On July 13, 2006, AmerUs Group Co. posted the following message on its extranet website accessible to the sales agents of AmerUs Group Co., which was addressed to such sales agents from Thomas C. Godlasky, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, President and Chief Executive Officer of AmerUs Group Co.

To Our Agents:

Early this morning we announced a momentous development in the history of our organization: AmerUs Group and Aviva plc signed a definitive agreement under which Aviva will acquire AmerUs Group for $69 per share in cash for all outstanding shares of AmerUs Group common stock. Details of the transaction are included in the attached press release.

Aviva plc is the fifth largest insurance group in the world, with strong financial resources and an AA credit rating. By combining with Aviva's U.S. operations, we will have the additional scale, resources and opportunity to expand our business and fulfill our growth vision well beyond what we could achieve independently.

One of the attractions of our business to Aviva is the strength of our diverse distribution network and we expect the opportunities for AmerUs agents to be significantly enhanced by this transaction. Aviva is one of the leading providers of life and pension products in Europe, and has offered individual and group life and annuity products around the globe. They know our business well. By joining with Aviva, our distribution network will benefit from our increased scale and financial strength, as well as expanded marketing initiatives including the opportunity to build over time on Aviva's strong internationally-recognized brand name. Importantly, Aviva shares our commitment to providing you with the products and service you need to meet your clients' needs.

The business will operate under the name of Aviva and will be headquartered in Des Moines, Iowa. I will become the president and chief executive officer of the new Aviva USA, reporting to Philip Scott, group executive director of Aviva plc. Gary McPhail will continue to head our individual life sales and distribution, and Mark Heitz will continue to head the individual annuity sales and distribution business.

AmerUs Group dates back to 1896, and Aviva can trace its roots back as far as the late 17th century to Hand-in-Hand, at the time the oldest existing fire insurance office in the world. Both companies are passionate about creating prosperity and peace of mind for our customers, shareholders and employees, while acting as good corporate citizens. To address questions that you may have, a Q&A is attached for your review. As we move forward we expect to provide you with updates on the transaction.

As always, thank you for your support and for all you do to serve our policyowners and to make our partnership such a success. Thank you for joining with us to build new opportunities as part of the new Aviva USA upon completion of the acquisition.

Sincerely,

/s/ Thomas C. Godlasky

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This document contains statements which constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, which include words such as anticipate, believe, plan, estimate, expect, intend, and other similar and related expressions. Forward-looking statements are made based upon management's current expectations and beliefs concerning future developments and their potential effects on AmerUs Group. Such forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future events. Actual results may differ materially from those contemplated by the forward-looking statements due to, among others, the following factors: (1) the shareholders of AmerUs Group may not approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement at the special shareholder meeting; (2) the parties may be unable to obtain governmental and regulatory approvals required for the merger, or required governmental and regulatory approvals may delay the merger or result in the imposition of conditions that could cause the parties to abandon the merger; (3) the parties may be unable to complete the merger because, among other reasons, conditions to the closing of the merger may not be satisfied or waived; or (4) other factors that may be referred to in AmerUs Group's reports filed with or furnished to the Securities and Exchange Commission from time to time. There can be no assurance that other factors not currently anticipated by AmerUs Group will not materially and adversely affect future events. Security holders are cautioned not to place undue reliance on any forward-looking statements made by AmerUs Group or on its behalf. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date the statement was made. AmerUs Group undertakes no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statement.
