We have not authorized any other person to provide you with different information. If anyone provides you with different or inconsistent information, you should not rely on it. You should assume that the information appearing in this prospectus and the accompanying prospectus supplement is accurate as of the date on their respective covers. When used in this prospectus, the terms Medtronic, we, our and us refer to Medtronic, Inc. and its consolidated subsidiaries, unless otherwise specified.

About This Prospectus

This prospectus is part of a registration statement that we filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, or SEC, using the shelf registration process. Under this shelf registration process, selling securityholders may sell the securities described in this prospectus in one or more offerings. This prospectus provides you with a general description of the securities selling securityholders may offer.

Each time selling securityholders sell securities, we will provide a prospectus supplement that will contain specific information about the terms of that offering. The prospectus supplement may also add to, update or change information contained in this prospectus and, accordingly, to the extent inconsistent, information in this prospectus will be superseded by the information in the prospectus supplement. You should read both this prospectus and such prospectus supplement together with additional information described under the heading Where You Can Find More Information.

The prospectus supplement will describe the terms of the securities offered, any initial public offering price, the manner of distribution and any underwriting compensation and the other specific material terms related to the offering of these securities. For more detail on the terms of the securities, you should read the exhibits filed with or incorporated by reference in our registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part.

References to securities include any security that selling securityholders might sell under this prospectus or any prospectus supplement.

This prospectus and any prospectus supplement contains summaries of certain provisions contained in some of the documents described herein, but reference is made to the actual documents for complete information. All of the summaries are qualified in their entirety by the actual documents. Copies of the documents referred to in this prospectus and any prospectus supplement have been filed, or will be filed or incorporated by reference as exhibits to the registration statement of which this prospectus and any prospectus supplement is a part (or an amendment to the registration statement of which this prospectus and any prospectus supplement forms a part), and you may obtain copies of those documents as described below under Where You Can Find More Information.

Because we are a well-known seasoned issuer, as defined in Rule 405 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Act, we may add to this prospectus and offer additional securities by filing a prospectus supplement with the SEC at the time of the offer of those securities.

Forward-looking Statements

All statements included or incorporated by reference in this prospectus, other than statements of historical facts, that address activities, events or developments that we intend, expect, project, believe or anticipate will or may occur in the future are forward-looking statements. This prospectus contains forward-looking statements that are based on current expectations, estimates, forecasts and projections about us, our future performance, our business, our beliefs and our management's assumptions. In addition, we, or others on our behalf, may make forward-looking statements in press releases or written statements, or in our communications and discussions with investors and analysts in the normal course of business through meetings, webcasts, phone calls and conference calls. Words such as expect, anticipate, outlook, could, target, project, intend, plan, believe, seek, estimate, should, may, variations of such words and similar expressions, are intended to identify such forward-looking statements. These statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve certain risks, uncertainties and assumptions that are difficult to predict.

We describe some of the risks, uncertainties and assumptions that could affect our business, including our financial condition and results of operations, under the heading "Risk Factors" in our periodic reports on Forms 10-K and 10-Q and may update our descriptions of such risks, uncertainties and assumptions in any prospectus supplement. We base our forward-looking statements on our management's beliefs and assumptions based on information available to our management at the time the statements are made. We caution you that actual outcomes and results may differ materially from what is expressed, implied or forecast by our forward-looking statements. Reference is made in particular to forward-looking statements regarding growth strategies, financial results, product development, regulatory approvals, competitive strengths, intellectual property rights, litigation, mergers and acquisitions, market acceptance or continued acceptance of our products, accounting estimates, financing activities, ongoing contractual obligations and sales efforts. Except as required under the federal securities laws and the rules and regulations of the SEC, we do not have any intention or obligation to update publicly any forward-looking statements after the distribution of this offering memorandum, whether as a result of new information, future events, changes in assumptions, or otherwise.

Use of Proceeds

We will not receive any proceeds from any resales of securities by any selling securityholder.

Dividend Policy

During our 2006 fiscal year, we paid $464.8 million in dividends to our shareholders. We paid $404.9 million and $351.5 million in dividends to our shareholders during our 2005 and 2004 fiscal years, respectively. For the first quarter of our 2007 fiscal year, our quarterly dividend was 11 cents per share. Our regular quarterly dividend was 9.625 cents per share for each quarter of our 2006 fiscal year and 8.375 and 7.25 cents per share for each of the quarters during our 2005 and 2004 fiscal years, respectively. The payment of future dividends is subject to the discretion of our board of directors, which will consider, among other factors, our operating results, overall financial condition and capital requirements, as well as general business conditions.

Ratio of Earnings to Fixed Charges

	April 28, 2006	April 29, 2005	Year Ended: April 30, 2004	April 25, 2003	April 26, 2002
Ratio of earnings to fixed charges	22.2	32.5	37.1	36.4	17.3

For these ratios, we compute earnings by adding our income before income taxes and fixed charges (excluding capitalized interest) and excluding our share of income and losses in our equity method affiliates. Our fixed charges consist of interest expense, including capitalized interest, amortized premiums, discounts and capitalized expenses related to indebtedness and estimated interest included in rental expense.

In April 2006, we raised $4.4 billion of cash proceeds by issuing convertible notes at par in a private placement. Of the $4.4 billion convertible notes, $2.2 billion pay interest at 1.5 percent and are due in 2011 and $2.2 billion pay interest at 1.625 percent and are due in 2013. The notes are convertible into cash and, at our option, shares of our common stock, based on a conversion rate of 17.8113 shares of our common stock per $1,000 principal amount of notes (which is equal to a conversion price of approximately $56.14 per share) (subject to adjustment) and only under the following circumstances: (1) during any calendar quarter beginning after June 30, 2006 (and only during such calendar quarter), if the closing price of our common stock for at least 20 trading days in the 30 consecutive trading days ending on the last trading day of the immediately preceding calendar quarter is more than 140% of the applicable conversion price per share; (2) if specified distributions to holders of our common stock are made or certain corporate transactions occur, as set forth in the indentures relating to the notes; and (3) during the last month prior to maturity of the applicable notes. Upon conversion, a holder will receive an amount in cash equal to the lesser of (i) the principal amount of the note or (ii) the conversion value, determined in the manner set forth in the indentures relating to the notes. If the conversion value exceeds the principal amount of the note on the conversion date, we will also deliver, at our election, cash or shares of our common stock or a combination of cash and shares of our common stock having a value calculated as set forth in the indentures relating to the notes.

Selling Securityholders

Selling securityholders are persons or entities that directly or indirectly have acquired or in the future directly or indirectly acquire from us from time to time shares of our common stock or preferred stock, our debt securities or warrants, or a combination of the foregoing, in one or more unregistered private offerings. Such selling securityholders are or will be parties to registration rights agreements with us, or we otherwise have agreed or will agree to register their securities for resale. The initial purchasers of our securities, as well as their transferees, pledgees, donees or successors, all of which we refer to as selling securityholders, may from time to time offer and sell the securities pursuant to this prospectus or any applicable prospectus supplement.

Selling securityholders may offer all or some portion of the securities they hold. To the extent that any of the selling securityholders are broker-dealers, they are deemed to be, under interpretations of the SEC, underwriters within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

The applicable prospectus supplement will set forth the name of each selling securityholder and the number and type of our securities beneficially owned by such selling securityholder that are covered by such prospectus supplement. The applicable prospectus supplement will also disclose whether any selling securityholder has held any position or office with, has been employed by or otherwise has had a material relationship with us during the three years prior to the date of the prospectus supplement.

Plan of Distribution

We are registering the securities to provide the selling securityholders with freely tradable securities, but the registration of these securities does not necessarily mean that any of these securities will be offered or sold by the selling securityholders.

We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of the securities by the selling securityholders, but we have agreed, in certain cases, to pay the following expenses of the registration of such securities:

registration and filing fees;

fees and expenses for complying with securities or blue sky laws, including reasonable fees and disbursements of counsel in connection with blue sky qualifications; and the fees and expenses incurred in connection with listing the securities on each securities exchange on which similar issued securities are then listed.

We have no obligation to pay any underwriting fees, discounts or commissions attributable to the resale of the securities by the selling securityholders. We also have no obligation to pay any out-of-pocket expenses of the selling securityholders, or the agents who manage their accounts, or any transfer taxes relating to the registration or sale of the securities contemplated hereby.

The selling securityholders may from time to time sell the securities covered by this prospectus and any accompanying prospectus supplement directly to purchasers. Alternatively, the selling securityholders may from time to time offer such securities through dealers or agents, who may receive compensation in the form of commissions from the selling securityholders and for the purchasers of such securities for whom they may act as agent. The securities may be sold in one or more transactions at fixed prices, at prevailing market prices, at prices related to the prevailing market prices, at varying prices determined at the time of sale, or at negotiated prices. These sales may be effected in cross, block or other types of transactions:

on any national securities exchange or U.S. inter-dealer system of a registered national securities association on which the securities may be listed or quoted at the time of sale;

in the over-the-counter market;

in transactions otherwise than on these exchanges or systems or in the over-the-counter market;

through the writing of options, whether the options are listed on an options exchange or otherwise;

through the settlement of short sales; or through any other legally available means.

In addition, any securities covered by this prospectus that qualify for sale pursuant to Rule 144 or Rule 144A promulgated under the Securities Act may be sold under Rule 144 or Rule 144A rather than pursuant to this prospectus.

The selling securityholders and any dealers or agents that participate in the distribution of such securities may be deemed to be underwriters within the meaning of the Securities Act and any profit on the resale of the securities by them and any commissions received by any of these dealers or agents might be deemed to be underwriting commissions under the Securities Act.

In connection with distribution of the securities covered by this prospectus:

the selling securityholders may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers;

the broker-dealers may engage in short sales of the securities in the course of hedging the positions they assume with the selling securityholders;

the selling securityholders may sell the securities short and deliver the securities to close out these short positions;

the selling securityholders may enter into option or other transactions with broker-dealers that involve the delivery of the securities to the broker-dealers, who may then resell or otherwise transfer the securities; and the selling securityholders may loan or pledge the securities to a broker-dealer or other person or entity and the broker-dealer or other person or entity may sell the securities so loaned or upon a default may sell or otherwise transfer the pledged securities.

Persons participating in the distribution of the securities offered by this prospectus may engage in transactions that stabilize the price of the securities. The anti-manipulation rules of Regulation M under the Exchange Act may apply to sales of the securities in the market and to the activities of the selling securityholders.

To the extent required, the securities to be sold, the names of the selling securityholders, the respective purchase prices and public offering prices, the names of any agent, dealer or underwriter, and any applicable commissions or discounts with respect to a particular offer will be set forth in an accompanying prospectus supplement or, if appropriate, a post-effective amendment to the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part.

ITEM 15. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Minnesota Statutes Section 302A.521, subdivision 2, requires us to indemnify a person made or threatened to be made a party to a proceeding by reason of the former or present official capacity of the person with respect to us, against judgments, penalties, fines, settlements, and reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees and disbursements, incurred by the person in connection with the proceeding if certain statutory standards are met. In addition, Section 302A.521, subdivision 3, requires payment by us, upon written request, of reasonable expenses in advance of final disposition of the proceeding in certain circumstances. A decision as to required indemnification is made by a disinterested majority of our board of directors present at a meeting at which a disinterested quorum is present, or by a designated committee of our board of directors, by special legal counsel, by our shareholders, or by a court. Section 302A.521 contains detailed terms regarding such right of indemnification and reference is made thereto for a complete statement of such indemnification rights.

Our bylaws provide for indemnification by us to the full extent permitted by Minnesota Statutes Section 302A.521, as now enacted or hereafter amended, against and with respect to threatened, pending, or completed actions, suits, or proceedings arising from, or alleged to arise from, a party's actions or omissions as a director, officer, employee, or agent of us or any subsidiary of us or of any other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise that has served in such capacity at the request of us if such acts or omissions occurred, or were or are alleged to have occurred, while such party was a director or officer of us. Generally, under Minnesota law, indemnification will be available only where an officer or director can establish that he or she acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of us. As permitted by Minnesota Statutes Section 302A.521, our articles of incorporation provide that a director shall have no personal liability to Medtronic or its shareholders for breach of his or her fiduciary duty as a director, to the fullest extent permitted by law.

We have established a directors and officers indemnification trust and we have filed a copy of such trust with the SEC.

As provided in Rule 430B, for liability purposes of the issuer and any person that is at that date an underwriter, such date shall be deemed to be a new effective date of the registration statement relating to the securities in the registration statement to which that prospectus relates, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such effective date, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such effective date.

(5) That, for the purpose of determining liability of the Registrant under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities, the undersigned Registrant undertakes that in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned Registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned Registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:

(i) Any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned Registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;

(ii) Any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned Registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned Registrant;

(iii) The portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned Registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned Registrant; and

(iv) Any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned Registrant to the purchaser.

(b) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that, in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than for the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
