ITEM 1.01. ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT.

Certain executives and designated officers of Las Vegas Sands Corp. (the "Company") are eligible to participate in the Company's Executive Cash Incentive Plan (the "Plan"). Under the Plan, the Performance Sub-Committee (the "Committee") of the Compensation Committee of the Company's Board of Directors (the "Board") annually establishes objective performance criteria tied to the financial goals of the Company for use in determining whether participants will receive bonuses under the Plan. The Committee approves specific bonus payment amounts following the end of each year. The amounts of the bonus payments are based on target bonus amounts set forth in the employment agreements of eligible Plan participants and depend on whether the corporate performance criteria set by the Committee are satisfied.

The Committee was created during the second quarter of 2005 and consists exclusively of members qualifying as "outside directors" under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. Messrs. Leven (Chairman) and Purcell currently serve on the Committee.

On March 28, 2006, the Committee established the quarterly performance criteria required to be met for Messrs. Adelson, Weidner, Stone, Goldstein, Henry and Serwin to earn the base bonus set forth under their respective employment agreements. The criteria selected was based on consolidated adjusted property EBITDAR targets for the Company, including The Venetian resort-hotel-casino property in Las Vegas, the Sands Macao casino in Macao, SAR, China and the Company's other properties (collectively, the "Properties"), calculated in the same manner as the budget for 2006 submitted by management of the Company to the Committee. The Committee also established the annual performance criteria required to be met for Messrs. Adelson, Weidner, Stone, Goldstein, Henry and Serwin to earn an annual supplemental bonus and annual restricted stock grants under their respective employment agreements. The criteria selected were also based on consolidated adjusted property EBITDAR target for the Properties, calculated in the same manner as the budget for 2006 submitted by management of the Company to the Committee.

If the 2006 quarterly base bonus performance criteria set by the Committee are met, the executives will earn quarterly base bonuses equal to one quarter of the individual target base bonus set forth in their employment agreements. If the 2006 quarterly base bonus performance criteria are not met, Plan participants may earn the missed quarterly payments in later quarters based on the achievement of year-to-date targets set by the Committee. The executives may earn an annual supplemental bonus at levels set forth in their respective employment agreements, depending on whether the annual performance criteria set by the Committee are met, exceeded, or not met. If 80% of these performance criteria are not met, then no annual supplemental bonus will be paid and if 110% of these performance criteria are met a maximum of 160% of the annual supplemental bonus target will be paid. If these performance criteria are met, then restricted stock with values set forth in their respective employment agreements will be granted to the executives.
