Item 5. Other Events

On January 30, 2003, King Pharmaceuticals, Inc., a Tennessee corporation, announced that it and Elan Corporation, plc have signed a definitive agreement for King to acquire Elan's primary care business unit in the United States, its territories and possessions, and Puerto Rico, which includes two branded prescription pharmaceutical products, including related new drug applications, copyrights, patents and licenses to certain patents associated with potential new formulations of the products, together with Elan's experienced primary care field sales force consisting of over 400 representatives. As part of the transaction, King will acquire certain intellectual property, regulatory, and other assets relating to one of the products directly from Wyeth Pharmaceuticals. The transaction is expected to close before the end of April 2003, subject to the satisfaction of certain contingencies, including approval by the holders of a majority of the outstanding common stock of Elan, appropriate governmental approval, and other customary conditions. On January 30, 2003, King issued a press release regarding the proposed transaction.
