The Company's Members adopted a resolution to amend the Company's Bylaws during its Annual Meeting held December 9-10, 2004, to reflect a change in Member voting and a change in director qualifications.

The amendment removed the requirement that a Member intending to exercise their individual vote was to obtain a certificate signed by the manager of the facility patronized by that Member certifying that such Individual Member is a member of the cooperative. The amendment also removed the prohibition against a split vote.

In addition, the amendment removed the director qualification that the candidate must currently be serving or shall have served at least one full term as a director of a Cooperative Association of the Company, and added a qualification that the candidate obtain a written endorsement of a locally elected producer board located within the region from which the individual is to be a candidate. The amendment also provides that certain of the eligibility requirements for directors must be met at all times commencing six months prior to election and while the director holds office.
