Item 5.03 Amendment to Articles of Incorporation or By-Laws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On February 23, 2007, the Board of Directors (the Board) of Harris Corporation (Harris or the Company) amended the Company's By-Laws effective immediately to: (i) provide that each director shall be elected by the vote of the majority of the votes cast (meaning the number of shares voted for a nominee must exceed the number of shares voted against such nominee) in uncontested elections of directors, although the Company will retain its current plurality voting standard in contested elections of directors (such changes are reflected in Article III, Section 2 of the By-Laws, as amended and restated); and (ii) provide that advance notice of director nominations by shareholders include all information concerning the nominee as would be required under the proxy rules (such changes are reflected in Article II, Section 8(b) of the By-Laws, as amended and restated). The foregoing summary of such amendments is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of Harris By-Laws, as amended and restated effective February 23, 2007, filed as Exhibit 3(ii) to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated in this Item 5.03 by reference.

In connection with the amendment to the Company's By-Laws establishing a majority vote standard for the election of directors in uncontested elections, Harris also amended its Corporate Governance Principles (which are available on the Company's Corporate Governance website) to: (i) establish a policy that any nominee in an uncontested election who receives a greater number of against votes than for votes shall promptly tender his or her resignation for consideration by the Corporate Governance Committee of the Board; and (ii) provide that the Corporate Governance Committee will make a recommendation to the Board regarding action to be taken with respect to any such offer to resign, which Board action shall generally be taken within 90 days following certification of the vote. The foregoing summary of such resignation policy is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of such policy filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated in this Item 5.03 by reference.
