock-based incentive awards under the Company's 2000 Omnibus Stock Plan according to the same philosophy, although no such awards have been made yet.

In November 2003, Mr. Dunsmore was granted options to purchase 60,000 shares, Mr. Krishnan was granted options to purchase 35,000 shares and Mr. Berger was granted options to purchase 24,000 shares, all of which were granted with an exercise price of $9.65 per share, and in September 2004, Mr. Dunsmore was granted options to purchase 80,000 shares, Mr. Krishnan was granted options to purchase 40,000 shares and Mr. Berger was granted options to purchase 40,000 shares, all of which were granted with an exercise price of $10.78 per share (in each case, the exercise prices reflect fair market value on the date of the grant).

401-K Savings and Profit Sharing Plan. Company officers may participate in the Company's 401-K Savings and Profit Sharing Plan (the 401-K Plan) which allows any Company employee (other than persons classified by the Company as interns, temporary employees, certain part-time employees and certain other excluded categories of employees) who is at least 18 years of age to contribute part of his or her earnings to the 401-K Plan. Eligible employees who are regularly scheduled to work more than 24 hours per week can begin contributing on the first day of the month following their date of hire. In 2004, the maximum contribution was the lesser of 25% of pay or $13,000, and participants who were age 50 or older could make additional catch-up contributions up to a maximum of $3,000. In 2005, the maximum contribution will be the lesser of 25% of pay or $14,000, and participants who will have reached age 50 by the end of 2005 can make additional catch-up contributions up to a maximum of $4,000.

Under the 401-K Plan, the Company provides a matching contribution and has the discretion to make a profit sharing contribution. Profit sharing contributions are allocated in proportion to the earnings of eligible participants. To be eligible to receive profit sharing contributions for a year, the participant must be employed by the Company on December 31 of that year and must have completed at least 1,000 hours of service during the year. No profit sharing contributions were made in fiscal 2004.

Matching contributions are made each pay period for those employees who are active participants during the pay period, based on the contributions made by the employee during that pay period. For the 2004 calendar year, the Company provided a 100% match on the first 3% of pay contributed by each employee in each bi-weekly pay period and a 50% match on the next 2% of pay contributed by each employee in each bi-weekly pay period. The Company match will be the same for calendar year 2005.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The Compensation Committee, comprised entirely of independent, outside directors, is responsible for establishing and administering the Company's policies involving the compensation of executive officers. No employee of the Company serves on the Committee. The Committee members have no interlocking relationships as defined by the SEC.

EMPLOYMENT CONTRACTS; SEVERANCE, TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT AND CHANGE-IN-CONTROL ARRANGEMENTS

Joseph T. Dunsmore. The Company and Mr. Dunsmore are parties to an employment agreement entered into on October 24, 1999, relating to Mr. Dunsmore's election as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company. The agreement provides that Mr. Dunsmore will be paid an annual base salary of not less than $260,000. The Committee reviews Mr. Dunsmore's base salary annually and may, in its sole discretion, increase it to reflect performance and other factors. Mr. Dunsmore's annual base salary was increased by the Compensation Committee to $325,000 in fiscal 2005 after having been frozen at $260,000 for four consecutive years. Mr. Dunsmore is entitled to a cash bonus equal to 100% of his base salary, provided that the objectives set by the Committee are met. If some or all of the objectives are not met for a fiscal year, then the Committee shall determine in its discretion what portion of the target bonus amount, if any, will be paid to Mr. Dunsmore. If the objectives set by the Committee for a cash performance bonus are exceeded for a fiscal year, the Committee may, in its discretion, award Mr. Dunsmore a bonus that is larger than the target bonus.

In November 2003, Mr. Dunsmore was granted an option to purchase 60,000 shares of Common Stock of the Company at the fair market value on the date of grant, of which 50% of the shares were vested immediately and the other 50% vested in full on November 5, 2004. In September 2004, Mr. Dunsmore was granted an option to purchase 80,000 shares of Common Stock of the Company at the fair market value on the date of grant, which vests as to 25% of the shares on the first anniversary of the date of grant and as to the remaining 75% of the shares in equal monthly installments over the following 36 months. All of such option grants will also vest in full upon a change in control of the Company, which is deemed to occur if any person or group acquires more than 25% of the voting power of the Company, if there is a change in the membership of the Board of Directors, not approved by the continuing directors, such that the persons who were directors at the beginning of any three-year period no longer constitute a majority of the Board or in the event of a merger or consolidation of the Company in which less than 60% of the common stock of the surviving corporation is owned by the Company's stockholders, and the option granted in November 2003 would have also vested in full upon a termination without cause.

Under the terms of Mr. Dunsmore's employment agreement, if the Company terminates his employment without cause, Mr. Dunsmore is entitled to receive his then-current base salary for a period of twelve months. The agreement also provides that Mr. Dunsmore is entitled to the benefits and perquisites which the Company generally provides to its other employees under applicable Company plans and policies.

Subramanian Krishnan. The Company and Mr. Krishnan are parties to a letter agreement dated March 26, 1999, as amended, which provides that if Mr. Krishnan's employment is terminated by the Company without cause at any time, he will be entitled to receive severance equal to one year's base salary and a bonus (if earned) that will be pro-rated for the portion of the fiscal year through the termination date. Mr. Krishnan's annual base salary was increased to $230,000 for fiscal 2005 after having been frozen at $200,000 for the previous four years.

In November 2003, Mr. Krishnan was granted an option to purchase 35,000 shares of Common Stock of the Company at the fair market value on the date of grant, of which 50% of the shares were vested immediately and the other 50% vested in full on November 5, 2004. In September 2004, Mr. Krishnan was granted an option to purchase 40,000 shares of Common Stock of the Company at the fair market value on the date of grant, which vests as to 25% of the shares on the first anniversary of the date of grant and as to the remaining 75% of the shares in equal monthly installments over the following 36 months, subject to accelerated vesting upon a change in control. Certain of the options granted to Mr. Krishnan, including those granted in November 2003 and September 2004, will also vest in full upon a change in control of the Company, which is deemed to occur under the same conditions as for purposes of Mr. Dunsmore's option vesting, and the options granted to Mr. Krishnan in November 2003 would also have vested in full upon a termination without cause. Mr. Krishnan also is entitled to the benefits and perquisites which the Company generally provides to its other employees under applicable Company plans and policies.

Table of Contents

Bruce A. Berger. The Company is a party to a letter agreement with Mr. Berger dated March 29, 2000, which provides that Mr. Berger will be paid an annual base salary of not less than $200,000. The Committee reviews Mr. Berger's base salary annually and may, in its sole discretion, increase it to reflect performance and other factors and increased Mr. Berger's base salary to $220,000 after having been frozen at $200,000 since joining the Company in 2000. The letter agreement also provides that Mr. Berger is entitled to a cash bonus equal to 90% of his base salary, provided that the objectives set by the Committee are met.

In November 2003, Mr. Berger was granted an option to purchase 24,000 shares of Common Stock of the Company at the fair market value on the date of grant, of which 50% of the shares were vested immediately and the other 50% vested in full on November 5, 2004. In September 2004, Mr. Berger was granted an option to purchase 40,000 shares of Common Stock of the Company at the fair market value on the date of grant, which vests as to 25% of the shares on the first anniversary of the date of grant and as to the remaining 75% of the shares in equal monthly installments over the following 36 months. The options will also vest in full upon a change in control of the Company, which is deemed to occur under the same conditions as for purposes of the other executive officers, and the option granted in November 2003 would also have vested in full upon a termination without cause.

Pursuant to the letter agreement, the Company also paid Mr. Berger's relocation expenses. The letter agreement also provides that Mr. Berger is entitled to the benefits and perquisites which the Company generally provides to its other employees under applicable Company plans and policies.

Under the terms of Mr. Berger's employment agreement, if the Company terminates his employment without cause, Mr. Berger is entitled to receive his then-current base salary for a period of six months and a pro-rated bonus payment based upon the period he worked in the year and actual fiscal year performance of the target objectives.

The Company also entered into a letter agreement with Mr. Berger dated December 14, 2001, which provides that Mr. Berger will hold the position of Senior Vice President of the Company and General Manager of NetSilicon, Inc. Pursuant to the terms of the December 14, 2001 letter agreement, the Company provides Mr. Berger with a cost-of-living adjustment payment in the amount of $25,000 during the time he is employed in the Boston, Massachusetts, area. The letter agreement provides that, for purposes of calculating any severance due to Mr. Berger as described above, his base salary would include his base salary and cost-of-living adjustment payment.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Based solely on a review of the copies of such forms furnished to the Company and written representations from the Company's directors and executive officers, all Section 16(a) filing requirements were met for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2004.
