On December 18, 2001, eLoyalty Corporation announced that its stockholders had approved the following three proposals at a special meeting held for such purpose: (i) the issuance and sale of shares of 7% Series B convertible preferred stock in a private placement to funds affiliated with Technology Crossover Ventures and Sutter Hill Ventures, and the issuance of common stock upon the conversion of that preferred stock; (ii) an increase in the number of authorized shares of both the company's common stock and the company's preferred stock; and (iii) a one-for-ten reverse stock split with respect to all issued shares of the company's common stock and a corresponding reduction in the number of authorized shares of the company's common stock, including the shares authorized in (ii) above.

The increase in the number of authorized shares and the one-for-ten reverse stock split are expected to become effective prior to the opening of business on December 19, 2001. Additionally, eLoyalty expects to close the private placement and the related rights offering being conducted by eLoyalty after the close of the market on December 19, 2001.
