RULE 12B-25(b) AND (c)

If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check appropriate box.)

(a) The reasons described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense;

PART III
NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 10-KSB, 11-K, 20-F, 10-Q, 10-QSB, N-SAR or the transition report portion thereof could not be filed within the prescribed time period. (Attach extra sheets if needed.)

Levitt Corporation owns approximately 31% of the outstanding common stock of Bluegreen Corporation (Bluegreen), a publicly traded company, and accounts for its interest under the equity method of accounting. Bluegreen announced that it was restating its financial results for prior periods. Final results of that restatement were only recently made available to the Company. We were unable to complete the preparation of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005 (the Form 10-K), within the required time period, without unreasonable effort or expense because we could not timely complete our analysis of the impact of Bluegreen's restatement on our financial statements after receipt of final information from Bluegreen.

In addition, the Company has not completed its review of the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting as required by Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 for the year ended December 31, 2005. The Company has identified certain control deficiencies and is continuing its assessment as to whether any of such control deficiencies, either individually or in combination, constitutes a material weakness in the company's internal control over financial reporting as of year end. Completing this assessment has also required additional time and effort.
