Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers.

On November 27, 2006, Affiliated Computer Services, Inc. (the Company) announced the completion of the Company s internal investigation into its historical stock option practices and the actions it is taking in response to the findings of the investigation, including changes in its executive management.

Resignation of Mark A. King

On November 26, 2006, Mark A. King resigned as President, Chief Executive Officer and as a director of the Company. In connection therewith, on November 26, 2006 the Company and Mr. King entered into a separation agreement (the King Agreement). The King Agreement provides, among other things, that Mr. King will remain with the Company as an employee providing transitional services until June 30, 2007. In addition, under the terms of the King Agreement, unvested stock options have been terminated as of November 26, 2006, except that options that would have otherwise vested prior to August 31, 2007 will be permitted to vest on their regularly scheduled vesting dates provided that Mr. King does not materially breach certain specified provisions of the King Agreement. The exercise price of vested stock options will be increased to an amount determined by the Company in a manner consistent with the final determination of the review being performed by the Company in conjunction with the audit of the Company s financial statements for the Company s fiscal year ending June 30, 2006 and the exercise price of certain vested options will be further increased by the amount by which the aggregate exercise price of stock options previously exercised by Mr. King would have been increased had the stock options not been previously exercised. Vested options, if unexercised, will expire no later than June 30, 2008. The King Agreement also subjects Mr. King to non-competition and non-solicitation covenants until December 31, 2009. In addition, the King Agreement provides that Mr. King s existing severance agreement with the Company is terminated, Mr. King s salary will be reduced during the transition period and Mr. King will not be eligible to participate in any Company bonus plans, and Mr. King will be eligible to receive certain Company-provided health benefits through December 31, 2009. The preceding description of the material terms of the King Agreement is qualified in its entirety by the King Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and is incorporated by reference herein.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On November 27, 2006, the Company announced the completion of its internal investigation into its historical stock option practices and the actions it is taking in response to the findings of the investigation, including changes in its executive management. In connection therewith, the Board of Directors today announced the following actions and decisions, some of which have already been implemented:

Each of Mr. King and Mr. Edwards resigned from all positions with the Company, effective immediately and subject to the transitional periods described under Item 5.02 above, and the Company and each of Mr. King and Mr. Edwards entered into the King Agreement and the Edwards Agreement, respectively.

The stock options held by the Company's employees (other than Messrs. King and Edwards) will be adjusted as necessary, with the optionee's consent, to avoid adverse tax consequences to the employee, and the Company will compensate such employees for any increase in exercise price resulting from the matters which were the subject of the internal investigation.

The stock options held by the Company's non-employee directors will be adjusted so that the exercise price equals the fair market value of the Company's stock on the proper measurement date, regardless of whether such adjustment is necessary to avoid adverse tax consequences to the director.

Another employee (not an officer as defined in Rule 16a-1(f) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) will be reassigned and all of such employee's stock options will be repriced so that the exercise price equals the fair market value of the Company's stock on the proper measurement date, regardless of whether such adjustment is necessary to avoid adverse tax consequences to the employee.

The Company will consider whether to recover certain profits from Jeffrey Rich, former Chief Executive Officer of the Company, which relate to stock options awarded to Mr. Rich which the internal investigation concluded were awarded through a process in which favorable grant dates were selected after the fact.

The Company will implement a number of changes to its internal controls, including:

- o Designating internal legal and accounting staffs to oversee the documentation and accounting of all grants of stock options or restricted stock.

 - o Monitoring industry and regulatory developments in stock option and restricted stock awards and implementing and maintaining best practices with respect to grants of stock options or restricted stock.
