LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS
OF MORTON'S RESTAURANT GROUP, INC.
FROM BFMA HOLDING CORPORATION

On July 12, 2002, BFMA Holding Corporation ("BFMA") delivered a letter to shareholders of Morton's Restaurant Group, Inc. ("Morton's"), in the form set forth below:

BFMA HOLDING CORPORATION
50 EAST SAMPLE ROAD, SUITE 400
POMPANO BEACH, FL 33064

July 12, 2002

Dear Fellow Shareholder:

Edgar Filing: MORTONS RESTAURANT GROUP INC - Form DFAN14A

VOTE AGAINST THE CASTLE HARLAN OFFER TO MAXIMIZE YOUR INVESTMENT IN MORTON'S RESTAURANT GROUP (TICKER SYMBOL: MRG)

At the upcoming meeting of Morton's shareholders currently scheduled for July 23, 2002, the shareholders will be voting whether to approve Castle Harlan's $16.00 offer to buy the company. BFMA and its officers and directors own 14% of the outstanding shares of Morton's, and BFMA currently seeks your support in order to vote AGAINST this offer. We believe that the current management and Board of Directors of Morton's, especially Allen Bernstein, have NOT been acting in your best interests. They have taken actions to prevent you from voting on the highest offer made to date, a $17.00 offer made by Carl C. Icahn, a 7% shareholder of Morton's. To protect your investment and to maximize the value of your shares, we urge you to sign, date and return the attached proxy card voting AGAINST the Castle Harlan offer TODAY.

ALLEN BERNSTEIN HAS NO CREDIBILITY;
HE IS A TOOL OF JOHN CASTLE AND CASTLE HARLAN

You may have recently read letters from Allen Bernstein, the current Chairman and CEO of Morton's, including an obnoxious letter to Carl Icahn dated July 11, 2002. We believe that Allen Bernstein has written these letters in order to coerce you into believing that the shareholders have no choice but to accept the current Castle Harlan offer. However, Mr. Bernstein's statements are not credible -- LET'S SET THE RECORD STRAIGHT.

- o Allen Bernstein voted in favor of the $12.60 offer by Castle Harlan, in line with what he states was the board's fiduciary duties. Once a company has made a decision to sell to a third party, under Delaware law the board's fiduciary duties are to seek the highest price for the company. He criticizes Carl Icahn for only offering $13.50 at first. Then he rejects the higher $17.00 offer and hides behind the contractual obligation that delivers the company to his long-time partner at a lower price. OUTRAGEOUS!
- o Allen Bernstein is an equity investor in the Castle Harlan offer, although the proxy materials the company has sent to you to date does not detail the amount of such interest. As Mr. Bernstein stated in his letter to Carl Icahn, "Those with a direct interest in Castle Harlan recused themselves from all deliberations as you well know." Morton's own proxy material reflects that, since Carl Icahn's initial offer, Mr. Bernstein has been disqualified from considering or voting on the Castle Harlan and Icahn offers (as has John Castle). Of course, it is somewhat troubling (but not surprising, given the conduct of this management group and board) that, given his direct interest, he voted in favor of the original $12.60 offer by Castle Harlan.
- o Given his direct interest in the Castle Harlan offer, you should take all public statements from Allen Bernstein with a large grain of salt. As I have written in previous letters that are publicly available on the SEC's web site (<http://www.sec.gov/edgar/searchedgar/companysearch.html> - type "BFMA" under "Company name"), he has impeded the sale process as much as possible over the last 17 months, since BFMA became involved. Now, 12 days prior to the meeting, he finally admits what we have known all along - he is directly involved in the Castle Harlan group.

Edgar Filing: MORTONS RESTAURANT GROUP INC - Form DFAN14A

- o Mr. Bernstein and the remainder of the Morton's board do not want to waive the poison pill rights plan because they do not want higher offers from Carl Icahn or anyone else. They want Castle Harlan to buy the company to maintain the status quo. Given the recent number of well-publicized cases of directors being held personally liable and accountable for breaching their duties and failing shareholders and the current environment of the SEC regarding actions of chief executives and financial officers and their crony boards, the last thing this management team and board wants is for a new buyer to have a chance to sift through the actions of the prior regime, many of which I have detailed in my prior letters.
- o Allen Bernstein's recent public statements regarding the company's poor financial performance, his warnings about a potential delisting of the company's shares and his expressions of concern regarding the limitation on the company's growth due to its financing terms are wholly inconsistent in the face of his partner Castle Harlan's $3.40 increase in its offer price since its original offer. How does he explain this conflict?
- o In that vein, why has the company not released any detailed second quarter financial information for your review, so that you may have all information necessary to vote? Because in my view the company does not want to inform you that Morton's, like many of Morton's competitors, has demonstrated dramatic recent financial improvement in these past few months. Wouldn't you want this information to evaluate the $16.00 offer by Castle Harlan? We note that Castle Harlan, through John Castle, already has access to this information and has blocked Carl Icahn from making a higher bid. I remind you that the special committee negotiated this sale at the worst possible time in the company's history.
- o Allen Bernstein's letter to Carl Icahn snidely asked "And where were you months ago when the Company publicly invited third party bids?" The company never ran a formal auction and we believe actively deterred all credible third-party bidders. ALLEN BERNSTEIN HAS NO CREDIBILITY - HE WILL SAY AND DO ANYTHING SO THAT HIS PAL JOHN CASTLE WINS THE BID. First, he shut BFMA out of the process. Now that he was unable to keep out Carl Icahn, he used the company's poison pill rights plan against the shareholders and fired off an obnoxious letter to Mr. Icahn.

THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE IS STILL BIASED IN FAVOR OF CASTLE HARLAN AND, IN DOING SO, IS VIOLATING DELAWARE CORPORATE LAW

The special committee's rejection of Carl Icahn's $17.00 per share offer, based on its refusal to waive its "poison pill" rights agreement provisions, is despicable. These provisions were originally designed to protect a company's shareholders from unwanted offers but are now being used against you in order, in my opinion, to help the special committee deliver Morton's to Messrs. Bernstein and Castle. In Mr. Bernstein's view, according to his letter to Mr. Icahn dated July 11, 2002, waiving the provisions would be a direct and clear violation of the Board's fiduciary duties to our other stockholders because it would require the Company to breach an existing merger agreement. First, why is Mr. Bernstein, an equity investor in the Castle Harlan group, even speaking for the company? Second, as the company is well aware, a company cannot, under current Delaware law, contractually prevent itself from exercising its right to waive this type of plan. Therefore, we believe that the special committee, in negotiating away this right, breached its fiduciary duties to the shareholders of Morton's back in March when the agreement was signed.

This is only my opinion, but perhaps if the special committee were focused on doing its job properly instead of trying to do everything possible to gift-wrap the company for Castle Harlan, the special committee would have been more open to third-party bidders earlier in the process and negotiated a price that reflects the true value of the company. Every increase by Castle Harlan makes the special committee appear to be more and more foolish and simply a puppet of John Castle, Allen Bernstein and Tom Baldwin and allowing Castle Harlan simply to match the economic terms of the Icahn offers only makes this look worse. In my view, the rejection of Carl Icahn's $17.00 offer is a breach of the special committee's fiduciary duties to the shareholders. In my opinion, the special committee has made a complete farce of this sale process.

VOTE AGAINST THE INADEQUATE CASTLE HARLAN OFFER

Each Morton's shareholder has a clear-cut choice: vote for the Castle Harlan offer and sell your stock for a price that undervalues your investment OR vote against the Castle Harlan offer and send a message that the shareholders are looking for real value for their shares. The actions of management, the board and the special committee speak for itself. We believe that management is more interested in keeping its positions and secrets than in maximizing shareholder value and that the board and special committee are more interested in delivering the company to their friends at Castle Harlan. Their request that you vote for the Castle Harlan offer is neither credible nor in your best interests.

A VOTE AGAINST THE CASTLE HARLAN OFFER IS A VOTE FOR MAXIMIZING SHAREHOLDER VALUE. IF YOU WANT TO MAXIMIZE VALUE, YOU MUST ACT NOW! YOUR VOTE AND PROMPT ACTION ARE IMPORTANT. WE URGE YOU TO GRANT YOUR PROXY AGAINST THE CASTLE HARLAN OFFER BY SIGNING, DATING AND RETURNING THE ATTACHED PROXY CARD TODAY.

Sincerely,

/s/ Barry W. Florescue
